INTRODUCTION

BRIEF HISTORY

National PTA was founded on February 17, 1897, in Washington, D.C., as the National Congress of Mothers. Fathers and teachers joined in increasing numbers, so the name was changed in 1925 to the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. Alice McLellan Birney and Phoebe Apperson Hearst are the co-founders of the National PTA.

The National Congress of Colored Parents and Teachers was organized in 1926 in Atlanta with Selena Sloan Butler as founder. The National PTA helped set up the association and worked closely with the group, whose objects and child welfare goals were the same as its own.

The National Congress of Parents and Teachers and the National Congress of Colored Parents and Teachers united on June 11, 1970. The unified organization, continuing as the National Congress of Parents and Teachers (National PTA), serves all children with equal concern for all.

1897 – OUR FOUNDERS’ VISION

Alice McLellan Birney and Phoebe Apperson Hearst founded an association – a nationwide movement – in a time when social activism was scorned and women did not have the vote. They knew there is no stronger bond than that between mother and child. Therefore, they felt it was up to mothers of this country to eliminate the threats that endangered children. They called for action in 1897 and more than 2,000 people responded – many were mothers, but fathers, teachers, laborers, and legislators also responded – all with a commitment to children.

From that first meeting in Washington, D.C., grew a groundswell of support. Problems were identified and strategies devised to resolve them. Through consistent hard work, sometimes after years of perseverance, the dreams became reality:

- The creation of kindergarten classes
- Child labor laws
- A public health service
- Hot lunch programs
- A juvenile justice system
- Mandatory immunization

Between 1897 and 1919, 37 state-level congresses were chartered to help carry out the work of the organization.
PTA HIGHLIGHTS

1900s - Juvenile Justice and Child Labor Laws
Actions to curb delinquency, institute juvenile court system, and rehabilitation and probation undertaken.

1910s - Kindergarten
National Congress of Mothers recommended and lobbied for kindergarten to be made part of the American public school system.

1920s - Nationwide Children's Health Project
PTA cooperated with the U.S. Bureau of Education in a Summer Roundup of children to help parents identify and correct children's health problems before they started the 1st grade.

1930s - Nutrition and Emergency Services
PTA instituted a safety education program for school children. The rise of the automobile brought about special emphasis on bus safety and seatbelts, concerns that PTA continues to champion.

1940s - School Lunch Program
Mindful of children performing better in school when well nourished, PTA helped inaugurate a school lunch program on a nationwide basis.

1950s - Salk Polio Vaccine
A debilitatingcrippler for generations, polio struck thousands of school-age children each year. PTA helped combat the disease, by field testing of the Salk polio vaccine and later securing the polio vaccination for all school children.

1960s - Drug and Smoking Information
PTA encouraged schools to focus on the risks involved with substance abuse and created public service messages to educate parents and the general public about the dangers of addiction.

1970s - Merger and TV Media Violence
When National PTA merged with the National Congress of Colored Parents and Teachers in 1970, so did their identical mission to improve the lives of children. Additionally, violence on TV spurred PTA to speak out about what the effect programming had on children.

1980s - HIV/AIDS Awareness
The alarming rise in sexually transmitted diseases and the emergence of AIDS propelled PTA to create resources and programs to help parents talk frankly with their children about these issues.

1990s - Parent and Family Legislation
PTA created its National Standards for Parent/Family Involvement Programs, the benchmark used by dozens of organizations and governmental agencies to measure parent involvement. PTA was also a strong proponent of the Family Medical Leave Act, and the institution of National Education Goals to drive decisions about education for years to come.

2000 to Present - Parent Involvement/Building Successful Partnerships
PTA published "the" book on parent involvement, Building Successful Partnerships, to encourage parents to be an active partner with schools and teachers in the education of their children.

2010 the Georgia State Board of Education unanimously adopted the first statewide Parent Engagement Resolution, endorsing the National Standards for Family-School Partnerships as the framework for how families, schools and communities should work together to support student success. The resolution can be used as a guide by local school officials to develop local school and district plans and policies.

2010 - Parent Involvement Certification and Assessment was developed by the Family Engagement Committee for PTA leaders across Georgia. Georgia Department of Education recognizes this training for Parent Involvement Coordinators as a pre-certification for their program 360 Degrees of Parent Engagement.
PTA VISION, MISSION AND VALUES

PTA and its constituent organizations exist to achieve the Vision of PTA and fulfill the PTA Mission. Together we are a powerful voice for children. With your help, we can continue to work toward PTA's goals of a quality education and nurturing environment for every child.

- Commitment: We are dedicated to promote children’s health, well-being, and educational success through strong parent, family, and community involvement.
- Accountability: We acknowledge our obligations. We deliver on our promises.
- Respect: We value our colleagues and ourselves. We expect the same high quality effort and thought from ourselves as we do from others.
- Inclusivity: We invite the stranger and welcome the newcomer. We value and seek input from as wide a spectrum of viewpoints and experiences as possible.
- Integrity: We act consistently with our beliefs. When we err, we acknowledge the mistake and seek to make amends.

PTA Purposes: Historical Goals of PTA

- To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, community, and place of worship.
- To raise the standards of home life.
- To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.
- To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the education of children and youth.
- To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for all children and youth the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.
BASIC POLICIES OF PTA

The “Basic Policies” outlined in the Georgia PTA bylaws, in common with those of National, district, council and local unit PTAs, govern the activities of all PTAs. These policies ensure unity through the members’ commitment to the Purposes and help protect the association and it’s membership from exploitation.

• The association shall be noncommercial, nonsectarian and nonpartisan. (see below)

• The association shall work with the schools and community to provide quality education for all children and youth, and shall seek to participate in the decision-making process establishing school policy, recognizing that the legal responsibility to make decisions has been delegated by the people to boards of education, state education authorities, and local education authorities.

• The association shall work to promote the health and welfare of children and youth, and shall seek to promote collaboration between parents, schools and the community at large.

• No part of the net earnings of the association shall come to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, trustees, officers or other private persons except that the association shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II of the state bylaws.

• Notwithstanding any other provision of the bylaws, the association shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by an association exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (ii) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under sections 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

• Upon the dissolution of the association, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the association, the remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more nonprofit funds, foundations, or organizations which have established their tax-exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and whose purposes are in accordance with those of the National PTA.

• The association or members acting in their official capacities shall not (directly or indirectly) participate or intervene (in any way, including the publishing or distributing of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office; or devote more than an insubstantial part of its funds/activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise.

Noncommercial Policy - PTAs are prohibited under federal law from engaging in substantial business activities that are unrelated to their tax-exempt purposes, which are legally defined as educational and charitable. PTAs should not endorse products, companies, or foundations. PTAs may accept and acknowledge contributions of sponsors of PTA programs. PTAs may accept advertising as long as it stays within postal regulations and does not jeopardize the objects and nonprofit status of PTA.

Nonsectarian Policy - PTA welcomes into membership people representing a diversity of cultures, ethnic backgrounds, and political and religious beliefs. The Purposes of the PTA acknowledge the importance of a spiritual life in the development of children and youth.

Nonpartisan Policy - All PTA bylaws, whether national, state, district/region, council, or local, require the association to be nonpartisan in that it cannot support or oppose a political candidate. However, PTAs may propose, support, or oppose legislation needed to achieve the objects, provided that those efforts do not exceed the limitations placed upon such organizations under the federal tax laws.
PTA STRUCTURE AND ORGANIZATION

NATIONAL PTA

Membership is open to anyone who believes in our mission – To make every child’s potential a reality by engaging and empowering families and communities to advocate for all children. PTA is committed to being inclusive in its efforts to represent and assist all who nurture and educate children. It not only welcomes, but also actively seeks in its membership the widest diversity of cultures, races, ethnicities, creeds and economic and educational status. Individual members may belong to one or more PTAs and pay dues in each. Every person who joins a PTA automatically becomes a member of the state and National PTAs. National PTA will often be referred to as PTA.

Governance Structure

National PTA is composed of 55 state congresses and nearly 26,000 local units in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, U.S. Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico and the Department of Defense Schools in Europe and the Pacific. National PTA, as directed by its board of directors, provides leadership, programs, support, and resources to its members at all levels of the association.

State PTAs are the liaison between the local PTA and National PTA, helping each to function effectively and to support and sustain the other.

PTAs at the local level are valuable assets to their school communities by providing educational and parent involvement information, resources, events, and activities. They are linked to the state PTA and National PTA, forming a nationwide network of members working on behalf of all children and youth.

National Board of Directors

- Composed of twenty-eight (28) members; including National PTA president, president elect and secretary-treasurer; sixteen (16) members representatives elected by convention delegates; six (6) at-large and two (2) youth members appointed by the president.

GEORGIA PTA

Georgia Congress of Parents and Teachers (Georgia PTA) was organized in 1906 and continues to be an important link in the total PTA structure. Celebrating over 100 years of advocacy for children, the 300,000 Georgia PTA members and 950 local PTAs direct the efforts and activities for the organization. Every individual who becomes a member of a local unit automatically becomes a member of Georgia PTA and National PTA.

Governance Structure

A board of directors governs Georgia PTA. According to its articles of incorporation, the Georgia PTA Board of Directors has the sole authority to manage the affairs of the corporation, except for the authority that is vested by the bylaws and convention body.

The relationship between local units, councils and district PTAs and Georgia PTA is set forth in the Georgia PTA Bylaws and in the charter that is issued by Georgia PTA.

Georgia PTA officers, elected by the general membership for a two-year term of office, are the Georgia PTA administrators. Business is transacted by delegates at the state convention, at Georgia PTA Executive Committee meetings and at Georgia PTA Board of Directors meetings. The state office located in Atlanta and under the general supervision of the President is supported by a small staff responsible for the day-to-day administration of the state office.

Georgia PTA Board of Directors

- State officers, (elected by the convention body)
- District Directors (elected at district conferences)
- Chairpersons of the standing committees (elected by the officers) and
- A Parliamentarian (appointed by the President)

The Board of Directors meets four times per year, and has authority over the affairs of Georgia PTA between annual conventions. The Executive Committee performs duties between meetings of the Board of Directors.

There are a multitude of skills and services available from Georgia PTA.

- Convention Leadership Training is offered annually to conduct the business of the association and provide PTA leaders with the knowledge to perform their duties.
- State Advocacy Conference is held in the fall and PTA Day at the Capitol takes place every February to connect PTA members throughout the state with their state legislative representatives, thus enabling members to be a stronger voice for children at the local, state and federal level.
- PTA Universities are offered monthly, taught by experts in the field and on timely topics relevant to Membership, Leadership, Financial Viability and Organizational Effectiveness.
- State field service teams are available upon request to provide local on-site training. The function of these teams is to help strengthen local PTAs and councils by developing more effective leaders.
- Other services available include publications, such as the e-Voice (electronic newsletter); materials and other resources/guides.
- In addition to providing local units and councils with up to date information on legislative issues, Georgia PTA also provides representation at the Capitol and works closely with numerous educational and issue-focused organizations.
DISTRICTS

Reference: Georgia PTA Bylaws, Georgia PTA Policy and Procedures/District Standing Rules

Georgia PTA divides Georgia into 13 geographical divisions called PTA Districts in order to establish a closer working relationship with councils and local units and to integrate the work of local organizations with state and national plans and activities.

Governance Structure

The Executive Committee and Board of Directors govern the District PTA. Georgia PTA districts govern the association and direct the work of the districts according to the Georgia PTA bylaws, Georgia PTA Policies and Procedures and district standing rules. Districts have no legislative authority over constituent units unless Georgia PTA Board of Directors has delegated such authority.

Board of Directors

- District Executive Committee, committee chairpersons, council presidents and members of the state PTA board of directors residing within the district.
- The Executive Committee of the district consists of the District Director, elected district officers and appointed Parliamentarian.

Neither individuals nor local PTAs join the district. They automatically are part of a district because of their location in the state.

Responsibilities of District Director

- Elected by the membership within the district and serves a two-year term of office.
- Serves as the liaison from Georgia PTA Board of Directors and works with the councils and local PTAs in geographical areas of the state.
- Serves as a voting member of Georgia PTA Board of Directors, are represented on the Executive Committee, attends board meetings, and serves on committees as appointed or elected.
- Organizes the district board of directors. Plans and conducts fall and spring conferences in the district.
- Interprets PTA policies, plans, practices, publications and programs.
- Ensures schools of information or other workshops are conducted.
- Promotes and charters new units and councils and strengthens those already organized.
  - Promotes district publicity and fosters good public relations with superintendents and principals.
  - Reports regularly on progress of the work in the district and files monthly report of expenditures with the state PTA.
  - Integrates the work of local associations with state and national plans and activities.
  - Services councils and local PTAs through consultation, instruction and visits.
  - Presents recommendations to state PTA board of directors from councils and local PTAs.
  - Follows councils’ and local units’ membership, and promotes membership.
  - Promotes diversity and develops strong and active PTA leaders.

District Meetings

The district holds a conference meeting each fall and spring for the purpose of focusing on legislative issues and priorities, electing officers and such other business as may arise. The district director may plan other meetings for training or information per their plan of work throughout the year. Please visit the calendar on the website at www.georgiapta.org for a schedule of Fall and Spring District Conferences. Local units and councils should send representatives to both conferences.

COUNCILS

Reference: Council Leadership Handbook and Council Bylaws

Georgia PTA organizes and charters groups of three or more local PTAs in cities, counties, or communities to promote the basic policies of PTA and for the purpose of unifying and strengthening PTA activities in communities and schools with common interest. Councils enable local units to collaborate on projects that an individual unit could not accomplish alone. They provide support and assistance to the local units within their area.

Governance Structure

Each council is governed by council bylaws approved by the Georgia PTA Board of Directors. The council Board of Directors manages the affairs of the council in the intervals between membership meetings.

Board of Directors consist of elected officers; chairpersons of standing committees and appointed parliamentarian.

Council services include:

1. Identify schools that desire to form a PTA and forward information to the state PTA.
2. Assist the district director in the organization of newly chartered PTAs according to state bylaws.
3. Inform people of the need for group action through the united effort of local PTAs.
4. Promote the use of PTA publications, programs and projects.
5. Assist the local units in understanding and carrying out action requested by resolutions adopted at Georgia and National PTA conventions.
6. Build local unit and public support for local, state, and National PTA legislative action.
7. Provide opportunities for PTAs to address advocacy issues.
8. Unify and strengthen local units, and provide leadership development and training.
9. Enhance communication among local units, the council and the state.
10. Work with the District Director to develop a cooperative relationship with the school district administration and represent the interests of PTA before school districts, appropriate organizations or advocacy groups.
11. Provide a forum for public information and debate on issues affecting children and youth, for candidates for public office and for legislative and public policy matters.
12. Work in cooperation with Georgia PTA to develop procedures for assisting local units when school district structure is changed (merging PTAs).

Council Meetings

Regular meetings of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors are held with the date and time to be fixed at its first meeting of the year.

Council General Membership Meetings

Regular meetings of the general membership are held at least three (3) times during the school year. Dates and times of meetings shall be determined by the Executive Committee and announced at the first regular meeting of the year.

Any PTA member may attend the council general membership meeting. However the voting body of the council consist of the board of directors, the president of each member local PTA or their alternate; two (2) delegates or their alternates, the superintendent of schools or their alternate; and the principals of schools having units in council membership or their alternates. Council bylaws specify the number of delegates from each unit. Delegates are selected by the method chosen by their units and vote as instructed by their units, unless authorized to vote according to their own judgment.
LOCAL PTA
Reference: Local Unit Bylaws
A Parent Teacher Association (PTA) or Parent Teacher Student Association (PTSA) is a self-governing unit, chartered by the Georgia PTA and part of the National PTA, which plans its programs and activities to meet the needs of children and youth in the local school community. The success of the entire association depends upon the loyalty and effort made by each local PTA. The strength and the effectiveness of PTAs depend on the interest and participation of individual members and in the efforts of informed and dedicated leaders.

Governance Structure
The affairs of the PTA/PTSA are managed by the Board of Directors in the intervals between local unit PTA/PTSA general membership meetings and governed by local unit bylaws approved by the Georgia PTA Board of Directors.

Board of Directors consist of elected officers; the chairmen of standing committees; the principal of the school or a representative appointed by the principal; and a parliamentarian, appointed by the President, subject to approval of the executive committee.

Meetings
- Local unit PTA bylaws require that PTAs have at least three regular meetings during the school year (Article XIII, Section 1).
- The dates and times of the meetings are determined by the executive committee and announced at the first regular meeting of the PTA year.
- Sufficient monthly meetings should be held in order to meet the needs of the membership.
  ➢ Approving the budget, adoption of auditing committee report and programs to educate and inform parents (at the start of school), ➢ Election of the nominating committee (minimum 30 days before election date), ➢ Election of officers (month stated in bylaws), ➢ Approve budget and bylaw amendments (when necessary at any of the three meetings)
- Only PTA members of your local unit during the current membership year have the right to vote at PTA meetings.

Organize a PTA
Georgia PTA requires the following to organize a PTA/PTSA:
- A minimum of 25 members (15 for Pre-K or Community PTA).
- Membership application returned to state PTA office accompanied by the state and national portion of membership dues as specified by Georgia and National PTAs.
- One copy each of full set of local unit bylaws and the fill in the blank bylaws sheet, submitted for state approval.
- List of officers submitted to Georgia PTA.

Upon approval of bylaws, all forms returned, and dues payment to the state office for processing, National PTA assigns the new PTA a local unit number. The e-Voice electronic newsletter, the official publication of Georgia PTA, is sent to the president, co-president (if applicable), secretary, treasurer and principal periodically throughout the year.
Employer Identification Number (EIN)

To identify nonprofit or 501(c)(3) associations, each PTA is assigned an EIN as required by the IRS. Georgia PTA completes the necessary paper work and applies to the IRS for each unit’s number when each PTA unit is organized. You should never share your EIN number with any other association or individual.

If you are unsure of your EIN number, please contact the state PTA office, your district director, or the Georgia PTA website, for this information. Please note: From time to time, your PTA may be required to verify its nonprofit status and/or EIN number (e.g. applying for a grant, opening a bank account). If this situation arises, call the state PTA office and request an EIN letter for your PTA.

Local Unit Number (LU#)

Each PTA, when it is chartered, is issued a local unit number (also known as National ID#) from National PTA. As long as the unit is affiliated with National PTA, this number never changes. You can find this number (example: 00123456) on the label of any material received from National PTA. This number is important and should be kept with your permanent records.

Membership cards require a local unit number. All Georgia PTA forms, from new officers to dues transmittal, require a local unit number. If you are unsure of your local unit number, please contact the state PTA office or your district director for this information.

Local Unit in Good Standing and Meeting Core Requirements

In the bylaws, Georgia PTA defines a local unit in good standing as one that meets the following requirements:

- Pays State and National dues on a monthly basis, and annually.
- Has approved bylaws on file at the state office.
- Submits an annual audit report to the state office by the last business day of September.
- Submits annually to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) the appropriate form 990 by the applicable IRS due date.

Local units must be in good standing in order to participate in the Reflections Program; apply for Georgia or National PTA scholarships and/or grants (including Georgia PTA scholarships for students); submit reports and be eligible for awards; and attend state or national convention as voting delegates.

In addition to being in good standing, Georgia PTA encourages all PTAs to be incorporated and have insurance coverage to meet core requirements.

Dues and Membership

The amount of dues is stated in the local unit bylaws. The membership year is July 1 to June 30. At the beginning of the school year, conduct an annual membership drive. Continue to encourage others to join throughout the year. Membership dues may be accepted at any time. A member may enroll in more than one PTA by paying dues to each PTA and thus becomes a voting member at multiple local units.

Membership in each local PTA is open, without discrimination, to anyone who believes in and supports the Mission and Purposes of the National PTA. The membership card shows that the dues paid to the local PTA and includes membership in the state and national PTAs as well.

The annual individual membership dues include three portions:

- National portion.
- State portion, as provided in state bylaws.
- Local portion, as provided in local bylaws.
Georgia and National PTA keep their portions of the dues nominal to make membership for all interested individuals possible in each PTA in which they desire membership. The state and national portions of dues must be collected for each person enrolled as a member.

Payment of Dues

Reference: Treasurers Guide

Individual members pay dues directly to the local unit. The local treasurer keeps the records of national and state portions of dues separate from the general funds belonging to the local unit. The local unit treasurer sends the state and national portion of the dues and a Dues Transmittal Form to the state office at the end of every month in which dues are collected.

