

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. dreamed of a fair and kind world where all people would be judged not by their color of their skin, but by the content of their character (what kind of person they are on the inside).

You have the power to help make Dr. King's dream come true!

- Read the pledge on the attached bookmark.
- Think about ways you can follow the pledge.
- Sign the pledge, promising to follow it and help make the dream come true.
- Share and discuss the pledge with your family.
- Use your bookmark every day to remind you of your promise and help make the dream a reality!

Pledge source: Martin Luther King Jr. National Historic Site Visitor Center

I'm making
Dr. King's dream come true!

I pledge to honor Martin Luther King, Jr.'s life and non-violent work by helping to make this world a better, more just place for all people.

I will:

- Respect all people
- Live a life of loving, not hating
- Choose patience over anger, non-violence over force
- Actively help to promote freedom, justice, and world peace

Name: _____ Date: _____

Pledge source: Martin Luther King Jr. National Historic Site Visitor Center