Contributions to Georgia PTA scholarships, memorials, endowment funds, incorporations fees and the like may be included in the same check with membership dues. (Use the Donations Transmittal Form in the Treasurers section of this leadership resource.)

The membership chairperson is responsible for maintaining a list of all members that have joined their PTA unit and working with the treasurer to ensure the accuracy of reporting membership dues.

Membership Cards

- Local PTA presidents or their designee, while attending Georgia PTA’s Annual Convention and Leadership Training, will receive membership cards equal in number to the local unit membership at the end of the preceding year.
- Distribute (promptly) a membership card to every individual who joins your PTA unit.
- Local units may obtain additional cards from the state office if dues have been paid for at least 90 percent of cards received to date. Cards are valid until the beginning of the new school year.
- Your card must be presented, with credentials, by members registering as voting delegates at state and national conventions, and at council and district meetings, as well as local unit meetings.

Membership Lists

National PTA requires a complete list of names and addresses (or email addresses) of PTA members. The membership chair, in cooperation with the secretary and treasurer, is responsible for keeping an accurate list of the current PTA members. Please refer to Just Between Friends on our website.

Membership Awards

Georgia PTA recognizes membership achievements of local units with the following:

- The Visionary Pin and Certificate
- The Pacesetter’s Certificate
- The Early Bird Certificate
- The Platinum Membership Award
- The Gold Membership Certificate
- The Silver Membership Certificate
- The Bronze Membership Certificate
- The Community Partnership Membership Certificate
- The Oak Tree Membership Certificate
- The President’s Membership Award

Councils and districts may apply for a membership award as well. Please refer to the Membership Section in the Committees section of this Leadership Resource.
BENEFITS OF PTA MEMBERSHIP

Member Benefits

Reference: PTA Membership Quick-Reference Guide

National PTA, Georgia PTA, councils and local units offer a variety of "Member Benefits" to PTA members from businesses and organizations. Many of these benefits are seasonal or event related, while others last for an entire membership year. It is important that all members are familiar with and able to take advantage of these "Member Benefits." Members should keep their PTA membership card with them at all times to take advantage of all benefits.

Member benefits are changing all the time. For a complete list of member benefit providers with details of the benefits visit Georgia PTA’s website at www.georgiapta.org and click on Member Benefits.

PTA Identity Campaign

Consistency Is Key

PTA has established guidelines for the proper use of the PTA name, logos, and tagline. The following guidelines are provided to establish a uniform, effective system for PTAs to use in order to maintain a consistent, visual style and brand identity for all PTA-produced materials.

• Your PTA name is important. Always publish, print, or speak the name of your PTA in a consistent manner – be consistent in the typeface or font you use, how your logo appears, and the color(s) you use. You need to be consistent in order to build an identity for your PTA.

• As a licensee of the National PTA, you are entitled to use the PTA or PTSA name. The name “PTA” and “PTSA” are registered service marks of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. A service mark has the same legal status as a trademark. The distinction is that a service mark is used for services and trademarks are used for commercial products. The symbol ® designates that the PTA name has been registered with the federal government and may not be used by organizations not affiliated with the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. (PTA®, PTSA®)

• Correct Forms of Abbreviation and Punctuation
  - PTA, PTSA (no periods)
  - PTAs, PTSAs (plural, no apostrophe)
  - PTA’s, PTSA’s (singular possessive, use an apostrophe)
  - PTAs’, PTSAs’ (plural possessive, apostrophe follows the “s”)

• Correct Use of the PTA Logo
  a. The PTA logo should appear the same at all times on all correspondence, whether it is a memo, press release, newsletter, poster or brochure.
  b. Always reproduce the logo with its registered trademark symbol.
  c. The name of your PTA, called your signature, should always be set in Arial Black/Helvetica Black type and may be centered or stacked above the logo.
  d. The name of the PTA should be in a font size that is approximately one-third smaller than the size of the PTA logo used.
  e. There are no periods in PTA or PTSA.
  f. Do not repeat “PTA” in your name above the PTA logo; your name and logo should read as one, cohesive name.
  g. Do not alter the spacing between the letters.
  h. Do not cut the letters apart and stack them vertically. This makes the PTA logo difficult to read and hard to recognize.
  i. Do not make a pattern by repeating the logo or use as a decorative element.
  j. Do not print the logo in any other color than black, blue or white.

Logo →

Using the Official PTA Color

The PTA logo should always be shown in the same color. The official PTA color is a dark, slate blue. For professional printing purposes, the ink color is Pantone Matching System® color 541.

The PTA name, logo and tagline should always appear together in the same color – either all in black, blue, or white. Never print your PTA name in a different color when shown directly above the logo or tagline.

Using the Tagline

The tagline “every child. one voice.” always appears in lowercase text and below the PTA symbol. Together, the logo and tagline form a standard, positive image and brand identity system for all PTAs.

If you need to type the tagline to show it in copy and not with the logo, it can be set as follows:

- Use Times Roman or Times New Roman typeface and all lowercase letters.

  every typed in italic, followed by no space

  child. typed in bold with a period, followed by one space

  one typed in italic, followed by no space voice. typed in bold with a period

- Do not alter the spacing between words or capitalize the words in the tagline.

- Do not alter the size or relationship of the tagline to the PTA logo.

- Do not set the tagline above the logo.

Any local parent-teacher association that does not pay state and national dues may not legally use the name PTA or PTSA and is not entitled to use materials or bylaws published by either state or National PTA. Unless otherwise noted, PTAs may reproduce and distribute materials from National and Georgia PTA as part of conducting their PTA work without written express permission. National and Georgia PTA materials may not be duplicated by any other organization or person without written permission.

PTA House Ads

PTA has provided house ads published in Our Children magazine as downloadable PDFs for use in your publications.

PTA Seal

From 1920 until 2001, the oak tree served as the emblem of the PTA. It currently serves as the official seal of the PTA; however, it is no longer widely used and is reserved for historical references and purposes.

Beginning with the trunk of the tree, the PTA symbolically branches out into the community. National PTA is represented by the trunk, which supports the main branches, or the states. The smaller branches represent districts and councils. The twigs are the local associations, which provide a connection to the leaves of the tree, its many millions of members.
BASIC PTA MANAGEMENT

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT AND TRAINING

Access to high quality, convenient and affordable training is one of the most valuable benefits of your PTA membership, both as a local unit and as an individual. Opportunities offered by national, state, district, and council are open to every PTA member and leader, and are not limited to officers or board members. Send representatives from your PTA every year to every opportunity. Don’t reinvent the wheel and shortchange your members and students by trying to do it on your own.

Provide adequate funds in your unit’s budget to enable multiple representatives from your unit to participate on an ongoing basis. Training is a legitimate, appropriate PTA expense. Consider it a mandatory item in your budget.

Opportunities are available for every PTA member. Send members of PTA every year to take advantage of these opportunities.

- State Advocacy Conference – At the State Advocacy Conference, hosted annually by Georgia PTA, learn to be more effective advocates for children while participating in establishing the Georgia PTA legislative platform.

- PTA Day at the Capitol – Held in February when the state legislature is in session, this event provides PTA leaders, members and supporters an opportunity to become more familiar with the legislative process and to speak with legislators about education and children’s issues. Develop and put your advocacy skills to work under the Gold Dome and over lunch with your state legislators. Bring a van full of PTA members – all wearing red – and let your voice for children be seen and heard.

- Youth PTA/PTSA Advocacy Day – This event is designed to educate Georgia’s Youth on the legislative process. Held annually during the legislative session.

- State Convention Leadership Training (CLT) – Georgia PTA encourages members to attend the annual state PTA Convention Leadership Training. Delegates participate in workshops and general sessions, vote on officers for the state PTA (biannually), receive Leadership Resources, Membership Cards and other valuable resources, plus have the opportunity to visit an extensive exhibit hall, and network and celebrate the accomplishments of PTAs from around Georgia. We strongly encourage each unit and council to send delegates every year.

- PTA University (State Office and On the Road) – Series of two-hour training seminars on various timely subjects, from financial management to passing the gavel gracefully are held at the state PTA office and other locations around the state. Check the Georgia PTA website for the dates and registration forms.

- District Conferences and Special Events – In the fall and spring, each district director hosts a District Conference for units and councils in the district to provide additional training, celebrate accomplishments and conduct the business of the district. Every unit should send at least one representative and is welcome to send any interested members.

- Council Offerings – The schedule of events varies from council to council. But, whether called a Priority Fair, School of Information, New Officers’ Orientation, Fall Kick-Off, Ice Cream Social, Lunch n’ Learn workshop or seminar – they are the closest PTA training to your home and school and are a great way to network with neighboring PTAs.

- Field Service – At times your unit may need help or additional training, so ask for it. Contact your district director or council president to discuss bringing a field service representative or team to you. If your unit is planning a special occasion or meeting and want to request a state board member to attend, please complete the State Board Member Field Service Request Form in the Duties of Officers section of this resource at least 2-4 weeks in advance and fax it to the state office.

- National PTA Convention – Held annually in June in different parts of the country. Workshops, nationally known speakers, an extensive exhibit hall, pin trading, delegates from every level of PTA and every state come together to conduct the business of PTA, celebrate and network. As with all PTA training, attending conventions is an appropriate PTA expense.

- National Advocacy Conference – Offered biannually in Washington, D.C., this conference affords PTA leaders an opportunity to hone in and utilize their advocacy skills at the federal level. Learn and network with PTA members from across the country and state PTA leaders as you prepare to meet with Georgia’s federal...

Legislators on Capitol Hill on the last day of this multi-day conference.

- E-learning Courses – Grow in your personal leadership skills from the comfort of your home. Day or night, log onto the National PTA website and participate in an E-learning course about team building, conflict management, grant writing, planning and goal setting, and behavior styles. Earn a certificate for completing a course online and credit toward your Keys to Leadership.

KEYS TO LEADERSHIP: BRIDGE TO SUCCESS PROGRAM

Georgia PTA recognizes PTA members for their commitment to developing leadership skills and provides an opportunity for each member to reach your full potential, regardless of your current position in PTA. Become a more effective volunteer while building both knowledge and leadership skills. Enhance your personal résumé while participating in PTA training and volunteer service. Be recognized for the advancement of your own personal learning goals while advocating for children.

When you have finished your e-learning component, you will have the ability to print out a certificate of completion, which you will be able to copy and return with your Keys To Leadership: Bridge to Success Passport.

More information can be found on the Georgia PTA website at www.georgiapta.org.

PROCEDURE BOOK

A procedure book is one of the most important and basic tools in PTA work. It identifies the work and continuity of an office or chairpersonship and charts a course of action to be followed, association background, contributions from others, successes and failures. An up-to-date record gives a foundation on which to build. The book is compiled by each officer and committee chair for their own use during their terms and passed on to their successors. Procedure books contain records of events, programs, and projects, and include details of arrangements, evaluations of results, and lists of available resources. They are a good way for each officer and committee chair to build upon the success of his or her predecessor.

A procedure book can be a notebook, a loose-leaf binder, an expandable file, thumb drive, or CD. Remember that a procedure book is the property of the association and should be given to your successor or the incoming president.

What do you put in it?

- Everything – Address book for all contacts
- Your plan of work and calendar, bylaws, current budget, newsletters and bulletins
- All correspondence pertaining to your office or chairpersonship
- Copy of any reports sent to Council, District, State Office or National PTA
- Notes from workshops, conferences and conventions you have attended
- All copies of Georgia PTA’s The eVoice newsletter
- Materials received from Council, District, Georgia PTA or National PTA
- Any other resource material you have found to be helpful
- Evaluation of the year’s work with specific suggestions for improvements

If you did not receive a procedure book, file, electronic device, etc., now is the time to start one for yourself to pass on to your successor.
PARLIAMENTARY LAW

Reference: PTA President’s Quick-Reference Guide

Parliamentary law is a consistent set of rules that governs deliberative assemblies. The rules protect the rights of the individual, the minority, the majority, the absentee and the association; provide for consideration of one subject at a time; and require courtesy to all while showing partiality to none. Members should understand the fundamentals of correct procedure in order to take an active part in the business meetings. Parliamentary law is designed to maintain order, ensure justice and equality and to expedite business.

The objectives of parliamentary procedure are to help the president conduct meetings and to assure that business will be transacted in a fair and democratic manner according to the bylaws of the association. The president (the chair), as the elected leader, is to 1) carry out the will of the assembly, not to bend the will of the assembly to his or her own; and 2) respect the opinion of the minority. Remember, authority is vested in the office, not in the person.

Basic guidelines include:

1. All members are equal.
2. An established number of voting members must be present to conduct business (quorum).
3. Only one main motion may be before the assembly at a time, and only one member may have the floor at any one time.
4. The maker of a motion may vote against it, but is not permitted to speak against it.
5. Nominations do not require a second; a motion to accept the report of the Nominating Committee is out of order.
6. A majority vote decides, except where rights of members are involved.
7. A two-thirds vote is necessary when a motion limits or interferes with the privileges of a member or of the assembly bylaws, cutting off debate, closing nominations, rescinding action without notice, etc.
8. General consent is a silent method of voting; by silence they agree to go along with the decision of the majority.

Parliamentarian’s Role

The parliamentarian is a consultant, commonly a professional, who advises the president and other officers, committees, and members on matters of parliamentary procedure. The parliamentarian’s role during a meeting is purely an advisory and consultative one. The parliamentarian must remain impartial, and therefore does not make motions, participate in debate, or vote on any question except in the case of a ballot vote.

The Parliamentarian should:

1. Be knowledgeable about the association and rules of order.
2. Sit near the presiding officer for convenient consultation. The presiding officer may call on the parliamentarian at any time for advice.
3. Not speak unless given permission by the presiding officer. A member of an assembly who acts as its parliamentarian has the same duty as the presiding officer to maintain a position of impartiality, and therefore does not make motions, participate in debate, or vote on any question except in the case of a ballot (written or paper) vote. The parliamentarian is not an officer of the association.
5. Study the bylaws of the association or council. Have a copy on hand at all meetings.
6. Read about parliamentary procedure in the National PTA President’s Quick Reference Guide.
7. Cooperate with the secretary in seeing that everything is recorded in the minutes that pertain to actions taken by the association.
Motions

Reference: Robert Rules of Order

Although it is not absolutely necessary to know all of the rules, basic knowledge and a copy of your governing authority (bylaws) will serve you well. Business is introduced in a meeting by means of a motion. A main motion is one that brings a subject before the association for its consideration and action. The first step before a member can make a motion is to “obtain the floor,” by addressing the presiding officer and then waiting to be recognized by the chairperson as the member who has the exclusive right to be heard at that time.

Basic Parliamentary Points to Remember:

a. Motions must be expressed in a clear, concise affirmative statement, containing only one main idea. Only one main motion may be on the floor at any one time.

b. The correct language is as follows: “I move that...” or “I move to...”; not “I make the motion that...” The maker of a motion should be allowed, if he wishes, to begin discussion.

c. A motion that does not come from a committee must be seconded.

d. There should be no discussion until the motion has been stated by the chair, and he or she calls for it.

e. No one should be allowed to speak twice while another person wants the floor.

f. A nomination is not a motion, and therefore, need not be seconded. A report of the Nominating Committee should not be accepted as a motion of the Nominating Committee chairperson or anyone else. It must be presented to the presiding officer who will reread the slate and solicit nominations from the floor for each office. (A copy of the report should be filed with the secretary.)

g. The president may vote on a pending question when the vote would change the outcome; that is, only to make or break a tie. The president may vote when the voting is by ballot. In all cases, the president may vote only once.

To obtain action of the assembly on a main motion, the following steps are necessary:

Obtaining the floor: Member rises and addresses the chair, "Mr. (or Madam) President," and awaits recognition by chair.

Assigning the floor: The chair recognizes the member and assigns the member the floor by speaking the member's name or nodding to the member.

Making the motion: Member introduces the motion by stating, "I move that..."

Seconding the motion: Another member seconds the motion by saying, "I second the motion." (Seconding merely means that the seconder agrees the motion should come before the assembly, not that the seconder necessarily favors the motion.)

Stating the motion: The chair states the question on the motion saying, "It has been moved and seconded that..."

Member's debate: The chair calls for remarks by asking, "Is there any discussion?" and recognizes maker of motion as first speaker or "Are you ready for the question?"

Putting the question: Taking the vote. When debate seems to have ceased, the chair says, "The question is on the adoption of the motion. All those in favor say 'aye.' (Pause for vote.) Those opposed say 'no.'"

Announcing the results: The chair states the results of the vote saying, "The ayes have it, and the motion is adopted and (indicate the effect of the vote)" or "The nos have it and the motion has failed." Action is not complete until the chair has stated the result of the vote.

Amendments to Motions

After the chair has stated a question and before the vote is taken, it may be desirable to change the motion in some way. This is known as amending the motion.

FAQs: Parliamentary Procedure

If the president really wants the PTA to approve something, can he or she speak on its behalf?

Yes, but the president must step down from presiding at a general meeting and let the vice president conduct the meeting until the matter is resolved. At a more informal meeting, such as the board of directors, the president should wait until everyone else has given their opinion and then he or she may give his or her opinion.

Can the president (presiding officer) vote?
The president (presiding officer) may vote on a pending question when the vote would change the results; that is, to make or break a tie. The president may vote in all cases where the voting is by ballot, but may vote only once.

How and when do we use ballot voting?
A ballot is usually a slip of paper on which a choice is written. It should be prepared in advance and handed out at the appropriate time. A ballot vote can be specified in the bylaws or it can be used when it is felt that a secret vote will give a truer indication of the assembly’s will.

Can the parliamentarian vote?
A member of an assembly who acts as its parliamentarian has the same duty as the presiding officer to maintain a position of impartiality, and therefore does not make motions, participate in debate, or vote on any question except in the case of a ballot vote.

BYLAWS
Refer to the Presidents Quick Reference Guide

• Fundamental governing rules of a PTA.
• Contain basic rules relating to the association as an organization in order to conduct the unit's business and govern its affairs.
• Define the primary characteristics of the association, prescribe how the association functions, and include all rules that the association considers important to the rights and responsibilities of the membership, whether present or absent from the assembly.
• Are always superior to and supersede the procedures and parliamentary authority of the entity. One always looks first in local unit and council PTA bylaws for a ruling on any question, then to procedures, and finally in Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised 11th Edition.
• To amend the bylaws see Bylaws Committee Section of this Leadership Resource.

Quorum
• The quorum for your unit is set by your bylaws and is the minimum number of members who must be present to conduct business at a meeting.
• If a quorum is not met at a meeting, then a vote cannot be taken. The quorum must be established before business can be conducted in the general assembly.
• The number of members to constitute a quorum is indicated in each local unit's bylaws. Georgia PTA recommends a minimum of twenty-five (25) members to constitute a quorum at a general membership meeting.

For more detailed information concerning parliamentary procedure, contact the Georgia PTA Office, Georgia PTA Parliamentarian or Bylaws Committee Chairperson.

When is Discipline Considered

Individual Member or Group of Members

It is understood that all PTA members are required to be of honorable character and reputation and support the mission, vision and values of the PTA. Discipline is needed when a member:

a. Violates the bylaws, governing policies and procedures, the articles of incorporation, or the code for non-profits as defined by the Georgia State code for nonprofits and the IRS statute for nonprofits;

b. Steals, mishandles or misappropriates funds or assets from the PTA;

c. Causes harm to the health, safety, welfare or education of a child or other members;

d. Violates the oath, trust and ethics of the office/position while serving as a member of the Board of Directors; and

e. Uses PTA resources for purposes other than prescribed or for personal gain.

Local Unit, Council, District, or State

All levels of PTA are required to remain in good standing as defined in their respective bylaws or standing rules. Following the chain of responsibility, whether an allegation is made or not, intervention or discipline may occur if one or more of the following indicators are present:

a. Not operating within Georgia State PTA or National PTA policies, procedures and/or Bylaws or standing rules;

b. Not complying with Bylaws or standing rules, whether unknowingly or willfully;

c. Continued re-circulation of same people in officer positions, which discourages new leadership from coming forward;

d. Not remaining in good standing; and ineffective leadership. Examples could include:

1. No scheduled meetings; general, Executive Committee or Board of Directors;
2. No approved budget;
3. No audit report;
4. No treasurer’s reports at Executive Committee, Board of Directors and/or general meetings; and
5. No minutes recorded or filed.
Within A Committee

a. At every level of the association, there are committees that carry on the work of the association. The Executive Committee is the only committee with elected officers. The Executive Committee appoints the chair of all committees (except the Nominating Committee and Audit Committee). Discipline within a committee is permitted. One or more members of the committee may make an allegation against a committee member.

b. The allegation shall be submitted to the Chair of the committee:

c. To determine if the allegation is related to the duties and responsibilities of the committee. To handle in an informal way, if possible and formally, if necessary.

d. The committee member has the right:
   1. For allegations against his/her good name not be made except by charges brought on reasonable grounds
   2. To due process, to be informed of the charge, given time to prepare to defend against the allegation
   3. To be fairly treated

e. In reference to disciplinary action and for the sake of discretion, discussions and decisions made within a committee shall remain within the committee.

f. A breach of confidentiality by any committee member shall result in disciplinary action.

g. Due process will proceed whether or not a member resigns. It will be recorded in a confidential board report if there is a substantiated allegation or disciplinary action, i.e., censure, probation, expulsion that will be maintained by the secretary, and a copy forwarded to the state office. This information shall be made available for the nominating committee.

NOTE: In all cases, start a file by completing an Allegation Form (See Appendix C) to document the steps toward resolution. It is important to keep a log of the dates and details that created the actions and steps taken to resolve the issue.

Allegation Procedures

Efforts to resolve allegations against a member, group of members, local unit, council, district or state must first be investigated. Once documentation or other evidence has been gathered, a meeting should be scheduled with those directly involved within thirty (30) days of the allegation, using the following Procedures:

Investigating

a. Upon notification of an allegation, against a member, group of members, local unit, council, district or state, the President or their assigned delegate shall:
   1. Request a written statement of allegation, using the Allegation Form, with supporting detailed documentation related to alleged violations of Bylaws and/or policies/procedures or any evidence that supports the allegation.
   2. Maintain a documentation file to include the written statement of the allegation and any supporting documentation, telephone log, correspondence, emails, etc; and
   3. Take care at all times to maintain confidentiality and to avoid potentially slanderous statements.

b. Take steps to determine the legitimacy of the allegation.
   1. Review the Bylaws and policies/procedures in relation to the allegation.
   2. Talk to individuals to verify or gather additional information regarding the allegation. Care must be taken to not make any implicit, explicit, written or oral statements or accusations; and
   3. Consult with the appropriate members in the chain of command, any state or national PTA Board of Directors and/or Parliamentarian.

c. Write a report, for the Executive Committee and request a formal investigation if it appears that the allegation is valid; and

d. Provide copies of all documentation and reports for the files kept at the state office, when Removal From Office is recommended.

Handling the Allegation

The individual or group responsible for handling the allegation must be fair and impartial. If a conflict of interest exists, the individual or group must allow the next individual or group in the chain of responsibility to handle the allegation.

a. The member or group handling the resolution shall review the Allegation Form and all attached documentation and communication;

b. Whatever action is recommended, a copy of the Allegation Form, Allegation Checklist and Resolution Form shall be copied to the next level on the chain of responsibility;

c. Allegations should be handled based on what the complaint is and whom it is against;
Leadership Resource 2013-2014 Section 2: Basic PTA Information & Management

Methods of Discipline

Disciplinary action should only take place if the allegation has been proven and should fit the charge. There are various recommendations for disciplinary action applicable to a member, group of members, local unit, council, district and state.

Warning – a verbal or written warning is issued.

Apology – a private or public apology may be required.

Censure – a formal, strong reprimand usually issued in a written statement of disapproval.

Probation – a written agreement signed by all parties agreeing to specific duties, actions and/or behavior accepted over a specified period of time. Violation of the probation agreement shall be cause for further discipline or immediate removal. All details must be stated in the agreement.

Removal From Office – the strongest and final form of discipline for officers and committee chairs.

- The Bylaws of each local unit, council and state contain the authority to remove an officer or chairperson from his/her elected or appointed position.
- Failure to attend three (3) consecutive meetings without adequate excuse or notice;
  1. Not fulfilling the responsibilities of the office or position; and
  2. Engaging in conduct that is determined to be injurious to the association or its purposes.
  3. The authority to remove from office shall be utilized after the efforts to resolve the allegation have first been addressed through an informal resolution and secondly through the formal resolution, which must involve the Georgia PTA President or their designees; and
- If Removal from Office is deemed necessary, the Georgia PTA President shall be notified in order to comply with the bylaws referenced in:
  1. Local Unit – Local Unit Bylaws: Article IX
  2. Council – Council Bylaws: Article X
  3. District and State – Georgia PTA Bylaws: Article X

Withdrawal of Charter

Whether the matter relates to nonpayment of dues or a violation of Bylaws, policies or procedures, the PTA District Director is responsible for supervising the fulfillment of Article VI: Local PTAs/PTSAs section of Georgia PTA Bylaws. (See Section for more details) Georgia PTA has the responsibility to follow through and bring all matters to a resolution.

Conducting a Hearing

Georgia PTA Bylaws state it is necessary to have a hearing in order to remove a member from the Board of Directors. Hearings are done in Executive Session.

Who conducts a Hearing
- Per the Georgia PTA bylaws, the state President shall appoint a member of the Georgia PTA Board of Directors to conduct a hearing.
- They will formulate questions to be asked during the hearing.
- The Georgia PTA President shall notify, by first class, registered mail or certified with return receipt requested, the person against whom the allegation has been made, specifying and listing the allegation. (See “Sample Letter for Notification of Hearing”)
Preparation for the Hearing
Prepare for the hearing by referring to the “Conducting a Hearing Checklist” and Allegation Form, both found in later in this section. Ensure all involved parties were notified. Ensure the member or group against whom the allegation was made has a copy of any documents or materials that will be used during the hearing.

During the Hearing
At the hearing, the written allegation will be read aloud. The reading must be followed by discussion, questions and explanations. The member against whom the allegation was lodged should be present for both sides of the discussion. The committee must only discuss the written allegation. Use and distribute a copy of the Conducting a Hearing Procedure Checklist.

At the Conclusion of the Hearing
At the conclusion of the hearing, the committee goes into closed session to discuss the proceedings, prepare a list of findings based on the documentation presented and the oral discussion to decide what action to recommend to the appropriate Local Unit/Council Board of Directors and Georgia PTA. The recommendation requires a two-third (2/3) affirmative vote of the committee. Findings may include a recommendation that:
   a. The individual be removed from membership;
   b. The individual’s membership be suspended or terminated;
   c. The individual currently serving in any elected or appointed PTA position may be asked to resign that position.
   d. The individual sign an agreement not to seek a PTA position where they would be responsible for handling PTA funds.

   NOTE: If one of the involved parties is accompanied by legal representation consideration should be given to rescheduling the hearing at another time when all parties could have legal representation.

Probation

Local Unit, Council or District Probation
If the recommendation is to place the local unit, council or district on probation, the PTA District Director, appointed Hearing Facilitator or Grievance Committee chair must report the recommendation to the Georgia PTA President, who will then inform the Georgia PTA Executive Committee.

Copies of the Probation Letter shall be sent to the appropriate bodies:
   a. Local unit President and officers,
   b. Principal,
   c. Council President,
   d. District Director, and
   e. Other parties involved in investigative process.
      1. The council Board of Directors, principals of local units within the council, and the superintendent with specific reasons for the decision and the length and terms of probation.
      2. The local units that comprise the council with general information concerning the probation and the authority on which the action is taken.

During the Probation Period
The council/district or state must monitor the unit, council or district during the specified probationary period.

Local Unit
A council, designated district representative or state board member must attend every Executive Committee, Board of Directors, and general association meeting of the local unit, council or district.
A meeting to review the Purposes of the PTA, basic policies and responsibilities must be scheduled by the PTA district for the school administrator(s) and the PTA Board of Directors.
The Georgia PTA Parliamentarian must review the unit’s Bylaws and the unit must update Bylaws if necessary to the most current edition of the Bylaws for Local PTA/PTSA Units.
The unit plan of work, minutes and financial records (including the budget, audit and treasurer’s reports) must be reviewed by a council/district, or appointed designee.
The unit officers must attend training sessions in the area of concern (leadership, financial, etc.) with the council or district, and Georgia PTA.
The unit must be represented at all council or district meetings.

Lifting of Probation
Local Unit - The PTA district is responsible for the probationary process. In the event the terms of probation have not been met, a referral must be made to the Georgia PTA Executive Committee.

Council - The PTA District Director is responsible for the probationary process. At the end of the probationary period, the Georgia PTA President, or their appointed designee, and the PTA District Director will assess the completion of the terms of probation. If conditions of probation have been met, the council will then be considered in good standing if other requirements for that status have been met. In the event the terms of probation have not been met, a referral must be made to the Georgia PTA Executive Committee.

District – The Georgia PTA Executive Committee is responsible for the probationary process. At the end of the probationary period, the Georgia PTA President, or their appointed designee, and the PTA District Director will assess the completion of the terms of probation. If conditions of probation have been met, the district will then be considered in good standing if other requirements for that status have been met. In the event the terms of probation have not been met, a referral must be made to the Georgia PTA Executive Committee.

If the action concerns the status of a local unit, the PTA council must record the actions of the Georgia PTA Board of Directors in the council minutes.

CONFLICT MANAGEMENT: The Mediation Process Conflict can occur whenever people interact. PTA recognizes conflict as an opportunity for:

a. Personal growth

b. Re-evaluation of goals

c. Strengthening the association

It is the responsibility of the PTA leader to be familiar with the most positive way to deal with conflict. At times, it may be necessary for the PTA leader to act as a mediator in conflicts between individuals in the unit. Training in Parliamentarian Procedures is very helpful and strongly encouraged.

In the role of the mediator, the PTA leader should refrain from attempting to solve the problem, but rather:

- Empower the individuals involved in the conflict to do so.
- Keep the discussion focused on the problem, not on the people.
- Always remain neutral.
- Serve as the facilitator for discussion.
- Encourage participants to use active listening skills.

Q & A SHEET

RE: THE REMOVAL OF AN OFFICER AND THE HEARING PROCESS

1. Is the vote required to remove 2/3 of total board members or 2/3 of those present? The bylaws do not specify those present - as it does in the next section for membership confirmation - so it would seem to be 2/3 of the total.

All business of a board of directors requires a quorum. A quorum for the board of directors is a majority. Once you have a quorum, the vote must be 2/3 of those present and voting.

2. How do you decide on a time limit for presenting evidence?

The officer and the member making the request will be asked at the start of the meeting which time frame they prefer. Both parties will have equal time, whether they use it all is their choice. The amount of time they each use will depend on the amount of evidence and the number of witnesses they wish to present.

3. Are there rules of evidence regarding documents or people called?

The rules are those stated under “Rules of Conduct”. The documents and witnesses presented must be able to provide a clear and concise summary of facts in the time allowed.

4. What is the procedure if you want to refute a document or witness the other side has called, since you will not get that ahead of time to prepare for?

In this process, the member making the request presents all their evidence first and the officer is then given an opportunity to respond. The officer is always in the position of hearing and seeing everything in advance. When time permits and the 15 or 30 minutes has not been exceeded, rebuttals may be permitted.

5. What happens if the member making the request is not able to get the 2/3 votes required?

Without the 2/3 vote, the board of directors may not recommend removal of the officer to the general membership and the officer remains in office.
SOCIAL MEDIA/ELECTRONIC MAIL PROTOCOL

Electronic Mail (email) and social networking: such as Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, blogs and other forms of social media are being used for PTA communication and PTA business.

These forms of communication are NOT private communications – unlike letters you receive by regular mail. Courts have determined that email users do not have the right to privacy where email messages are concerned.

PTA leaders and members using these forms of communication are asked to:

- Use the same professional standards one would use in writing a letter or speaking as a PTA representative.
- Use discretion when sharing personal information, emotions and beliefs.
- Separate your personal communications from those being used to conduct PTA business.
- Please remember these forms of communication may not be used for all PTA business.

National, State, Council and Local Unit bylaws prohibit proxy voting. Therefore, social media communication may be used for any PTA business except voting on bylaws amendments, election of officers, election of the Nominating Committee, approving the budget, amending the budget, filling officer vacancies or removal from office and those noted below.

Using Email

1. Only send messages that would be appropriate in a memo to all PTA members or on the front page of a newspaper. Online traces exist which allow others to view your online activity. Most messages can be easily forwarded on to people you did not intend to see the message – so be careful what you say and to whom you say it.

2. An email or any form of social media should not to be used to discuss the details of sensitive issues that relate to an individual’s removal from office, hearings or investigations. To protect their confidentiality, information and correspondence regarding these matters must be sent in writing and signed by the author as outlined in the bylaws.

3. Use the proper chain of command when copying PTA members. Your emails should be directly related to your PTA position and responsibilities. You should copy the President and/or Vice President when appropriate on email messages. Obtain the approval of the PTA President, prior to sending an email, if the message is considered important and/or being sent to a large number of members and/or the general membership.

4. Using emails under a PTA heading to send jokes, stories, gossip, solicit PTA members for personal gain or anything not related to PTA business is inappropriate and prohibited.

5. Proofread your work. Many times the tone or phrasing of a message can be misinterpreted and used to your disadvantage. Re-check for spelling and grammatical errors.

6. Check your email messages daily or on a regular basis. Respond to emails as soon as possible but no later than three to five days. If you have not responded within a reasonable time frame, do not be offended if someone sends a second request.

7. Do not send PTA messages that are:
   - Flaming – messages that are highly emotional, angry, contains profanity or insulting.
   - SHOUTING – messages that contain all CAPITAL LETTERS. (To most people it is offensive; implies annoyance or anger). Use of red, capital letters implies rage
   - Spamming – sending email indiscriminately, too much of this and you suffer the risk of having them deleted before they are read.
• Contain symbols – Most people don’t use them because they create a familiarity or give the impression of a casual email. Use of initials (OMG, BTW) may not be understood and can be offensive.

8. Keep messages short when possible. For lengthy emails, use appropriate breaks so it is easy to read or send in an attached file. Run-on emails with no clear separation are difficult to read.

9. If sending to a large number of people, protect the email address list by sending the email to yourself and blind copy everyone else. This way the recipients don’t see everyone else’s email address and don’t have to scroll through a list of names.

10. If using blind copying, a notation regarding who is receiving the email should be in the body. (i.e., This email is being sent to the local unit executive committee, and the board of directors, or to the membership, etc.)

11. Notify the appropriate state, district, council and local unit members when you change your email address.

12. Be considerate of the person sending you an email. If they send you an email and it has not been copied to anyone else, your response should be sent to that person only. If they send you an email and have copied others, it’s permissible to respond and copy the same names. It’s suggested you get the sender’s permission to forward email they intended for your eyes only.

13. Use the “C’s” – Check to make sure your email is courteous; concise; clear; communicates the message; has a cooperating tone, and has been checked. Once you send email, it cannot be undone.

14. No one word responses. (Yikes, wow, good)

15. Use Reply All when it pertains to a subject addressed to more than one person. People will begin to perceive your emails as junk if they are copied unnecessarily.

16. RE: Be very specific when using. If it says “confidential”, it stays between the sender and receiver.

17. “!!!” means the message is very important. If it is time sensitive, you can also put that in the subject line.

18. Use names, proper openings, closings and “PTA” in the subject heading of the subject line to assure receipt and importance.

19. When possible, use the tagline every child. one voice.

20. When your name appears in the:
   - TO: You are being addressed, please respond.
   - CC: FYI. You can respond but only if it is of the utmost importance.
   - BCC: Used when you want to protect someone’s e-mail address privacy.
PTA RELATIONSHIPS

PTA presents a presence not only in the school and home, but also throughout the community. Each facet: parent, teacher, student, principal, superintendent, school board, and the community as a whole, play a vital part in the health, education and welfare of our children. Cultivating positive relationships between all of these entities support the purposes and viability of every PTA. Together we are a powerful voice for children working together to accomplish our mission of making every child's potential a reality.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS

Parent involvement is enhanced by positive parent-teacher relationships, and PTA is an effective means of bringing parents and teachers together. Through PTAs, parents and teachers work together to achieve the PTA Purposes. Teacher knowledge and leadership help the PTA serve children well. In turn, parental support enables teachers to optimize their important work of educating children and youth. Inviting parents and teachers to come together optimizes the success of both and energizes the school family.

STUDENTS

Students want to be part of an association that fights for causes they support and issues that affect their lives. Students, like all PTA volunteers, want to feel like their work and opinions are valued. The most important step a PTA can make when recruiting students is to ensure that they have a voice and responsibility. Find out what students are interested in and assign them to a committee. Students are in the classroom every day; they know what is happening and what is needed.

At the middle school and high school levels, students are encouraged to participate in Parent-Teacher-Student Associations (PTSAs). Students participate as full voting members of PTSA and should be treated with respect. Students are valuable members of committees in middle and high schools and bring their unique perspective to planning and participation.

Encourage student participation and volunteering by holding meetings after school or at lunchtime, assigning a student column each month in the PTA/PTSA newsletter, seeking their input on workshops and/or programs that would meet their needs and concerns, utilize student voices on panels for education enrichment on critical issues, have them help plan and implement middle and high school orientations, encourage student representatives to attend school board meetings for their PTSA.

PRINCIPALS

The local unit principal invites PTA into the school. It is optimal to develop a strong professional working relationship with your principal. Communication is key to achieving PTA goals and understanding the particular needs of the school. It is up to the principal to make parent involvement a school priority and create an environment that welcomes parents to the school, building a strong home-school connection. Through this invitation, parents are partners in their children’s’ education and all parties experience success.

SUPERINTENDENTS

The superintendent, as the chief executive officer of the school district, receives general directions and outlines of goals and policies from the school board, and is charged by the board with organizing the staff to fulfill these goals. While the principal is responsible for implementing board policy at the individual school level, the superintendent must establish procedures for employing all staff and carrying out board policies and goals throughout the district.

In almost all areas, the superintendent’s actions are guided by federal or state directives or school board policy. However, no such policies or directives address the relationship between the schools and the PTA. If the partnership is to work outside the formally mandated areas of community and parent involvement, the superintendent must provide the leadership.
SCHOOL BOARD
The school board is comprised of elected officials who are legally charged with the governance and operation of the school district. Specific duties include: policy making, employing the superintendent, administrative responsibility for the educational and business operations of the district, approving the annual budget and expenditures of the district, monitoring and establishing school policies, approving curriculum and procedures for selection of personnel recommended by the superintendent.

THE COMMUNITY
Every member of the community is a vital stakeholder in shared decision-making with educators, parents, and students. A strong education system brings business to the community, and similarly growing businesses bring revenue and expertise to the school system, which may be realized, in the form of business partners. Specific ways the community can enhance education is through: collaboration of common goals, providing time off for parents to attend student conferences, communicating events and success stories associated with local school/PTA, and as simple as providing meeting space when needed.

For more specific details and ideas for improving and utilizing relationships between PTA and the entire school community please visit the Georgia PTA website: www.georgiapta.org.

SCHOOL AND PTA
In a cooperating relationship, there exists mutual respect and an understanding of each other’s rights and responsibilities. The following compares and contrasts school and PTA as a background for your PTA to build stronger and more effective relationships.

COMMON ISSUES
Money
PTA money belongs to the association and all decisions relating to PTA money must be approved by the general membership. PTA money should not be co-mingled with the money of other organizations, including the school’s money. The PTA should not allow money to “flow through” its checking account for the school or any other organization. All money deposited in the PTA checking account belongs to the PTA and must be reported as income to the IRS.

Use of School Facilities
School property is government property. The use of school property is governed by policies established by the local school board. The general rule is that the school board must provide equal access to all outside groups or no access to any group.

PTA Involvement During the School Day
The presence of PTA volunteers must be according to local school policy and with the approval and supervision of the principal, who has the legal duty to oversee the care and protection of the students. PTA and the principal should develop a volunteer training process to ensure that PTA volunteers understand their roles, responsibilities and limitations.
PTA Activities or School Activities
It is critical to understand the distinction between PTA activity and school activity, particularly in terms of liability or in order to determine whether a violation of state and/or federal law has occurred. Because PTAs are subject to lawsuits, PTA should take particular care when planning field trips, sponsoring intramurals, offering childcare, etc. PTAs should determine whether the school system’s liability insurance covers volunteers (and other third parties) who are on the school’s premises. PTA volunteers sometimes are performing the same tasks as school employees and may be covered, and at other times are performing PTA functions and will not be covered. PTAs should carry general liability insurance to cover injuries that might occur at PTA sponsored events.

Advocacy & Legislation
PTA, by definition, is an advocacy association and may support or oppose legislation that affects children. School personnel, as governmental employees, are subject to the Ethics in Government Act and may not support or oppose ballot issues (such as bond referenda and SPLOSTs) on school time. In these instances, PTA must ensure that its advocacy efforts are not attributable to school employees. The school/PTA newsletter is a common problem area. If school resources, including personnel time, are used to produce or distribute the newsletter, then care must be taken not to advocate on a ballot issue. PTAs should maintain membership lists so that members can be contacted directly by the PTA. Remember, the Ethics in Government Act only applies to governmental employees and applies to influencing voters about an upcoming ballot issue. It has no relevance to encouraging the membership to write to an elected official about his/her position on an issue or about a piece of legislation.
LOCAL SCHOOL COUNCILS

Georgia law requires that school councils be established at every public school. School councils are policy-level advisory bodies to the Principal, Superintendent and local board of education. They may advise and make recommendations on any matter related to student achievement and school improvement. The establishment of school councils is intended to help boards of education by bringing parents and the community together with teachers and school administrators to create a better understanding of and mutual respect for each other’s concerns and share ideas for school improvement. PTA plays an important role in School Councils by actively sharing information between parents and the Council, keeping all parties updated to issues concerning parents and students, and encouraging school and community interaction.

Local School Council's Role

- Focus on improving student achievement by recommending changes to school policies and programs.
- Review budget requirements to ensure efficient use of resources.
- Analyze and recommend strategies to improve the school’s learning environment (safety, discipline, facilities, etc.).
- Recommend strategies for increasing parental and community involvement in the school.
- Individual members are expected to maintain a school-wide perspective when making decisions.

The local school council will review the school improvement plan, report from the principal concerning student achievement, and the results of audits conducted by the Office of Education Accountability. To help accomplish these goals, the council may appoint committees, study groups or task forces and may utilize existing or new school advisory groups.

The School Council Law

Membership: School councils may now have more than seven members. Each council in its own bylaws specifies the number and type of members. School councils must have a minimum of 7 people: 1 Principal, at least two (2) certificated teachers elected by the teachers, A number of parents (or guardians) elected by the parents, so that parents (or guardians) make up a majority of the council. At least two (2) of parents must be businesspersons. Parents must hold a majority on the school council.

The council may specify additional members, such as, but not limited to, students, staff, representatives of school related organizations, representatives of community organizations, etc. Remember, if additional members are added, more parent reps will also be needed to maintain a majority. Bylaws determine the selection procedures for these additional members.

- Terms: Staggered terms are now required. Once the staggered terms are established, the term of office is as determined in the bylaws.
- Elections: Elections no longer have to be held in May. The school council will decide in what month to have elections. The nomination and election process are also to be specified in the bylaws.
- Meetings: The school council must meet a minimum of four times a year. The number of meetings must be stated in the bylaws. Meetings no longer have to be at the school, but the same public notice rules apply.
- Officers: The school council elects the chair, vice-chair and secretary. A parent must serve as the chair. Any council member may be elected as vice-chair and secretary. The term of the officers is specified in the bylaws.
- Training: Local boards of education are required to provide a training program covering the organizational, legal, and procedural aspects of school councils. Additional training must be offered annually by the school council.
- Local Board of Education: School site budget and expenditure information and site average class size by grade are specifically listed as items of information the local board is required to provide upon request. The central administration is required to respond to requests for information from a school council. The local board must receive and consider all recommendations of the school council in accordance to the process provided in the law. The school council will determine who speaks for them before the board.

- Principal Vacancy: The local board must provide a written policy defining the principal selection process and the role the school council shall play.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Can PTA Board Members Serve on the Local School Council?
Yes! PTA members, if otherwise eligible, are encouraged to seek election to school councils.

Can a PTA Provide Funding for a Local School Council Program?
PTAs should not be considered the funding source for local school councils; however, PTAs are encouraged to partner with the local school councils to focus on student achievement. As with all PTA expenditures, funding allocations should promote the mission of the PTA and should have the approval of the PTA membership. PTAs should not fund the basics of education.
Nonprofit Board Management

Governance: The Work of the Board

The word governance comes from an ancient Greek word, kebernon. In current usage to govern means to steer, to control, and to influence from a position of authority. Governance deals with the distribution of authority throughout a system, whether a country or an association.

The legal framework for nonprofit boards has evolved over time. Currently, legal responsibility in general rests with the board as a body rather than with individual directors of the board. Each member of a nonprofit board, as well as the board as a group, is responsible for fulfilling three legal duties: the duty of care, the duty of loyalty and the duty of obedience.

Since to govern means to steer, influence, and control, the board has three major roles in the life of the association: to establish mission and direction, to ensure that the association has the necessary resources of funds and leadership to implement the mission, and to provide legal, fiduciary oversight on behalf of the people served, the association’s members and supporters, and the public.

Establishing Organizational Identity and Strategic Direction

An association will rarely make a significant difference unless it pays careful attention to the intersection of its work and the environment in which it operates. Organizational effectiveness depends on operating with common understandings about what is important and what the organization as a whole needs to accomplish. Setting direction requires looking beyond the immediate horizon. It means asking questions such as:

- What are the issues we must confront in order to serve our mission in the years ahead?
- What are different ways of understanding some of these issues?
- Where should we be in five years?
- What are we committed to achieving?

Setting direction means taking the time to establish a framework for the association’s efforts. It includes taking a fresh look at the mission, articulating a shared vision for the future, establishing major goals, and outlining strategies for achieving goals.

- Strategic Planning – Strategic Planning is an effort to look at the association in its environment and chart a future direction. Every board should set aside time periodically to consider the association’s reasons for existing and what it intends to accomplish. It is imperative that the board be involved in the formative stages when issues are defined, the mission is reviewed, a vision outlined, and major goals and strategies are formulated. A strategic plan need NOT be a long and complicated document; it does need to contain the major features of what the association expects to achieve over the next few years, strategies for moving forward, and what resources will be needed. It becomes the basis for developing a business plan or the annual operating plan and budget.

- Financial Oversight – Responsible financial oversight means keeping track of the association’s financial health and initiating corrective action when necessary. It means asking hard questions. Financial oversight usually includes keeping track of the budget, long-range trends and needs, ensuring that financial management policies are in place, and requiring and reviewing the annual audit. It is important that the board as a whole be aware of the association’s financial condition. Financial oversight implies keeping an eye on the future and on trends in the environment as well as on what has happened or not happened in the recent past.

- Legal and Ethical Oversight – Boards have to establish policies and provide oversight to ensure that legal boundaries are not breached. Federal laws and regulations such as civil rights laws, immigration laws, laws related to workplace safety and IRS regulations all represent constraints on the association’s actions. Boards need to keep in mind that they are obliged to operate in accordance with the association’s bylaws. Review of the bylaws and policies is necessary to ensure that they accurately reflect current practices. A board must also be concerned with the association’s ethical conduct. Once the board adopts an ethical code, it must assign responsibility for dealing with noncompliance.

Individual Roles of Board Members

The key role of individual board members is to be participants in the association’s governance structure. When accepting board membership, they become part of a group that is vested with the authority to make decisions on behalf of the association and also is accountable for the effects of these decisions.

Board Members Job Description

- Attend board and committee meetings
- Read board materials before each meeting
- Stay informed about the issues facing the association
- Accept board assignments
- Actively and appropriately participate on the board’s deliberations
- Develop a Plan of Work and submit to a designated person
- Submit quarterly reports to a designated person

- Chair – The presiding officer.
- Motion – A formal proposal made to bring a subject before an assembly for consideration and action.
- Majority vote – More than one-half (1/2) of votes cast.
- Quorum – The number of members required to be present at a meeting as set forth in the bylaws, in order that business may be transacted.

CONDUCTING A PTA MEETING

PTA meetings should be managed so that the business of the association and a meaningful program are completed in a maximum of one hour. An agenda should be prepared so the meeting will proceed smoothly. Participants need to know how much time they will be allotted. Printed minutes and treasurer’s report save time and provide members with a permanent copy of this information.

The president should start at the announced time and end the meeting at the planned time. However, it is very important that the chairperson recognize the concerns of the members. Appointing a committee and assuring the members that their concerns will be included in the agenda of the next meeting gives such recognition. It allows members to obtain facts regarding issues rather than engage in discussions based on hearsay, impressions, and emotions. When subjects are controversial, be sure to include members representing various views on the subject. This also ensures that members are informed of all business of PTA.

Chairing a meeting requires skill in relating to people with various backgrounds and different points of view. To work more effectively with others, you should:

- Encourage all members to enter into the discussion. Listen respectfully and ask clarifying questions.
- Point out areas of agreement between speakers. Help the group to see issues in terms of what is best for children and will help accomplish the goals of the PTA.
- Encourage positive action. Urge members to learn the facts and decide what can be done.
- Recognize that no one can please everyone all of the time. Keep a sense of humor and friendly attitude.
SAMPLE AGENDA

GEORGIA PTA SUGGESTS THE FOLLOWING MODEL AGENDA:

Call to Order
The president or presiding officer, as Chair, stands, raps the gavel once and calls the meeting to order. "The meeting will please come to order."

Opening Ceremonies
An invocation, the Pledge of Allegiance, or a poem, song or inspirational message may be conducted. Remember, PTA is a nonsectarian association by nature of its 501(c)(3) status. For this reason, these opening ceremonies must be of a nonreligious, nondenominational nature.

Reading and Approval of Minutes
The presiding officer says: "The secretary will read the minutes of the previous meeting." Secretary stands, addresses the chair and reads the minutes, unless they have been distributed. The presiding officer says: "Are there any corrections? The minutes stand approved as read or distributed." OR "The minutes stand approved as corrected."

Report of Treasurer
No motion is needed for adoption of report unless report is audited. The presiding officer says: "We will have the treasurer's report." The treasurer reads the report. The presiding officer says: "Are there any questions? The report will be filed for audit."

Communications
The presiding officer asks the secretary: "Are there any communications?" Communications are read by the secretary and are acted upon as read, if action is required.

Report of Executive Committee or Board of Directors
A summary report (not the minutes) is read for the information of the members. Recommendations should be voted upon one at a time, the secretary moving the adoption of each. In a general meeting, the report will instead be given from the Board of Directors. The presiding officer says: "We will hear the report of the Executive Committee (or Board of Directors) by the secretary." The secretary reads the appropriate report. The presiding officer says: "You have heard the recommendation. Is there discussion?" (Follow steps of a motion.)

Reports of Standing Committees
The chair calls for the report of the committee. The person making the report moves the adoption of any recommendation. If no recommendation is made, no motion is needed. The committee chair need not be recognized if there is no report. The presiding officer says: "We will hear the report of the _____ Committee given by Mr./Mrs. _____, Chair. Are there any questions regarding the report? If not, the report will be filed." OR "By direction of the _____ Committee, I move the adoption of the recommendation to ____." (Follow steps of a motion.)

Special Committee Reports

Unfinished Business
Minutes of the previous meeting will indicate any unfinished business. If there is no unfinished business, the presiding officer says: "The Chair knows of no unfinished business, therefore the next business in order is that of new business."

New Business
The chair or members may bring new business before the association. A motion is necessary before discussion and vote. The presiding officer says: "Is there any new business to come before this association?"

Program
The chair introduces program chair who presents the program. The meeting is not "turned over" to the program chair, nor does the program chair "turn the meeting back to the chair." The president says: "The program will be presented by Mr./Mrs. _____, Program Chair." The chair at the end of the program will state: "Mr./Mrs. President, this concludes the program."

Announcements
Date of the next meeting and important activities should be announced. If there is a social time following the meeting, this should be announced. "Are there any announcements?"

Adjournment
No motion is necessary to adjourn. The presiding officer says: "If there is no objection, the meeting will now adjourn. (Pause) Since there is no objection, the meeting is adjourned."

PRESIDENT ELECT (IF APPLICABLE)

The President Elect shall:

- Work under and in cooperation with the president and fulfill such other duties as may be assigned by the president.
- Perform the duties of the president in the president’s absence or inability to act.
- Perform such other duties as may be provided for in the bylaws, prescribed by the parliamentary authority, or directed by the Board of Directors or Executive Committee.

Please note that most local units do not have a President Elect. This office is helpful at the national and state PTA level; however, the office of President Elect may not be a practical or advisable position for local unit and council PTAs.

VICE PRESIDENT

The vice president may be called upon at any time to assume temporarily the place of the president. The vice president should make a thorough study of the president’s duties and responsibilities and be familiar with the work of the association. A strong vice president can and should be the president’s “right hand,” acting as an aide and assuming assigned responsibilities.

The Vice President:

a. Presides at meetings in the absence of the president/president elect or upon their inability to serve.
b. Performs the duties of the president in the absence of the president and the president elect or upon their inability to act.
c. Acts as an assistant to the president and assumes responsibility for duties assigned by the president.
d. Performs any other specific duties that may be provided for in the bylaws.
e. Represents the president upon request.
f. Attends all training opportunities offered by the council, district and Georgia PTA.

When local units have more than one vice president, they often designate specific duties for each vice president, such as vice president of education or vice president of legislation. Vice presidents can serve as program chairperson, coordinator for major projects that involve several committees, or as a liaison to outside groups that may desire a connection with a local unit. In the case of multiple vice presidents, it is helpful if each vice president is responsible for overseeing specific committees that have connecting areas of responsibility. Vice presidents can be helpful in strengthening communication within the board of directors as well as within the general membership and other entities in the school community and system.

Reference: Local Unit Bylaws, Article VII, Duties of Officers, Section 2 for more specific information about the Vice President’s duties.
SECRETARY

The secretary is responsible for keeping accurate records of all the proceedings of the association. These include minutes for general, board, and Executive Committee meetings. Minutes represent the history of the association and are vital for the ongoing business of PTA. Valued qualities in a secretary are: promptness, accuracy and knowledge of PTA purposes, bylaws, policies and procedures, as well as an understanding of parliamentary law.

Reference: The Secretary’s Section of this Leadership Resource.

TREASURER

The treasurer is the legally responsible, authorized custodian of the PTA funds and is responsible for the financial management of the PTA. The treasurer receives and disburses all monies in accordance with the local unit bylaws and the approved budget. Georgia PTA strongly recommends that employees of the school not serve as treasurer, as the handling of association funds may prove to be a conflict of interest with school system requirements.

You will find detailed instructions for the treasurer in the Georgia PTA Treasurer’s Guide, The Georgia PTA website and in the National PTA Money Matters Quick Reference Guide provided to all local units by National PTA.

Under no circumstances should your unit have more than one treasurer, as Georgia PTA does not approve co-treasurers. Individuals authorized to sign checks should never be related to each other by marriage and/or other relationship.

SECRETARY

The job of secretary is one of the most exciting positions on any board. Every association must have at least two officers, a presiding officer (president) and a recording officer (secretary) in order to function properly. In addition to the position of recording secretary, a corresponding secretary is common. The duties of the secretary are outlined in the bylaws, a copy of which you should keep in your files.

The secretary is essential in conducting the business of the association. If the secretary is absent from the general, board of directors, or executive committee meetings, the presiding officer must appoint someone to take minutes. Remember, if it is not in the minutes, it did not happen.

The Secretary:

a. Records accurately all business transacted at each meeting of the association and presents the minutes for approval at the next meeting of the same body.
b. Submits online the names and addresses of all incoming officers to the state office. Prints and sends copies to district and council PTAs by May 1, and incoming chairpersons by the last business day in August. Submits to the state office any changes in officers or contact information.
c. In the absence of a Membership Chair maintains membership list using Just Between Friends.
d. Keeps all committee reports on file.
e. Copies and distributes bylaws to all board members.
f. Sends correspondence for the PTA and maintains a correspondence file.
g. Calls the meeting to order in the absence of the president and vice president.
h. Sends out notices of meetings.
i. Assists in determining a quorum.
j. Counts a rising vote.
k. Is an emergency signature on the checking account.
l. Prepares in advance of each meeting (in consultation with the president) an agenda showing the order in which business should come before the body.
m. Serves as custodian for all records except for those specifically assigned to other individuals.
n. Attends all training opportunities offered by council, district and Georgia PTA.
o. Has on hand for reference at each meeting:
   • Signed and approved minutes of previous meetings
   • Copies of previous treasurer’s reports
   • An agenda (include unfinished business)
   • Current copy of Georgia PTA approved Local Unit Bylaws
   • Copy of Robert’s Rules of Order (newly revised)
   • Current membership list
   • List of committee chairpersons and committee members
   • Materials for note/minute taking
   • Ballots, in case a vote is taken by ballot
   • Motion blanks

MINUTES

Have to be written in a timely manner. It is the responsibility of the secretary to record, prepare and preserve the minutes of the association. Every member is responsible for reading the minutes and refers to them as the record or history of the unit.

As secretary, in preparation for taking the minutes of a meeting, you should bring along pens, writing paper, a tape or digital recorder, blank cassettes or digital storage, blank motion forms and ballots. Arrive at the meeting site early to ensure that everything is ready. To take the minutes, you should have plenty of the above-mentioned materials to get through a possible lengthy session. Make sure you have a copy of the agenda, as well as any reports, financial statements or other documents that may be referred to during the meeting.

What to Record

Minutes are meant to be concise, factual and objective records of what action or voting took place. Never record every word of the meeting verbatim. You must decide what information has to be written down verbatim, what can be paraphrased, and what is nonessential for the official record. You cannot allow personal preferences to influence your note taking, and you cannot give more weight to what certain people say while not recording the pertinent remarks of others. You must be able to interpret statements for what is truly being said, not what you hear by way of the deliverer’s voice inflections, intonations or mannerisms.

It can be very difficult to discriminate from among all the opinions and facts just what should be recorded in the minutes. To record the proceedings fairly, it is necessary to take a disinterested position. As a recorder, you must listen carefully and take down information even when more than one person is talking at the same time, making sure that you attribute all statements to their correct sources.

It is necessary to record motions verbatim as well as names of those who made them. You should have blank copies of motion forms to use for this purpose.

Minutes must be complete, concise and accurate. They should be as brief as possible, but include all necessary information.

Action must be recorded in the order in which it took place.

Minutes Book

Minutes should be recorded in an official minutes record book with numbered pages. There should be one minutes record book for board of directors, one for the executive committee and one for general membership meetings. Any member of the PTA/PTSA has a right to examine the minutes of the general membership meetings; the members of the board of directors have a right to examine the minutes of the board meetings and the members of the executive committee have a right to examine the minutes of the executive committee meetings.

The secretary, using the secretary’s given name, signs the minutes. Example: Sue Jones, Secretary.

After the minutes have been read (or distributed) and approved, the secretary writes, “Approved as read (or printed)” or “Approved as corrected,” the date of approval and the secretary’s initials. If your minutes are approved by a committee (e.g., your last meeting of the school year), a committee is appointed by the president to approve the minutes. Each committee member will sign and date the minutes after reading and making necessary corrections.

The minutes must not be released from the custody of the secretary, except upon written order of the president. If the secretary is not present at a meeting, the president should appoint a secretary pro-tem, who then enters the minutes he/she takes in the official minutes record book and signs his/her given name with the words, “Secretary Pro-Tem.”

It is permissible to provide printed copies of the minutes for purpose of approval, and after the association has approved them. This should be done by order of the president or general consent of the membership.
For help or questions, please call your council, district or state PTA secretary. Your local unit president has their names and telephone numbers. Contact the state PTA office for further guidance.

Recording Guidelines

To begin your note taking, follow these guidelines:

- Write down the date, location and time the meeting begins.
- Record the names of those present and absent (usually if the number is 20 or less). Verify that a quorum is achieved at every meeting. If a quorum is not present, immediately advise the president’s office.
- Identify the type of meeting (such as general, board of directors, executive committee, special).
- Identify the presiding officer and secretary or their substitutes.
- Record the action. When the meeting begins, key your notes to match numbered items on the agenda. When you type your notes, you simply refer to your agenda to transcribe the key.
- Record the time of the adjournment.
- Since the minutes serve as the official records of your meetings, it is imperative that they be objectively recorded and conscientiously transcribed into a final document.

When taking minutes, the Secretary should:

- Be accurate
- Enter minutes in an official book with numbered pages (for permanent record)
- Make minutes as brief as possible
- Record what is done by the groups, not what is said
- Report in the order in which the business was presented in the meeting
- Record the name of the maker of a motion
- Record exact wording of motion as stated by the maker of the motion. The secretary may request the maker of the motion put it in writing
- Record action taken on a motion
- Indicate that minutes are “approved as read” or "approved as corrected"
- Sign the minutes

When taking minutes, the Secretary should not:

- Add personal comments in the minutes
- Let notes on the meeting “get cold”
- List the person who seconded motion (unless requested by the assembly)
- Record any details of debate or discussion by members
- Read board of directors/executive committee minutes at the general meeting of the association
- Sign minutes “Respectfully submitted”

Sample Minutes

(Numbered paragraphs below correspond to numbered sections of “Contents of Minutes” in preceding section. Paragraphs of actual minutes should not be numbered. The sample minutes are for illustration purposes only.)

1. The regular meeting of ABC PTA was held on September 17, 20__, in the gymnasium of ABC Middle School. The secretary established a quorum was present. The meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m. The secretary Sue Jones was present. An inspirational reading was given by Mary Jones. This was followed by the Pledge of Allegiance, led by the president. Minutes of the previous meeting were approved as printed and distributed.

2. The treasurer reported a beginning balance of $325, receipts of $75 from dues, current disbursements of $25, and a balance on hand September 17, 20__, of $375.

5. George Johnson moved that the Hospitality Committee provide snacks for the teachers every Friday. Motion failed.

6. City Traffic Director Sam Wright presented a program on “Getting Home Safely.”

7. The meeting adjourned at 8:35 p.m.

8. (Signature) Sue Jones, Secretary

Correcting the Minutes

Corrections to the minutes are to be made immediately following the reading of the minutes or, if distributed and not read aloud, during the time devoted on the agenda to the minutes.

- Whenever an error is mentioned, it is noted in the minutes of the current meeting. Corrections are suggested without motion or vote.

- Corrections are made in the secretary’s minute’s book by circling the incorrect words with a red pen and placing the correction in the margin.

- All corrections must be initialed and dated.

Corrections to the minutes can be made years later by means of a motion to amend something previously adopted. This requires a two-thirds vote or a majority vote with prior notice.

With approval of the association, the reading of the minutes of the meeting may be postponed to the next meeting, or a committee may be appointed to read the minutes and report findings at the next meeting. If a committee is appointed, all members must have been present at that meeting. The members of the committee must sign their names at the end of the master copy of those minutes.

Only the group, (executive committee, board of directors, general), which created the minutes can correct them.
CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

A PTA unit may divide the secretarial responsibilities between two persons: a recording secretary (referred to as the secretary) and a corresponding secretary. The duties of the secretary are outlined in the bylaws of the association, under “Article VIII: Duties of Officers, Section 3.” A corresponding secretary does not automatically take the place of the secretary when that officer is absent.

The Corresponding Secretary:

- Is responsible for the correspondence of the association, as directed by the president.
- Reads communications at meetings. (When reading a communication, always read the name of the writer before the message.)
- Writes thank you notes to those who give presentations to the association (if this responsibility is not assigned to another officer or committee). When thanking a program participant:
  - Be prompt in expressing appreciation.
  - Date your letter. In an informal note of appreciation, it may be written below and to the left of your signature.
  - Quote a worthy comment made by the presenter.
  - Reaffirm the group’s appreciation for the time and thought the speaker gave to the presentation.
  - Sign the PTA’s name followed by your signature. Be sure to identify your relationship to the PTA, i.e., Jane Smith, Corresponding Secretary.

FINANCIAL TIME FRAMES

The fiscal year, budget year, audit year, term of office and school year do not all coincide.

FISCAL YEAR
- A fiscal year is any 12-month period that begins on the first day of a given month and ends the last day of a given month.
- Stated in the bylaws, Article XVI: Fiscal Year & IRS Form 990, Section 1.
- The fiscal year is registered with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and is used for the purpose of filing IRS Forms 990N, 990EZ, 990 and appropriate schedules.
- At the end of the fiscal year, it is time to review the books and determine total (gross) receipts for the unit.
- All PTAs must file IRS Form 990N, 990 or 990 EZ and appropriate schedules.

BUDGET YEAR
- A budget year is any 12-month period that runs from budget adoption to budget adoption.
- The budget year begins with the adoption of the new budget by the general membership (usually at the first meeting of the school year) and concludes at the end of the 12-month period, the last day of the twelfth month.
- Does not end with the last day of school or election of new officers. The budget is for the association – it does not matter whose names are on the checks. The budget year is used to determine if the funds are spent as approved by the membership for a specific 12-month period.

OFFICERS’ YEAR
- According to our bylaws, Article VI: Officers and Their Election, Section 5, officers assume their official duties following the close of the school year and serve for a specified term, generally 12 months. This period is most often from the close of the school year to the close of the next school year.
- In all likelihood, the term of office will not coincide with the fiscal year or the budget year.

SCHOOL YEAR
- The school year runs from the first day of school through the last day of school.
- New officers officially begin their term at the end of the last day of school.

MEMBERSHIP YEAR
- Georgia PTA membership year includes all dues collected and submitted to Georgia PTA from July 1 to June 30.
BUDGET

The budget is an outline of estimated income and expenses. It is a financial plan for procuring and apportioning funds to meet the goals and needs of the year’s activities as planned by the PTA. The budget:

- And amendments to the budget must be approved by the general membership.
- Should include monies necessary to operate the PTA, including summer months and the beginning expenses of the new school year.
- Is not closed at the end of the school year, nor upon the elections of new officers.
- Approval process (written motion) must be included in the secretary’s minutes. There is a proposed sample budget included in the forms section of this guide.
- Should be formatted to mirror how you will report income and expenses on IRS Form 990.
- Should be goal oriented, i.e., based on advancing an association’s mission.
- Should reflect realistic plans of action.
- Should be participatory (budget preparation with input from officers, principals, and committee chairs.)
- Budgets should offer some flexibility in accommodating appropriate resource requests, not used as an excuse for denying such requests.

DEVELOPING THE BUDGET

- A three to five member finance or budget committee is responsible for developing the budget.
- The committee members include the treasurer, past president, current president, principal, and members proficient in financial management. The treasurer often acts as chairperson of the committee.
- The budget or finance committee should study the previous year’s budget and treasurer’s reports to see how that budget met the association’s needs.
- Determine the programs and projects to be carried out for the coming year and calculate the funds needed.
- Make realistic estimates of how much each will cost and how they will be funded.
- Seek approval from the board and the membership.
- Establish a system for keeping track of how well the projected budget is matching up with the actual finances.
- Do not raise money just because it is traditional and later decide how to spend it. Have an appropriate PTA purpose in mind.

APPROPRIATE PTA EXPENSES

The budget must include all monies necessary to operate the PTA, its programs and activities, including summer expenses such as leadership training for new board members and the “start up” expenses for the new school year. It is imperative that your budget include line items designated for PTA training and convention. Please refer to the sample budget for a list of what line items should be included in the budget.
CARRY OVER FUNDS

There is no ruling from IRS, National, or State PTA that limits the amount of money that the PTA may carry over from one budget year to the next. However, it is best if all funds earned within a year are spent in the same year. The amount of carry over is based on what funds are needed to continue PTA business until the next income opportunity. This will vary from one PTA to another. (Note: If your PTA continues to carry over large sums of money, you should reduce the number of fundraisers to bring revenues in line with program requirements.)

APPROVING THE BUDGET

The budget must be presented by the committee chairperson to the board of directors for consideration and adoption, then to the PTA membership for approval. A majority vote of the members at the general meeting is required for adoption, a quorum having been determined present. The budget is presented item by item to allow for discussions and amendment of each section.

AMENDING THE BUDGET

The budget is an estimate of the planned revenue and expenses for the year. When there are additional expenses, differences in revenues, or a change in an approved expense, the budget must be amended by a vote of the general membership at any regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose. To amend something previously adopted, it is necessary to have a two-thirds majority (or a simple majority if prior notice of amendment has been given).

OBLIGATIONS OF FUTURE BOARDS

PTAs may not obligate future boards to a contract or a particular expenditure. This means, a future board is not obligated to spend funds as designated by a previous board. A board may designate part of its carry over, but the next board does not have to use it for the designated purpose. Only the PTA membership may decide how its funds are spent.
TAX INFORMATION

There are two taxing authorities that are of concern to PTA: the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the State of Georgia. Structurally and politically, these tax collection agencies are totally separate entities. It is the responsibility of each local unit’s officers to learn and fulfill the obligations of the PTA to these taxing authorities. For rules, guidelines and general information please refer to PTA Money Matters: Quick-Reference Guide, IRS website, www.irs.gov, and/or Georgia Department of Revenue website, https://etax.dor.ga.gov/. Per Federal law any organization not filing the appropriate Form 990 for three consecutive years will automatically lose its tax-exempt status.

FEDERAL

Protecting PTA Tax Exemption

Georgia PTA and all subordinate units in good standing are exempt from federal income tax as a charitable and educational association under the provisions of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Strict compliance with all applicable federal, state and local laws is important to prevent even the most well intentioned effort from becoming a serious problem for the association.

The following restrictions, which apply to 501(c)(3) classification, must not be violated:

- PTAs must be organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational or scientific purposes.
- Its resources and funds cannot be used for private benefit.
- Upon dissolution, its assets must be distributed for one or more of those defined purposes.
- It cannot engage in a substantial amount of lobbying activity.
- It cannot engage in political activity or support candidates for public office.

PTA provides the following guidelines to protect PTA funds and fundraising:

1. Fundraising is not a primary function of the PTA. The primary emphasis in PTA is the promotion of the Purposes and Mission. Raise all funds in accordance with a predetermined and budgeted purpose approved by the general membership that advances the PTA’s Purposes and Mission. Excessive fundraising places an undue emphasis on money and diverts attention from the PTA’s primary role as an advocacy group.

2. All PTA funds must be raised through activities that are substantially related to the educational and charitable purposes of the PTA in order to be tax-exempt. It is important to note that it is not how the PTA spends the funds, but rather the manner by which the funds are raised. If funds are generated because of an activity that does not meet the “substantially related” test, the funds must be listed on the association’s tax return as taxable unrelated business income.

3. If a PTA decides to conduct a fundraising activity, children should not be used or exploited as fundraisers. Fundraising activities should reflect the principles and policies of the PTA and the fundraising activity itself should have a recreational, social or educational value. If a fundraising activity is conducted on school property, a PTA must comply with all laws regulating the use of school property and should receive prior approval from school authorities to ensure that the activity does not violate any school policies.

4. All funds raised by the PTA can only be deposited in a PTA account. All money deposited in the PTA account is considered PTA funds and can only be spent with the approval of the general membership. Payment for all approved expenditures should be made out of the PTA checking account. Every check written must be substantiated with an itemized statement, receipt, or other written authorization for the expenditure.
5. PTA may not delegate authority or control over its funds to another organization or entity. Only the PTA membership can authorize the expenditure of funds. PTA funds cannot be diverted to other organizations or individuals. PTA funds must be kept and accounted for separately from school funds. PTA funds are private monies; school funds are public monies.

6. Before approving proposals or requests for material aid to the school or the community, a PTA must determine if the expenditure is a public responsibility. PTAs should not provide funding for anything that is the responsibility of the education system (such as salary for school employees, gym floors, school tracks, air conditioners, lawnmowers, golf carts). PTA renders a more enduring service if it alerts public officials to assume the responsibility, rather than assuming the responsibility itself. When assuming public responsibilities, PTAs can actually contribute to the inequities that already exist in public education today and contribute to inadequate funding from public sources.

7. Before any PTA purchases school equipment, a thorough investigation of all of the ramifications of such a decision should be undertaken. Generally, the donated equipment will become the property of the school and, under certain circumstances, a gift or donation form may need to be completed. The PTA should not have any ongoing maintenance, repair, liability, or insurance obligations with respect to the donated equipment.

8. In approving fundraising activities and expenditures, the PTA membership must further the reputation of the PTA as a charitable association, protect the PTA, its officers and members from liability, and preserve the tax-exempt status of the PTA.

Federal Tax Exemption

What is a 501(c)(3) organization?
The Internal Revenue Service classifies PTAs as tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organizations. A 501(c)(3) organization must be noncommercial (does not engage in specific commercial endorsements, or make a qualitative judgment of a product or service), nonsectarian (does not promote one religious group over another) and nonpartisan (does not endorse or support candidates or parties, however PTAs may support or oppose issues). Further, the organization name or any member acting in an official capacity cannot be used to endorse or promote any commercial concern or political party or conduct activities not in keeping with the Purposes and the Mission of the PTA.

Why is it important to protect PTA’s 501(c)(3) status?
PTAs are exempt from income taxes under Sections 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. To retain the tax-exempt status, PTAs must ensure that fundraising does not become their primary focus. All PTAs function under the exempt status of Georgia and National PTA. In order for a PTA to maintain status as a 501(c)(3) association, specific standards must be met (see explanation of 501(c)(3) above)

What does being a 501(c)(3) association mean to my PTA?
It means your PTA is exempt from paying Federal Income Taxes on money earned by the PTA for use in its programs. This also means that donors may deduct charitable contributions to local units, councils and districts as provided in the Internal Revenue Code.

What is an EIN (Employer Identification Number)?
EIN numbers are issued by the IRS. Every 501(c)(3) organization is required to have one. When a PTA is organized, Georgia PTA applies to the IRS for the number. Your EIN number identifies your PTA as a nonprofit association. It is a nine-digit number and it looks like: 54-1236789. If you are unsure of your EIN number, please contact the state PTA office, or your district director for this information. You must never let another organization/individual use your EIN number.
Types of Federal Tax Forms

Form 990-N, 990, & 990EZ

Federal legislation was passed in 2006 that began requiring most nonprofits, regardless of gross income, to file at minimum a 990-N (e-postcard) annually. The law provides that any organization not filing for three consecutive years will automatically lose its tax exempt status. Per the bylaws, it is the responsibility of the current treasurer to file the appropriate IRS 990 form. Failure to do so will jeopardize your tax exemption status and your good standing with Georgia PTA.

Filing is done at the end of the fiscal year as indicated in your bylaws. 990 returns must be mailed or e-filed no later than the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of the fiscal year.

Example: If your Fiscal Year is July 1 to June 30, the 990 is due November 15.

What must be filed?

- 990-N - Electronic Postcard Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax Organizations with gross receipts between $0 and $50,000 must file form 990-N, also known as the e-postcard.

- 990EZ - Short Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax Organizations with gross receipts between $50,000 and $200,000 and assets less than $500,000 must file form 990EZ.

- If a PTA makes more than $1,000 in unrelated business income, it must file a Form 990-T.

- If a PTA has changed the fiscal year in the bylaws or changed its name, Form 1128 must be filed.

- If a PTA wishes to request an extension of time to file Form 990 or 990-EZ, it should complete and file Form 8868 with the IRS before the deadline determined by the close of the PTA’s fiscal year.

If a paper copy is filed, copy page 1 of the return and attach to IRS 990 Filing Verification Form. The original should be sent registered mail to IRS service center, a complete copy to Georgia Department of Revenue, and a complete copy should be kept with PTA permanent records.

State copy mailing address: Georgia Department of Revenue
P.O. Box 740395
Atlanta GA 30374-0395

Federal copy mailing address: Internal Revenue Service Center
Ogden, UT 84201-0027

If the 990 is filed electronically, print 3 copies of the e-filing receipt. Keep one for your PTA permanent records, send one copy to Georgia Department of Revenue, and attach one to IRS 990 Filing Verification Form.

Automatic Tax Exemption Revocation for Non-Filing – Those in jeopardy of losing exemption are listed on the IRS website. "If an organization does not file an annual return or notice for three consecutive years, the organization is automatically revoked by operation of law, and not by a determination made by the IRS. To have its tax-exempt status reinstated, the organization must file an application for exemption." If exemption is lost, local unit will be notified in writing. Fee to reinstate is from $200 to $850.

These limits are subject to change. Please verify with the IRS at www.irs.gov prior to preparation of tax return.

What are gross receipts?

A gross receipt is the total income/revenue generated by your association. A net receipt is the amount remaining after all expenditures/bills have been paid. For example, if a PTA collects $10,000 in a fundraising sale, but pays the vendor $5,000, the entire $10,000 is considered gross receipts. The state and national portion of dues are not part of gross receipts.
How do we get the forms?
For Form 990-N go to www.irs.gov<charities for the form and instructions. Locate the heading Annual Electronic Filing Requirements for Small Exempt Organization – Form 990-N (e-postcard). Form 990 or 990EZ and appropriate Schedules are requested from the IRS. To order Form 990 or 990EZ and Schedule A, call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676 and follow prompts). Be sure to ask for the forms and the instructions. They will not send the instructions unless you ask for them. If you have access to the Internet, you can download and print these forms at the IRS website: www.irs.ustreas.gov.

What are the penalties for late filing or not filing?
Failure to file the Form 990 may result in a penalty of $20 a day not to exceed $10,000 or 5% of the organization’s gross receipts for the year. Late filing, incorrect filing and/or incomplete filing can result in a fine. Remember, PTA is tax exempt, but not exempt from filing under the above conditions. There is no statute of limitations for returns that have not been filed. Failure to file 990-N, 990, or 990-EZ for three consecutive years will automatically result in loss of tax-exempt status.

Form 8868
Form 8868 is to be used in obtaining an extension of time to file Form 990. It is an automatic 3-month extension form (meaning no reason for the extra time need be provided.) It can also be used to obtain a second 3-month extension, but an explanation is required and it is not an automatic extension.

Form 1099-Misc
A PTA must file Form 1099-MISC with the IRS whenever it pays a person or an unincorporated business $600 or more in a calendar year for services rendered.

Form 1128
Form 1128 is to be used if changing your fiscal year becomes necessary. The directions and form may be found on the IRS website.

The dealer must maintain a copy of the certificate of exemption presented for audit purposes.
Raffles & Bingo

Georgia law (OCGA Section 16-12-22.1) allows certain nonprofit, tax-exempt organizations to operate raffles. PTAs interested in conducting a raffle must check with the local school administration to ensure such an activity does not violate any existing policies or rules. The PTA must apply for a license with the sheriff of the county in which the PTA is located, as well as verify if there is a limit on the number of raffles that each organization can operate annually.

Recreational Bingo (Free Bingo) – No license required. These are bingo games for which your PTA does not charge participants to play and does not award cash prizes or prizes worth more than $15 per game. Also, the non-cash prizes cannot be exchanged or redeemed for money. Recreational bingo games are not considered gambling under Georgia law, so your PTA may hold them as often as you like.

Other types of bingo are considered gambling and therefore require a permit or license from the Georgia Bureau of Investigation.

Annual Bingo Fundraiser – This is a special exception for nonprofit school organizations, and PTAs are included under this exemption. The GBI will issue a one-time permit for one bingo session during the calendar year free of charge. Keep in mind that only one permit will be issued per school or PTA; not to both during the same calendar year. Your PTA must apply for the permit by letter on school letterhead signed by the principal and PTA president. The permit must be posted in the location where you hold the bingo. The GBI will send you instructions along with your one-time permit. Allow at least two weeks to receive the permit.

SOURCES OF FUNDS

FUNDRAISING

When planning fundraising activities for the year use the 3:1 rule as a fundraising guideline: For every one (1) fundraising activity, there should be at least three (3) projects aimed at helping parents or children, or advocating for school improvement. This simple test helps protect your association's 501(c)(3) status and promote PTA purposes.

Each PTA is an independent private association and all monies raised by it are the property of that independent local PTA. Unless the rules governing PTAs expressly prohibit a specific activity or expenditure, the members of each PTA vote to determine how PTA funds are to be used. However, each PTA must remember that its actions have an impact upon the integrity, reputation and tax-exempt status of all PTAs. Therefore, its own standards must be consistently held high. The greatest service PTA can perform is to promote, advocate and support quality public education. Please see the Georgia PTA website for complete guidelines for fundraising.

- Fundraising is the method of raising money to finance PTA programs and projects.
- The fundraising project must support the goals of PTA and be related to its education, charitable, and philanthropic purposes as a tax-exempt association.
- It should involve as many members as possible and be fun.
- The fundraising project must have the approval of the membership in advance of the event. (Normally fundraising projects are approved when the budget is approved. This can include a general amount of budgeted money under the heading “Fundraisers.”)

SPECIAL NOTE: PTA policy states, “Children should never be exploited or used as fundraisers.”

NONCOMMERCIAL POLICY – USE OF PTA BRAND/LOGO

All PTA bylaws, whether national, state, district, council or local unit, include the requirement that the PTA be noncommercial. Neither the name “PTA,” which is a registered service trademark, nor the names of any of its officers shall be used in conjunction with commercial activities of other organizations, including but not limited to the promotion of goods and services. This policy should be applied with judgment and common sense, recognizing that it is not meant to prohibit all contact with other groups and organizations. In conjunction with its noncommercial policy, PTA must not raise money to be diverted into other channels, such as providing support to other organizations or individuals, no matter how worthy. This policy is not meant to prohibit PTAs from providing monetary assistance to other PTAs.

Under no circumstances should a PTA allow money collected, donated, or raised by any means for another organization to pass through the PTA’s bank account(s). All fundraising activities must be approved by the general membership. PTAs should not undertake fundraising activities for any project that does not benefit a majority of the children of the PTA’s school, or does not have general benefit to all children. Fundraisers for a specific person (i.e., child’s transplant, teacher’s bone marrow procedure, etc.) should be avoided, not because they are not worthy, but because they set precedence. PTAs can provide volunteers and expertise for such fundraisers, but should not be the driving force or the repository of the funds raised. Local banks can set up accounts for this purpose so PTA doesn’t run the donations through the PTA account.

ALL FUNDS DEPOSITED IN THE PTA ACCOUNT BECOME THE PROPERTY OF THE PTA AND ALL EXPENDITURES REQUIRE A VOTE OF THE ASSOCIATION.
DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS FOR CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS

During times of tragedies and great need, PTAs are often asked to make contributions to other organizations. PTAs should always follow PTA guidelines and IRS regulations.

PTAs may:

- Act jointly with other organizations to achieve common goals.
- Choose to donate a portion of PTA funds to a local or national cause/event, just remember it must be approved by the general membership, not just the board of directors.
- Promote another organization’s program or service, including a fundraiser so that members may choose to participate as private individuals.

PTAs may not:

- Deposit money raised for another organization into the PTA account.
- Raise or manage funds for another organization, as fundraising does not fulfill the primary mission of the PTA.

Donations to Other 501(c)(3) Organizations

IRS rules do not prohibit 501(c)(3) organizations from making donations to other 501(c)(3) organizations. Funds should never be run through PTA accounts that are not, nor are never meant to be, PTA funds. This applies to funds that belong to other organizations, the school and money being held for school or other organizations (i.e., school chorus, drama club, etc.), no matter how worthy the cause. The following examples illustrate some of the most common instances when a PTA should not deposit funds into their account: funds collected for T-shirts for the band, proceeds of the drama fundraiser in anticipation of the production, contributions for a family in need after a crisis or tragedy.

Simply stated, PTAs should not raise or hold money for other organizations. PTAs raise money for their PTA programs and work. Raising money for other organizations or groups is the other group's responsibility in accordance with their own mission or purpose. What PTAs might do is raise awareness about the needs of other organizations, preferably those with a common focus or mission to PTA. A unit can share information about other organization's fundraisers and can encourage members to volunteer at their events, albeit not to the detriment of the PTA and its ability to find volunteers and financial support.

A PTA, through a Community Outreach line item in its budget and to a reasonable extent, can secure supplies for another organization. A PTA also can help in other non-monetary ways such as conducting a coat and mitten drive for a nearby Children's Shelter or buying supplies for a PTA group to serve dinner at a local soup kitchen.

On a one-time/emergency basis, a PTA can consider donating its own funds to an organization. This would be best demonstrated by donating to the American Red Cross for Hurricane Katrina or for tsunami relief. But again, the intent is not to raise funds for other organizations.

Additionally, by siphoning funds or setting up line items in the PTA budget, or developing fundraisers for another organization, a PTA limits the programs and good works it can do directly for the members of its local unit and school community. For example, several schools have experienced families burned out of their homes this year. If funds from these PTAs had been given to another organization, it might have jeopardized the home school's ability to provide supplies or other non-monetary support to these families in need. Care and balance are recommended. When specific questions arise, please contact your District Director or the state PTA treasurer.
DEDUCTIBILITY OF CONTRIBUTIONS TO PTA

Contributions to the PTA are tax deductible in full if no service or other benefit is received in return. Contributors who receive services or benefits may deduct only that part of the contribution that is greater than the fair market value of the benefit received. For example, if admission paid to a PTA event includes a meal, only the portion of the admission price that exceeds the fair market value of the meal is deductible.

Single contributions in excess of $250 require a receipt documenting the charitable donation to the PTA. A cancelled check will suffice as substantiation for contributions over $75 and up to $250. The treasurer should have a procedure in place to provide this documentation. Separate payments to a PTA generally will be treated as separate contributions and will not be aggregated for the purpose of applying the $250 threshold.

The written acknowledgement by the PTA for a contribution received must provide information sufficient to substantiate the amount of the deductible contribution. If applicable, the PTA is required to include a good faith estimate for the value of the goods and services provided to the donor in exchange for making the contribution to the PTA.

Acknowledgements for the PTA need not be in a particular form; they can be made by a letter, post card or computer generated form. A PTA may prepare a separate acknowledgement for each contribution, which can be given at the time of the contribution or may provide donors with the periodic acknowledgements that give required information for each contribution by the donor of $250 or more during that period. A PTA that knowingly provides false written substantiation to a donor may be subject to penalties for aiding and abetting an understatement of tax liability.

If the donor claims the value of a non-cash contribution of $250 or more, the PTA is required to furnish a written acknowledgement as well, following similar guidelines for cash contributions. However, the PTA is not required to, and should not, place a value on the contributed item(s) for the donor. For Form 990 reporting purposes, the PTA will have to place a value on the property for its financial records.
UNRELATED BUSINESS INCOME (UBI)

Unrelated business income (UBI) has been and continues to be a hot topic for PTAs and the IRS. Exempt organizations have challenged the definition of UBI by creating new forms of revenue brought about by a changing society and the need for additional forms of revenue other than membership dues. The definition of UBI has not changed, but decisions by the IRS about affinity programs, sale and rental of mailing lists (a practice that is against PTA policy), corporate sponsorships, and how these forms of revenue fit the definition of UBI have kept the IRS busy over the past several years. The following discussion of UBI and the tax attributed to it provides some specific references to the IRS code and other sources of information available to PTAs.

Overview

Most PTAs are exempt from paying federal income tax on income earned under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). Tax-exempt means PTAs do not pay federal tax on income from activities substantially related to the purpose that allows the PTA exempt status. A nonprofit organization is not prevented from making a profit; a nonprofit organization is prevented from distributing the profits to benefit the volunteers and staff of the organization. This does not preclude the organization from paying expenses incurred by volunteers related to PTA business or from having a paid staff. (e.g. Georgia PTA employs paid staff to carry out the work of the volunteer board. This is not to be confused with paying salaries of school employees.) While most ways in which a nonprofit can earn additional income are exempt from taxes, some activities may cause classification of the earned income as UBI and subject to unrelated business income tax (UBIT). For an activity to be classified as yielding unrelated business income, three factors must be present:

The activity is:

- From a trade or business.
- Conducted on a regular and continuous basis.
- Unrelated to the association’s tax-exempt status: the Purposes of PTA.

In other words, the activity is conducted on a regular basis. The activity is of a short duration, but follow-up or preparation is conducted over a longer period. The activity occurs only once per year, but is in competition with a commercial company performing the same activity, such as a holiday event or seasonal products or activities. The activity is not substantially related to carrying out the association’s exempt purpose regardless of what is eventually done with the income.

The activity does not help to fulfill the exempt purpose in an important way. The purpose of the activity cannot be based solely on the need for money. Organizations having annual gross UBI of $1,000 or more are required to file Form 990-T.

To determine the gross amount of UBI you should:

- Determine all unrelated income not excluded from UBI.
- Subtract the total cost of goods sold. After determining UBI, you will figure the taxable amount by:
  - Deducting allowable expenses.
  - Deducting certain net operation losses.
  - Deducting qualifying charitable contributions.
  - Taking the statutory deduction of $1,000. Tax advantages or disadvantages of determining deductions are not part of this discussion and should be discussed with a tax advisor.
Exemptions or Exclusions

The income from most PTA fundraising activities is exempt from federal income taxes because:

- The activities are conducted only once per year
- At least 85 percent of the work of the activities is conducted by volunteers, or
- The activities consist of selling donated merchandise (e.g., a silent or live auction of donated merchandise).

Judgment of whether an activity is related or unrelated is made on a case–by-case basis.

The federal, state, and local governments may have different standards for pursuing the charge of UBI, although most state and local governments follow the federal rules.
CORPORATE SPONSORSHIPS

Reference: PTA Money Matters Quick-Reference Guide

The tragic murder of a young man in the fall of 1997 while going door-to-door selling wrapping paper for his PTA, has caused many PTAs to discontinue fundraisers that involve or have the potential to involve children in door-to-door sales. PTAs are discovering that sponsorships can be a preferable method over fundraisers to finance their programs and activities.

What is a Corporate Sponsorship?
Sponsorship is simply the donation of money, goods or services by a business to a PTA in return for a public acknowledgement of that donation. For example, a company donates money to the PTA to pay for a Parent Involvement Handbook. On the back of the book, the PTA prints the company's name as the sponsor.

What is commercial co-venturing?
In commercial co-venturing, the PTA only receives the donation (usually cash) to the extent the donor's business is patronized and it is usually measured as a percentage of sales. PTAs cannot make a quantitative statement about or endorse a business or product. Active promotion, sale or marketing of the business products or services by a PTA and its members would, in most cases, violate PTA’s noncommercial policy. It could jeopardize the PTA’s status with the IRS.

How does sponsorship, which is acceptable and encouraged, differ from commercial co-venturing, which is discouraged?
In a sponsorship arrangement, the only thing the PTA gives the sponsor in return for the donation (whether it is cash or goods or service) is a public “thank you.” The benefit to the company is the free advertising and the positive relationship with the association.

Qualified Sponsorship Payment

The statute defines a qualified sponsorship payment (QSP) as any payment made by an entity engaged in a trade or business, where there is no arrangement or expectation that the entity will receive any substantial return benefit for the payment. The recipient organization’s use or acknowledgement of the payer’s name, logo, or product lines is not a substantial return benefit.

PTA can express its appreciation to a sponsor for financial support as long as it does not promote the sponsor’s products, services or facilities. This expression of appreciation can include the sponsor’s logos and slogans, its locations, telephone number, Internet address and value-neutral descriptions or displays of products or services. In addition, the guidelines allow the sponsor or PTA to distribute the sponsor’s product to persons attending an event. The expression of appreciation cannot contain qualitative or comparative language or price information. This type of language may qualify as advertising, which is taxable. PTAs may provide an insubstantial benefit to the sponsor for the contribution. The benefits are insubstantial when the benefits provided are token items such as mugs, calendars, key chains, or shirts that include the PTAs name or logo and do not have a cost over $9.10 (adjusted by IRS each year).

Excluded from QSPs are payments dependent on the level of attendance at an event, broadcast ratings, or other factors indicating the degree of exposure necessary to receive payment. For example, if PTAs will only receive the payment when more than 200 people attend the event, or if there is guaranteed press coverage, the payment is not a QSP. In general, the payment must be given with no strings attached.

New Considerations: The newest consideration regarding the proposed regulations concerns exclusivity arrangements. It discusses exclusive sponsor arrangements and exclusive provider arrangements. The payer, in an exclusive sponsor arrangement, receives the right to be the only sponsor of the activity. An acknowledgement that identifies an exclusive sponsor is not treated as a substantial return benefit. In an exclusive provider arrangement, the PTA would agree to limit the sale or use of competing products or services in connection with any of their activities. The regulation provides that such an agreement will provide a substantial return benefit and accordingly will not be a QSP, but will be taxable.
Internet and Website Links: Two other areas scheduled for review in this statute are an exempt organization’s use of the Internet and links from its own website to sponsor sites. These topics are receiving much publicity but will be addressed by the IRS as separate issues from sponsorship payments. As soon as information is released on these topics, National PTA will distribute it via newsletter.

How is Sponsorship Revenue reported on Form 990? QSPs in the form of money or property are contributions and reported on line 1 of Part I of Form 990 or Form 990-EZ.

Sponsorship Guidelines

- The PTA will seek sponsors who help further the aims, programs, and goals of the association by providing money or in-kind donations. Sponsorships should be linked to specific activities, events, programs, or publications.

- The PTA will not seek nor accept sponsorship money or in-kind donations from companies who manufacture products or take public positions inconsistent with PTA policies, positions, and resolutions. Sponsorship agreements will never involve techniques or marketing approaches that exploit children.

- The PTA’s name, logo or mark shall not be used by the sponsor in sponsor materials or communications without the express written authorization of the PTA in advance.

- The PTA will not make any endorsements regarding the sponsor’s company, products, or services. An endorsement is a qualitative or quantitative value judgment (e.g. “the best Internet provider”). No sponsor shall be identified as the “Official (product) of PTA,” the “Official (service) of PTA,” or the “Official (supplier) of PTA,”

- Any mailings generated by the sponsorship agreement will be handled by the PTA and not by the sponsor. Mailing lists will not be provided to sponsors under any circumstances.

- All materials or communications, including, but not limited to, print, video, Internet, broadcast or display items developed to promote or communicate the sponsorship using the PTA’s name, marks and/or logo, will be approved by the PTA Executive Committee prior to use by the sponsor.

- No sponsorship agreement shall put the PTA’s tax-exempt status in jeopardy.

- Sponsorships will adhere to PTA bylaws.

- Sponsorship agreements shall not include clauses requiring the participation of other PTAs, or prohibiting other PTAs from partnering with competing companies with similar products or services.
SPENDING PTA FUNDS

What Are Appropriate Uses Of PTA Funds?

1. Funds raised should be for a definite, pre-determined and budgeted purpose.
2. They should be used to promote programs and further education that benefits the health, safety, education and welfare of children per the PTA Purposes.
3. The PTA must spend funds according to the Mission and Purposes of the PTA.
4. All monies deposited in the PTA account belong to the general membership. All funds should be spent as allocated in the budget as passed by the general membership of the PTA.
5. Excess funds raised or not spent should be carried forward to the next budget year.
6. Salaries are not considered appropriate PTA expenses
7. A future board is not obligated to spend funds as designated by a previous board. A board may designate part of its carry over, but the next board does not have to use it for the designated purpose.
8. When purchasing items for the school, the funds must be spent according to an approved budget, and the school must provide you with a purchase order, invoice, or receipt. All PTAs should use a formal process of allocating these funds. Georgia PTA recommends two methods to decide how funds are spent.

Appropriations Model

- Establish an Appropriations Committee, consisting of the Appropriations Chairperson, PTA president, treasurer, and four other members that represent the interests of the PTA. The principal can be asked, but is not required, to select up to an equal number of teachers and staff (less the chair) to represent the school. The Appropriations Chairperson should meet with the president and principal and determine that there is adequate representation.
- The PTA treasurer and president should report the sum of money available for appropriations. This should be a line item in the approved budget. Be certain before the appropriations process begins that the funds are available to fund this budget item without jeopardizing other budget areas. Appropriations can only be made from funds that have already been raised. PTA needs to establish guidelines about what might be appropriate to request.
- PTA committee chairpersons, the principal, teachers and staff should submit requests by filling out a request form. These request forms should be reviewed by the Appropriations Chairperson, arranged systematically and presented to the full Appropriations Committee.
- The Appropriations Committee meets to review and approve, disapprove or partially fund the requests. The Appropriations Chairperson presents these recommendations to the PTA Board of Directors for final approval. The Chair then notifies all applicants whether their requests have been approved or disapproved, providing instructions to all applicants whose grants were approved about how to proceed. See sample of Appropriations Model Letter

Grant Model

- Establish a Grant Committee consisting of PTA board members, teachers, and administrators.
- Create the grant criteria, application, application process and approval process to all PTA chairpersons, school staff and administrators. Anyone may apply by completing a grant application and submitting it for consideration to the Grant Committee.
- Grants can only be funded with monies already raised for appropriate PTA enrichment purposes.
- The Grant Committee review and approve the requests, notifying applicants of approval of their requests, giving instructions to all applicants whose grants were approved about how to proceed.

Dear Staff and Faculty Members:

The PTA/PTSA is pleased to announce that decisions have been made regarding the disbursement of $________ designated for the Appropriation Funds. We received $________ in requests. Since we were able to fund ______ of the total requests, several factors were taken into consideration:

1. School goals of ______ and ______ were given first priority.
2. Mr(s). (Principal) ___________ helped by prioritizing requests and made suggestions to combine efforts in several pods or departments.
3. Those departments that had received recent bond funding, grant funding or additional revenues were not given as high a priority.
4. We viewed many requests with a long-range plan. Part of the request may be funded this year with a goal of funding the remainder in the next few years.
5. Some requests were met with funds from a more appropriate area in the PTA/PTSA budget.

Thank you for submitting your requests. We know that your objective is to make your classroom part of the best instructional program possible for our students at ________. A list of all items purchased from the fund will appear in the next issue of (School Newsletter).

Sincerely,

CASH BOX PROTOCOL

PTA treasurers never sign a blank check and never write a check for cash. This guideline pertains to providing change or petty cash for event/program cash boxes. Fall Festivals, Sock Hops, Family Fun Nights, etc. often require change for tickets or items to be sold, which means a local unit needs to have a supply of small bills and currency available at the opening of the event. Best practice dictates that the event chairperson secures the petty cash needed for the cash boxes from the bank prior to the event, turns in the receipt with a proper Check Request Form and then is reimbursed. This is the same procedure followed for every expense reimbursement written on PTA accounts.

However, occasions arise when the above procedure cannot be followed. In that case, strict enforcement of the following guidelines should be utilized. This will ensure that quality bookkeeping is maintained and the PTA’s cash box funds are protected at all times.

The following procedure is 1) valid only for previously member approved budgeted line items for PTA events or programs and 2) appropriate only in rare circumstances when petty cash “best practices” are not possible.

a. Event chairperson, in planning with the PTA Executive Committee, indicates that cash boxes will be needed for the upcoming event.
b. At least one week prior to event date, event chair secures a Check Request Form (found later in this section) and completely fills in the top portion for the Check Request Form.
c. On the Check Request Form, indicate that the check should be payable to the person obtaining the cash box cash.
d. The amount of check section on the Check Request Form must have a specific amount entered on it. The recommended amount should fall between $25.00 and $100.00. This allows four cash boxes with $25.00 per cash box for the event.
e. The purpose line on the Check Request Form must specifically reference the event and why the cash is needed, e.g. Petty cash for Sock Hop event change box.
f. The event chair must sign the Check Request Form and turn it in to the treasurer for proper approval.
g. The Check Request Form must be approved by the president, signed and dated before the treasurer writes the check.
h. Process checks (signed by the president and treasurer) no earlier than the day of the event, or one day prior if the event is held on the weekend.
i. Charge funds to the event budget line item, just as any other expense for the event or program would be charged. The treasurer indicates this on the Check Request Form in the Treasurer’s Only box.
j. As soon as the event concludes, count all receipts and register them on the Cash Verification Form (found later in this section). Note the amount obtained for the cash boxes on this form. Counters sign off on the form.
k. All receipts are deposited the day of the event, using a night depository if needed.
l. As soon as the next bank statement is received, the treasurer must reconcile the event check for cash with the Check Request Form. If a discrepancy occurs, contact the event chair and clear up immediately.

CHECKING ACCOUNT SIGNERS

In order to protect your PTA, local unit bylaws and the insurance company require that all checks have two signatures, the president and treasurer. The secretary’s signature is also on file at the bank to sign checks only in an emergency in place of either the treasurer or president.

Typically, if the local unit PTA has Co-Presidents, both names may be added to the signature card. However, one president should be the designated signer and the other used in emergency backup situations only. Most units designate one Co-President as the signee on the signature cards, just as one is designated to receive official mailings from state and national PTA.
PTA bylaws also specify “individuals authorized to sign checks shall not be related to each other by marriage or any other relationship.”

Make sure new signature cards are on file with the bank as soon as the school year ends and whenever the treasurer changes. This must be done in a timely manner so that the business of the PTA remains continuous.

When you go to the bank to change signature cards, you will need:

- All three officers designated to sign checks and at least two of the outgoing officers who are currently authorized to sign checks.
- A dated copy of the election meeting minutes in which all newly elected officers’ names is inscribed.
- Your Employer Identification Number, Checking account number, and Local Unit PTA number.

Because PTA requires two signatures on every check, use of a PTA debit card, credit card, ATM card and online banking to disburse PTA funds is not permitted.

Georgia PTA also recommends that bank statements be opened and reviewed by someone other than those authorized as check signers before given to the treasurer for reconciling.

VERIFICATION OF TWO SIGNATURES

Although many banks and financial institutions no longer verify two signatures on checks, PTA bylaws require that all checks have two signatures. Similarly, bonding insurance requires the safeguard of two signatures on PTA checks in order for policies to be effective/valid.
ELECTRONIC BANKING RECEIPT OF FUNDS

Georgia PTA recognizes that local units may wish to offer their membership the opportunity to purchase memberships and other items online or through the use of credit cards. Note – local units are still prohibited from paying for their purchases with credit cards, debit cards or online transfer. Local units may only pay with a check containing two signatures.

When accepting payments from PTA members for membership dues, donations or purchases utilizing a service such as PayPal or credit cards, the following procedures must be followed.

- Only an authorized account signer may have access to the PayPal or merchant services account.
- Funds must be transferred at least weekly into the unit’s checking account by the Treasurer.
- The transactions must be reconciled and signed by two individuals.
- Merchant accounts and/or merchant terminals cannot be shared with other groups or the school.
- Reversals and refunds cannot be processed through the merchant services account.
- In order to process a reversal or refund, a Check Request Form must be completed with documentation as to why the credit is requested. The credit must be paid via check with two signers. Fees for merchant services must be included in the budget and approved by the membership.

Access to funds/Transfers to checking account

Services such as PayPal or Google do not automatically transfer the funds once the sale is made to the bank account of the merchant. Therefore, it is necessary for someone to manually make the transfer of funds. It is recommended that any such transfer be made on a weekly basis at a minimum. During high activity periods, such as during back to school membership drives or fundraisers, the local unit may decide to make more frequent transfers. Access to the online account shall be limited to checking account signers only. A non-account signer such as the webmaster is not permitted access to the merchant account. The Treasurer is responsible for the transfer.

Reconciliation of merchant transactions.

Merchant transactions are to be reconciled and signed by two individuals. This will provide the dual control typically seen with the Cash Verification Form. The signed reconciliation is to be kept with the Treasurer’s records and submitted with the other documentation to the auditor at the end of the year. The reconciliation will confirm the amount transferred from the online merchant account to the local unit checking account. The reconciliation will also confirm the correct budget line item.

Merchant Services Terminals

Merchant services terminals shall be permitted. The same guidelines as for online sales shall apply. Just like with all other PTA accounts, an online merchant account cannot be shared by multiple local units; nor can other groups, including the school, use the PTA merchant account.

Reversals of charges/Refunds.

Reversals and refunds cannot be processed through the merchant services account. In order to process a reversal or refund, a Check Request Form must be completed with documentation as to why the credit or refund is requested. The credit must be paid via check with two signers.

Fees

Fees for merchant services accounts including monthly maintenance and transaction fees must be disclosed to the membership and included in the local unit budget. Fees typically consist of a per transaction charge plus a percentage of the sale. Because of the per item charge (typically in the $.25-$.30 range) local units may wish to consider placing a minimum charge amount.
LIABILITY ISSUES

Georgia PTA strongly encourages units to obtain adequate insurance protection against liability and financial loss due to fraud, embezzlement or dishonest acts. Operating a PTA unit is much like running a small business. Businesses need insurance to protect their investments; the same is true for PTA units. Having insurance protection makes good business sense, especially when the cost is relatively small for the peace of mind of knowing you are protected.

FIDELITY BONDING INSURANCE

It is in the best interest of the PTA for the treasurer and all other individuals authorized to handle funds and securities of the association to be covered by a fidelity bond in the amount determined by the executive committee. The bond policy covers losses sustained by a PTA through a fraudulent or dishonest act or acts committed by any of the employees or non-compensated elected officers and their successors or any non-compensated person who is authorized by an officer to handle PTA monies acting alone or in conspiracy with others.

When requesting information on a fidelity bond policy, the PTA should decide which type of coverage it requires, a position schedule bond, blanket position bond, or commercial blanket bond. The position schedule bond covers the position(s) listed and does not mention any individual(s) by name. A blanket position bond covers all members handling funds with the amount of coverage applying separately to each member. The commercial blanket bond covers all members handling funds with the amount of coverage for any one loss regardless of the number of members involved.

The amount of coverage should be determined by taking the average of the association’s gross receipts for the past three years.

LIABILITY INSURANCE

General

PTAs should consider their need for liability insurance when there are projects or activities that may result in potential hazard for PTA members, school children, or other third parties. Commercial general liability insurance provides coverage for your legal liability arising from bodily injury, personal injury (false arrest, libel, slander, and other defined injuries), advertising injury, and property damage to others arising out of your activities and operations. Such insurance coverage may be purchased on either a continuous year round, comprehensive coverage basis, or on a one-time basis for special events. Generally speaking, school district liability insurance does not extend to PTAs or their activities.

Accident Medical

Accident Medical Insurance provides payment for injuries sustained at a PTA event. This insurance will cover risks that are often excluded by the General Liability Policy. These risks include injury while in an automobile or on motorized rides.

Directors and Officers (D&O)

Directors and officers liability insurance provides protection for claims arising out of the wrongful acts (making policy and managing the affairs) of directors and officers that do not fall under the definition of physical injuries. D&O liability insurance may provide coverage for the defense costs resulting from covered claims. Some examples of D&O liability claims include the following:

- Discrimination based upon age, sex, race, national origin, disability, etc.
- Improper employment termination
- Breach of contract, e.g., contract disputes with customers, vendors, suppliers, or service providers
- Mismanagement of organization funds
Property Insurance

Property Insurance covers property that is owned, loaned, or borrowed to be used by a local unit, council, or district. Examples of PTA property that you would consider insuring include: computer for the association, popcorn machine for Fall Festival, and fundraising merchandise, in short, property that would be difficult to replace if damaged or stolen. Property insurance will replace such items if a loss occurs due to theft or natural hazard. (Each local unit will need to determine if their PTA owns property that should be insured.)

IMPORTANT: Do not hesitate to contact your PTA’s insurance provider when problems and questions arise.

CONTRACTS

In the course of a year, a PTA may enter into a variety of contracts. For instance, a PTA may contract for a band for a dance or purchase supplies for a fundraising venture. The PTA assumes the responsibility to comply with the terms and conditions of the contract and to pay the stated sum. The fact that an activity is not a financial success or that the PTA has insufficient funds to meet its obligation has no effect on the responsibility assumed.

The president should clearly identify that it is the unit entering into the contract and not the president as an individual. If possible, an additional officer’s signature as witness is a good practice. The contract should read similarly to the following:

_______________________ PTA/ PTSA unit or council by____________________________ School President Date

(Witness - One other PTA officer’s signature)

Before you enter into a contract on behalf of your PTA, consider the following:

- Has the membership approved the project?
- Have all contracts been received in writing? (Written agreements are preferable to oral agreements and less likely to misunderstand.)
- Are the terms and conditions of the contract understood? Have they been reviewed by legal counsel, if needed, and agreed to by the board/executive committee?
- Is the length of the contract limited to the term of the participating officers?

Contract Tip

Remember, if there is any question about the terms or conditions of the contract, the proper time to seek advice is before the contract is signed.
INCORPORATION

Corporation: A legal entity that exists separately from the individuals who organize, control and operate it. As a general rule, officers, directors and members are not personally liable for claims against the entity unless their individual actions are improper. A judgment against the corporation would be limited to the assets of the corporation and not extend to the assets of individual officers, directors and members.

Incorporation is one of the most important steps a PTA can take to protect its officers and volunteers from being personally liable or responsible for a PTA’s debts or legal obligations. The existence of a corporation serves to establish protection for, and limit the liability of, the individual members of the PTA while performing PTA business.

Incorporating does nothing to change the liability of the PTA in the event of a lawsuit, but individual personal liability will be minimized.

- Initial Incorporation: Georgia PTA has streamlined the incorporation process for local unit PTAs. To become incorporated, a local unit should complete the Incorporation Request Form in this resource and submit it, along with a $170.00 check, to Georgia PTA, which includes $100.00 to the Secretary of State’s office for the initial incorporation fee, $40.00 for the publication notice and $30.00 for the annual registration fee.

- Annual Incorporation Renewal: Once incorporated, in order to maintain your unit’s incorporation, an annual registration renewal fee of $30.00 must be paid each year to Georgia PTA, who submits it on your behalf to the Secretary of State’s Office in March. Georgia PTA will send an invoice for the renewal fees to units in November of each year. It is the responsibility of the incorporated local unit to contact the state office if an invoice has not been received by the end of January. Effective July 1, 2008 a $25.00 late fee will be assessed to your Annual Registration if payment is not filed with the Secretary of State office by April 1st.

- Administrative Dissolution: When an entity (local PTA unit) fails to pay their annual renewal fee for two (2) years, the Secretary of State may administratively dissolve that entity. An entity may apply to have an administrative dissolution rescinded, and become reinstated. The fee associated with reinstatement is $250.
FINANCIAL ACCOUNTABILITY

BOOKKEEPING PROCEDURES

Setting Up the Ledger (sometimes referred to as a “Cash Book”)

After the budget is approved, a ledger should be set up to record all PTA deposits and expenditures. The ledger should include a column for each line item in the budget. Approving the budget is the way the membership of the PTA approves unit spending. If there is no line item to support an expense check, the check should not be written. That is why it is very important to develop or amend the adopted budget for accurate accounting of the association’s funds throughout the year.

There will be two sections in the ledger: income and expenses. The ledger can be kept either manually in a ledger book available from any office supply store, or on a computer bookkeeping or spreadsheet program. The computer helps because it does the math and can develop some reports automatically. It depends on what the treasurer is comfortable with and what equipment is available. In either case, the ledger is set up in the same manner. (Note: If using a computer system for accounting, see procedures for computer-generated financial reports.)

In the sample income ledger sheet, the first column is the date of the transaction and the next columns are the income categories. Please note that deposits may include income from more than one source. For example, on 9/10 the treasurer received funds from both the membership drive and T-shirt sale, and needs to make a “split” deposit entry. Both are deposited with the same deposit slip, but credited to the correct columns in the ledger and so noted on the deposit slip. A “total” column shows the total of the deposit. Keep a copy of each deposit slip, which can be matched with the ledger and checkbook register. Reminder: record on each deposit slip, the actual splits of each income account to which the funds are to be credited. Use the line items approved in the budget for this purpose.

COMPUTER-GENERATED FINANCIAL RECORDS

Guidelines for Computer Use

a. Computer files must be stored to a backup disk at least monthly.
b. Each report generated must show the title and time period covered.
c. PTA financial records must be kept on a disk containing only PTA financial records.
d. If an error is discovered prior to printing a report, it may be corrected at that time.
e. If an error is discovered after the report/file has been printed, correct it by a journal entry adding an explanation. (If printed copies have been distributed, corrected copies with an explanation must be distributed.)
f. A hard copy of the computer register must be printed on a monthly basis and maintained in a bound book.
g. Maintain a checkbook with the current balance at all times.
h. In preparing the financial records for audit, the same procedures are followed as with records kept by hand. Printed ledgers, reports, deposit slips, bills, minutes and other records are submitted to the auditor establishing a clear “audit trail” of the financial transactions of the association.
i. When financial records are kept on a computer, the following must be added to the permanent records of the PTA: An information sheet listing all financial institution or bank account names and numbers.

To protect the PTA funds we track each PTA Income and Expense transaction by using Cash Verification and Check Request Forms. This ensures accurate and complete financial reporting. These forms must be supported with appropriate documentation: deposit slips, expense receipts and or bills, contracts, bank statements, treasurer reports, in accordance with a membership approved budget. See policy and forms section of this guide for sample forms.

CHECK REQUEST PROCEDURES

- PTAs must use a general check request system for disbursement of funds.
- The check request form must include: date of request, brief description of PTA approved activity, amount to be paid, receipts/invoices for activity, budget line items associated with request, and signature of the president authorizing payment. Note: Only original invoices should be approved for payment.
- Two signatures are required on every check written: the treasurer’s and president’s. The secretary’s signature serves as an emergency backup in lieu of the president or treasurer’s signature.
- On the check request form, enter the check number of the issued check, along with the treasurer’s signature. This procedure is to be followed for each check written.

These records are kept meticulously and are available to assist and conduct the annual audit for the PTA.

GEORGIA PTA AND NATIONAL PTA DUES

Each unit forwards to Georgia PTA the portion of dues collected for state and national dues on a monthly basis. Remittance must be made by using the “Dues Transmittal Form.” Checks are made payable to Georgia PTA, which has the responsibility of forwarding National PTA’s portion. According to IRS, these dues technically never belong to the local unit and should not be counted as income by the local PTA. The treasurer should work with the membership chair to correctly and promptly pay dues throughout the year. A copy of the Dues Transmittal form should be kept for the Treasurer’s records.
Bank Reconciliations

Reconcile the monthly bank statement and compare with the check stub/register balance promptly to ensure that bank and financial records are correct. Identify differences, note outstanding checks and determine the adjusted bank balance at the end of the month. This establishes the funds available against which checks may be written.

After reconciliation, file all supporting receipts, details of deposits, canceled checks in numerical order and duplicate deposit slips, with the statement. Make a notation on the check register of the last canceled check returned, indicating that the account was reconciled.

On a monthly basis, the bank statements are to be reviewed, signed and dated by a PTA member who is not a signor on the accounts and is not related to the treasurer by marriage or any other relationship.

Step 1: Look at the checks. Verify
- Two signatures on every check
- Payee, amount and date match the treasurer’s report
- Purpose of payment is included in the check’s note section

Step 2: Look at the deposits. Verify
- Date and amount match the treasurer’s report
- Deposits have been timely

Step 3: Assure no online payments or withdrawals have been made using a debit/ATM card.
Step 4: Review the bank statement and the treasurer’s report. Make adjustments for checks that have not cleared and deposits not shown.
Step 5: Contact the treasurer to determine the source of the error(s). Corrections, if required, are included in the next treasurer’s report. Report findings to unit president, treasurer and auditor

THE PTA AUDIT

PTA Audit Objective

Purpose: To certify the accuracy of the books and records of the PTA. To assure the membership that the association’s resources/funds are being managed in a business-like manner within the procedures established.

What is a PTA Audit?

Auditing involves following financial transactions through the records to be sure that receipts have been properly accounted for and expenditures made as authorized in the budget, as approved by the general membership, and in conformity with PTA bylaws and standing rules. The audit must review all accounts of the PTA.

Who May Conduct the Audit?

The board of directors selects an auditor or auditing committee of one or more no later than two weeks prior to the end of the school year. Individuals who are selected to serve on the audit committee should have an accounting or financial background and an unbiased, independent perspective of the books. An auditor or auditing committee member shall not be related to any signee on the checking account by marriage or any other relationship. (Bylaws: Article VII: The PTA Audit: Section 4.) The PTA president, treasurer or any signee may not be a member of the audit committee.

When Is an Audit Performed?

- On an annual basis at the end of each school year
- Upon resignation of the treasurer during the school year Leadership Resource 2013-2014

Section 5: Financial Management: A Treasurer’s Guide

- When any authorized check signer is added or deleted on any bank account
- At any time deemed necessary
- When missing funds are suspected
- To remain a local unit in good standing an audit report must be submitted to the state office by the last business day of September.

Preparing for the audit: The outgoing treasurer is responsible for putting the financial records in order for the audit committee. The outgoing treasurer should deliver the following to the auditor at the end of the school year:

- A copy of the last audit report
- The checkbook containing stubs of all checks written and cancelled checks
- Bank statements and deposit receipts
- Treasurer’s book or ledgers
- The annual financial report
- All treasurer’s reports
- All itemized statements and receipts of bills paid
- All check Request and Cash Verification forms
- Adopted budget and any amendments that were approved by the membership during the year
- Current bylaws
- Copies of board, executive committee, and association minutes

Once the records are turned over to the auditors, the outgoing treasurer can no longer write checks. They should go to the bank immediately with the incoming treasurer and additional newly authorized check signers to change the signature cards. The supply of unused checks and deposit tickets should be turned over to the new treasurer along with a copy of the following: check register, most recent bank statement and budget vs. actual receipts and disbursements. It is recommended that expenditures within an adopted budget be limited to those of an emergency nature until the audit is complete. Note: All previous contractual obligations and other PTA invoices constitute emergency PTA business.

The auditor/auditing committee report shall be in writing. If the auditing committee finds there are not adequate records or accounting procedures used, this information should be noted.

The audit report must be given to the association and officially adopted (a copy is provided to the secretary for the minutes.) A copy of the audit report must be provided to the Georgia PTA state office no later than the last business day of September using the PTA Audit forms.

Conducting The Audit

a. Begin the audit with the first transaction posted after the last audit. Make sure the beginning balance agrees with the Balance on Hand per the last audit report.

b. Make sure that each check written has proper substantiation, i.e. vendor invoice or check request.

c. Ascertain the date of fundraisers and verify deposits are made in a timely manner. Check to see that cash was counted by two people.

d. Check all ledger entries back to the canceled checks and validated deposit tickets. Verify that income and expenses are allocated to the proper budget category and are within the approved budget.

e. Verify that bank reconciliations are done monthly and check their accuracy.

f. Check the accuracy of the math in the checkbook and ledgers if a manual system was used.
g. Verify that financial reports presented to the membership and executive committees are accurate representations of the transactions recorded in the books.

h. Check the accuracy of the annual report and verify that it will be retained as a part of the permanent file.

i. Verify that checks always have two signatures and spot check the endorsements.

j. Watch for checks with multiple handwriting (other than one of the signatures) or different inks. This would be an indication of blank checks being released.

k. Checks should never be made payable to “Cash.” Startup funds should be made payable to the person responsible for the cash until it is refunded.

l. Make sure that the state and national portion of dues are not recorded as income to the unit, but kept separate or recorded as a liability. Verify that the amount sent to state office agrees with the membership roster and is submitted on a monthly basis to the state office.

m. Make sure the appropriate 990 was filed accurately and on time to the IRS.

n. Make sure that money collected for a designated purpose was spent only for that purpose.

o. Check the minutes of the general, board of directors, and executive committee meetings to verify the following:

- The budget and all amendments were adopted by the general membership.
- The general membership approved all fund-raisers, whether through approval of the budget that includes them or through a special vote if added after the adoption of the budget.
- Financial reports were presented at all general, board of directors, and executive committee meetings for all accounts.
- Verify the executive committee approved all plans of work.
- Verify a quorum was present at all executive and general meetings.

p. After the treasurer has corrected any errors and the committee is satisfied that the financial records are correct, draw a red line across the ledger and checkbook where the audit concludes. Write “Examined and found correct” or “Examined and corrected” and have all audit committee members sign and date the entry.

In the event a complete audit cannot be done due to the inadequacy or unavailability of the records, this finding must be reported to the membership. Steps to correct the situation should be recommended for adoption by the membership. In the event the validity of the audit report is questioned, the state PTA can be contacted for assistance.

Inaccuracies found during the audit, including suggestions for future record keeping and recommendations for follow-up contact should be recorded on the PTA Audit/Financial Review Form, which is included in this guide.

IMPORTANT: Any investigation by the auditor(s) must be kept confidential.

Audit Report

A member of the audit committee or auditor should make a report to the executive committee. The executive committee must make a report to the general membership at the first meeting held after the conclusion of the audit. The association should formally adopt the report at that time. “I move that the Audit Report be adopted.” A vote is taken and the action recorded by the secretary in the minutes. Any PTA member may make a motion to adopt the audit. A copy of the annual financial report should be attached to the audit report and maintained permanently by the treasurer and placed in the minutes.

In the event a complete audit cannot be done due to the inadequacy or unavailability of the records this must be reported to the membership. Steps to correct the situation should be recommended for adoption by the membership. In the event the validity of the audit report is questioned, the state PTA can be Inaccuracies found during the audit, including suggestions for future record keeping and recommendations for follow-up contact should be recorded on the PTA Audit/Financial Review Form, which is included in this section.

PTA Audit/Financial Review

All PTAs should submit the PTA Audit/Financial Review annually to the state office by the last business day of September to be considered a PTA in good standing. Staple the completed PTA Audit/Financial Review forms to a copy of the unit’s most recent Audit Report along with any additional documentation from the auditor/audit team. It is not necessary to submit a copy of the year end budget or annual financial report to the Georgia PTA State Office.

Irregularities in the Records

If the audit committee finds irregularities in the records of the treasurer:

- Contact the treasurer to secure additional records or information.
- If the matter cannot be settled to the auditors’ satisfaction, contact the unit president to work out what additional steps need to be taken.
- The unit president should request additional guidance from the council president (if the unit is in a council) or the district director (if the unit is not in a council).
- A council president may request assistance from the district director if the matter cannot be resolved at the council level.
Missing Funds

This information is not intended to provide legal advice, but to give direction regarding the decision-making process and issues related to the mishandling of PTA funds. PTA leaders are encouraged to obtain the necessary legal advice pertinent to local laws.

Occasionally, a PTA discovers (or suspects) that some funds are missing. When that occurs:

Immediately conduct a complete and thorough audit.

- This is the most basic, yet important step. It must be established through the audit that misappropriation of funds has occurred.
- The audit committee is a committee that “investigates and reports.” It should consist of individuals with an independent, unbiased perspective who have no potential conflict of interest. During its investigation, it can interview people as well as examine the books and records.
- The audit committee must report its findings to the PTA board of directors, not just to the executive committee. The report should be factual – stating what was found and what remains unresolved.

The board must act on the report.

- If funds are missing, the board has the legal obligation to take every reasonable action to recover those funds.
- The board of directors, not just the executive committee, must meet and agree on the action to take. Decisions must be based on sound business practices.
- All action taken by the board must be “on the record” (recorded in the board's minutes).
- Notify the insurance and/or bonding agent, as well as appropriate law enforcement agency.

The board must report the incident and the actions it took to the membership.

- The funds of the PTA belong to the membership, and as caretaker of those funds, the board is obligated to report the facts about any wrongdoing to the members.
- You may advise the principal/school district, however this is PTA business and must be dealt with by the association.
- Public or private statements should not be made, regardless of the severity of the situation or its public knowledge.

It is very likely that, at some point in this process, Georgia PTA will be contacted for assistance. It is recommended that all contacts regarding missing funds be referred to the state treasurer or president.

Laws vary from locale to locale. Even if a PTA does not wish to file charges, a law enforcement agency may wish to do so. On the other hand, the law enforcement agency may not be interested in pursuing legal actions and other options may be advised. There are many paths to collection of stolen funds and this is where legal advice may be necessary.
FAQ: TREASURER

1. When should we change signers on the PTA banks accounts?
   Go to the bank with at least two outgoing signers as soon as school ends and whenever one of your account signers is no longer serving as one of your officers. Bring a signed copy of the minutes from the election meeting with you.

2. Can PTA members be required to make financial contributions to the PTA?
   PTA members cannot be assessed any additional payment or fee aside from membership dues, unless the bylaws so provide. Participation in fundraising events must always be optional. Repeated solicitations can be tiresome and embarrassing. Rewards to individual students on the basis of a parent’s financial ability to contribute to the PTA are inappropriate. Volunteer contributions of time, expertise, and investments of human assets are treasured above all else.

3. Under what circumstances could a PTA provide financial aid for a public responsibility?
   PTAs cannot offer long-term financial support of school programs or personnel, due in part to the annual nature of the PTA budget. In emergencies, and with the approval of its membership, a PTA may provide for the pressing needs of children and youth while working to alert the public to its obligations. On occasion, a PTA may initiate and operate a much needed service for a limited time in order to alert the appropriate public agency to its necessity. As volunteer associations, PTAs should not pay or subsidize the salaries of public employees, either directly or indirectly.

4. What types of advocacy efforts can PTAs pursue?
   Much of the legislation, programs and policies protecting the health, education and well-being of children are the results of PTA efforts. PTAs may propose, support or oppose legislation, programs and policies needed to achieve the PTA Purposes, provided that these efforts qualify as “lobbying” under the Internal Revenue Code. That means that they do not use more than 5 percent of the association’s annual resources. Analyzing and sharing information about legislation and communicating with legislative or other policy-making bodies about decisions that affect the PTA are not lobbying activities. Partisan political activity, defined as participating or intervening in any local, state or federal campaign, as representative of PTA, for an elected political office, is absolutely forbidden. PTAs advocate on behalf of issues, not individuals.

5. Fiscal Year. School Year. Budget Year. Calendar Year. Membership Year. What’s the difference?
   It’s easy to get confused with all of these different “year” ends. Fiscal Year is determined by your by-laws for IRS reporting purposes. School Year runs from the first day of school in August through the last day of school in the spring. New officers officially begin their term at the end of the last day of school in the spring. Obviously, this is different if you are a year round school. Budget Year is determined by when the annual budget is approved, and is in force for twelve months from that date. Budgets should be approved at the first general meeting of the PTA when school begins in the fall. Calendar Year is January through December. The Georgia PTA Membership Year is July 1 to June 30, when all dues are collected and submitted to the state office.

6. Do the fiscal year, budget year, and officer year need to coincide?
   No. Everyone tries to make the fiscal year, audit year, term of office and budget year, all coincide. The truth of the matter is that they all may not be the same. The checkbook is not tied to a fiscal year or officers’ year. The audit doesn't have to coincide with the fiscal year. It coincides with the end of the school year. The treasurer’s term of office ends at the close of the school year, as does the term of the other officers. If officers’ terms of office are for more than one year, the annual audit must still be completed at the end of each school year. At that time the books are closed for audit, the signature cards changed at the bank, and any bills that need to be paid are paid by the new officers under the approved budget. It is important to remember that the bills are the bills of the association, not of a specific set of “officers.”
7. What is corporate sponsorship?
   Sponsorship is simply the donation of money, goods or services by a business to a PTA in return for a public acknowledgement of that donation. For example, a company donates money to the PTA to pay for a Parent Involvement Guide. On the back of the book, the PTA prints the company's name as the sponsor.

8. What is commercial co-venturing?
   In commercial co-venturing, the PTA only receives the donation (usually cash) to the extent the donor's business is patronized and it is usually measured as a percentage of sales. PTAs cannot make a quantitative statement about or endorse a business or product. Active promotion, sale or marketing of the business products or services by a PTA and its members would, in most cases, violate PTA’s noncommercial policy. It could jeopardize the PTA’s status with the IRS.

9. How does sponsorship, which is acceptable and encouraged, differ from commercial co-venturing, which is discouraged?
   In a sponsorship arrangement, the only thing the PTA gives the sponsor in return for the donation (whether it is cash or goods or service) is a public “thank you.” The benefit to the company is the free advertising and the positive relationship with the organization.

10. Where do I find the budget and financial records?
    The President and the incoming treasurer should obtain the budget and financial records from the outgoing treasurer. Review those records with your officers and make note of the things that must be done to start the coming school year.

11. What is a budget?
    The budget is an outline of estimated income and expenses for a 12-month period. It should be based upon the local PTA's plan of work for that 12-month period. The budget does not end at the end of the school year, nor upon the election of new officers, but runs until the next budget is adopted, usually at the first general meeting of the year.

12. Who prepares the budget?
    A budget committee is appointed and it prepares the budget. It is composed of the treasurer (who usually serves as chair), the president (past and present, if possible), and committee chairpersons responsible for sources of funds or revenue, as well as other interested board members (especially those with experience in financial matters).

13. Is attending training and convention a “legitimate” PTA expense?
    YES! Attending training is an appropriate PTA budget expense. Verify that your budget allocates sufficient funds for members to attend these important events (e.g., Convention Leadership Training, State Legislative Conference and PTA Day at the Capitol) during the year.

14. How and when is the budget adopted?
    A new budget is adopted annually at the first general meeting of the school year. The treasurer presents the budget to the board and executive committee for consideration. It must be presented to the PTA membership for approval at the first general meeting of the year. It generally is not necessary to have the budget approved before the end of school in May/June. A majority vote of the members present is required for adoption.

15. How are changes made in the budget?
    Since the budget is only an estimate of the planned expenditures for the year, it may be necessary to amend it during the year. Amendments require a vote of the members at any regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose. To amend something previously adopted requires prior notice and a majority vote, or a two-thirds vote without prior notice.

16. How much money do we need to run our PTA?
    It is the responsibility of your PTA to raise the amount of money needed to meet its proposed budget. The PTA is an educational organization, not a fundraising organization. Choose wisely the fundraising activities that best meet your PTA's needs. Start by identifying what programs and projects in your plans of work need to be funded. Don’t raise money first and then decide how to 17. Is it ever okay for PTAs to pay salaries of school personnel?
No. This is a school system responsibility under all circumstances.

18. Who can audit the books?
Your unit does not have to hire a CPA to do the audit and generally speaking should not have to pay for an audit. It should be performed by an individual auditor, or a committee of no fewer than three people (Bylaws Article VIII). They can be PTA members from another school or someone in the community familiar with bookkeeping. The key is to have an independent review of the books conducted by people who are familiar with proper PTA financial management. Under no circumstances can an auditor be one of the signers on the bank accounts, or related to one of the signers. You may contact your council, district or the state office for further guidance.

19. Can our PTA have a debit card or use online banking?
NO. The use of a debit card and/or online banking does not follow the procedures as outlined in the bylaws and Guides of the Georgia PTA for payments or receipt of funds. All payments are to be made by check with two signatures. These procedures cannot be followed with either debit cards or online payments. And since your bonding insurance is based on your following the proper financial procedures, your bonding insurance would not cover any losses incurred through use of either a debit card or online banking.

20. What do we do with unspent funds when school ends? Do we have to turn them over to the principal?
All funds can only be spent as approved in the budget. If they are not spent, then they should be carried over to the following year’s budget. The officers cannot just decide how to spend or use up funds at the end of the school year. Also, you should never turn PTA funds over to the school.

21. Is there a limit on the amount of funds that can be carried over from year to year?
There is no limitation on amounts carried over from year to year; however, it is recommended that you limit fundraising to levels required for budgeted expenses to avoid substantial carry-over amounts.

22. What does the PTA do for money during the summer?
The budget that is in place for that time period will dictate what is approved and what can be paid. If expenses fall under an approved line item in the budget, they should be paid or reimbursed. If they are not covered by the budget, then they cannot be paid or reimbursed. New officers are responsible for making such decisions during the summer relative to the budget in place at that time. Only new officers may sign checks after the end of the school year.

23. Can the outgoing officers commit how funds will be spent in the next budget year?
No. A new budget is approved every 12 months based on the recommendations of the budget committee. Future boards are not obligated to use funds as designated by the previous administration.

24. Can the principal tell the PTA how to spend the PTA’s funds or what fundraisers to do?
No. Only the PTA membership decides how PTA funds will be raised and spent.

25. With the reduction in the state’s funding for education and local school system budget challenges, shouldn’t PTA offer to fill the gaps … by buying books, desks, equipment and even paying salaries?
No. More now than ever PTAs need to advocate securing adequate funding for education and for all children. PTA is not there to buy the basics, nor create inequities from one school to another.

26. Why should our PTA be incorporated?
By incorporating a PTA legally insulates or protects its officers and volunteers from being personally liable or responsible for a PTA’s debts or obligations. All PTAs are strongly encouraged to incorporate.
27. Does our PTA need insurance, and if so, what kind?
YES. Georgia PTA strongly encourages each PTA to have fidelity bonding insurance to cover all individuals handling funds and PTA assets. General liability coverage is also recommended to protect PTA members in case they are held legally liable for bodily injury or property damage resulting from a covered event (for example, if someone gets hurt at your fall festival and sues). Similarly, directors’ and officers’ insurance provides protection if an officer/director is sued for failure, or alleged failure, to live up to their responsibilities and duties assumed in their PTA position. Property insurance covers fixed assets, inventory, and other property owned by a PTA, such as a storage unit, its fundraiser orders pending delivery, etc. During the summer, Georgia PTA will send information to you about available insurance policies.

28. Whose responsibility is it to file appropriate IRS forms?
According to the local unit PTA bylaws, the active or current treasurer is required to prepare IRS forms. These forms are generally due five months and 15 days after the end of your fiscal year. Check your bylaws for the exact dates of your fiscal year.

29. Can our PTA do raffles or play Bingo?
PTAs interested in conducting a raffle must check with the local school administration to ensure such an activity does not violate any existing policies or rules. The PTA must apply for a license with the sheriff of the county where the PTA is located. The PTA must also verify, with state and local authorities, the number of raffles an association may hold on an annual basis.

PTAs interested in conducting Bingo may do Recreational Bingo, a.k.a. Free Bingo, as many times per year as they wish. Recreational Bingo is defined as a Bingo game for which your PTA does not charge participants to play and does not award cash prizes nor prizes worth more than $15 per game. No license is required.

If your PTA is interested in holding an annual Bingo fundraiser where participants will be charged to play, the PTA may apply for a one time per year Bingo permit through the Georgia Bureau of Investigations (GBI). This permit will only be issued once per school or PTA and only once per calendar year! Your PTA must apply for the permit by letter on school letterhead signed by the principal and PTA president. The permit must be posted in the location where you hold the bingo. The GBI will send you instructions along with your one-time permit. Allow at least two weeks to receive the permit.

Keep in mind the three P’s: Pay – Play – Prizes. If you Pay to Play for Prizes, the GBI considers it gambling and therefore illegal, so be sure that you follow the proper procedures!

For more information, contact Terry Sosebee, GBI - Bingo Unit, 3121 Panthersville Rd., Decatur, GA 30034. Phone: 404-244-2600. Fax: 404-270-8529.

30. How soon may we file our IRS 990N postcard?
The 990N can be filed immediately after the close of your fiscal year and must be filed no later than the fifteenth day of the 5th month, following the close of the fiscal year (e.g. Fiscal year ends June 30th the 990N must be filed by November 15th). COMMITTEE CHAIRPERSONS

Committees are the practical and democratic way of involving the membership in attaining PTA goals. The work and goals of each local unit determine the number and nature of the committees necessary for that unit. All associations need the basic committees, such as parent involvement, programs, budget, membership, legislation, publications/communications, health and wellness, and hospitality. Other committees are determined by the goals and needs of the unit, or as the bylaws prescribe. Many, but not all, of the committees at the local unit level have parallels at the state and national level.

TYPES OF COMMITTEES AND THEIR WORK

A standing committee is formed when the work in a certain area requires continuous service throughout the year or for a longer period of time.

A special committee is formed for a specific purpose. When the work is completed it automatically ceases to exist.

Committees plan and promote the activities of PTA. Each committee has a definite purpose and is subject to the control and direction by PTA.

The role of the local unit is to organize and perform projects and programs for the school and community. Committees should reflect the needs of that individual PTA and thus will vary from unit to unit. However, we highly recommend that the members and chairpersons of the committees reflect the membership of the unit and the breadth of the school community.

QUALIFICATIONS

Committee chairpersons should be knowledgeable, or willing to learn, in the area in which they serve and must be a member of that local unit PTA.

SELECTION

Committee chairpersons are appointed by the Executive Committee (composed of elected officers and the principal of the school or a representative appointed by the principal). The President is an ex-officio member of every committee, except the nominating and audit committees.

DUTIES

- Present a plan of work to the Executive Committee for approval.
- Maintain a procedure book.
- Research and seek information in the content area.
- Attend local, council, district, state and national meetings whenever possible.
- Respond promptly to correspondence or requests and keep accurate files.
- Present reports at general meetings when requested.
- Give records, reports, procedure books and other materials promptly to successors.
- Provide an annual report (summary) based on goals defined for the committee work and achieved; programs, projects and events implemented throughout the year; evaluations of all; and recommendations for the upcoming chairperson and school year.

PROCEDURE BOOK

All committee chairs should have a procedure book, received from the previous chair. If not, establish and maintain a procedure book and ensure that it is passed on to the next committee chair during the Transition Meeting.
Suggestions for Committee Chairpersons:

- Refer to the appropriate sections of this resource, procedure book and plan of work for useful tools to guide all committee work.
- Remember that the president is a member of your committee and should be advised of and asked to attend all meetings.
- Remember only the president has the authority to sign contracts on behalf of the association.
- Work closely with other chairpersons and other committees and, where possible, combine your efforts so that duplication will be avoided and programs and projects will be strengthened by new ideas and manpower.
- Research, initiate, plan, and carry out your committee work for the year.
- Call the president when you have a report for the Executive Committee and make sure you are placed on the agenda for appropriate meetings.
- Emphasize at all times the importance and obligation of attendance to your committee members at special, general and committee meetings.
- Before adding members to your committee, confer with the president.
- Secure approval before undertaking any substantial work.
- Send out flyers, notices, publicity, etc., after getting the consent of the president.
- Remember the Purposes and basic policies that guide PTA activities.
- Spend money only with prior approval and within an approved budget.
- Your attendance at any state, district and council PTA meetings and community meetings pertinent to your chairpersonship and sphere of interest is expected. Inform your committee members; invite them to attend with you. Always send a substitute when you are unable to attend.
- When you have completed your chairpersonship term, pass the procedure book to your successor, along with any suggestions you may have that will be of help in carrying out the duties of the next chairpersonship.
- Train your successor; pass on your Procedure Book.

WHAT IS A PTA “PLAN OF WORK”?

PTA plans of work are one or two page summaries of goals, plans and resources needed by a committee (sample provide further in this section) prepared annually by each committee chair, usually in the summer before school resumes. The president, with some or all of the officers, reviews and approves the proposed plans of each PTA committee. We suggest that a member of the budget committee be part of that review. Once approved, the budget committee works to ensure that adequate financial resources are available (in the approved budget) to support the committee’s work during the year.

A plan of work typically addresses the following topics or areas:

- Goals or purpose of committee or program
- Steps to accomplish goals (include timeline and significant dates)
- Details each committee member’s responsibilities (with time estimates)
- Estimated revenue to be generated and estimated costs or expenses
- Facilities and other resources needed
- Staff involvement (i.e., administrators, teaching and support staff)
- Sponsor/partner participation, and contact information, if applicable
- Evaluation plans/post event analysis
ARTS IN EDUCATION

The Arts are an important part of education. Arts programs promote self-esteem, open the horizons of the creative mind, and enhance scholastic skills. As a result, students’ lives are enriched and their visual and auditory skills strengthened. Students’ abilities in reading, writing and arithmetic are increased. Arts’ programs boost students’ success with technology because information processing in most new technologies is based on graphic and visual understanding. Exposure to the Arts increases sensitivity to the emotions and needs of other human beings. Arts also increase positive self-esteem and affect who we become as adults. Dance, theater, voice, playing an instrument, story telling, visual arts creation, writing and photography – all help a child build confidence and add joy to the learning experience.

Georgia PTA Arts in Education Programs are available to help develop your students’ minds. Encourage your school to participate in these programs: Cultural Arts Programs, National PTA Reflections Program, and National PTA Reflections Theme Search. PTAs also may apply for the National PTA Reflections Grant to supplement Arts funding at their school.

BENEFITS OF ARTS EDUCATION

The Arts contribute to understanding among different peoples, helping students to learn about other cultures by studying their art, music, dance and legends. The Arts enhance learning in other subjects, such as math, science, geography, language and history by reinforcing ideas and expanding concepts taught. Art enhancement has helped children become better learners by helping them analyze, interpret and work hard to complete a goal. Over the years, evidence for the educational value of the Arts has grown steadily. High school students, for example, who study at least one of the Arts – theater, visual arts, dance or music – score about 40 points higher on the verbal and math sections of the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) than other students. Some schools use Arts methods to assess students’ academic performance and determine the level of achievement beyond standard written tests.

ARTS ADVOCACY

As community leaders, PTA members can make a difference in children’s education by encouraging adequate funding for better Arts education. Each child should have opportunities in the Arts, regardless of the school he or she attends. Parents can contact their legislators, boards of education, superintendents and principals to promote Arts education as part of the curriculum.

Parents also can encourage their students’ growth in the Arts. Study and talk about the history of a special work of art – a quilt, a piece of pottery or a painting – enhance their learning experience. One of the best ways to get your child excited about art is to be enthusiastic yourself.

ARTS CHAIRPERSON

The Arts Chairperson should:

a. Improve communication among parents, teachers, students and the community through cultural arts events. Email is a great way to keep parents informed.

b. Plan an Arts activity for a PTA meeting. Use parents, teachers, students and community resources in a variety of ways.

c. Encourage participation in the National PTA “Reflections” Program.

d. Suggest home projects for family fun with arts and crafts.

e. Encourage parents to assist the school with field trips.

f. Sponsor community projects that will help people gain an understanding and appreciation of other lands, people and their cultural arts.
g. Encourage participation in library story-telling hours, music groups or art classes.
h. Write articles for the PTA newspaper and other community publications.
i. Support the various Georgia PTA Arts Programs by making a monetary donation.
j. Confer with the Parent Involvement Chair to ensure the National Standards for Family-School Partnerships are implemented in every Arts program/project/event.

ARTS COMMITTEE

The committee should include parents, administrators, teachers and students. Questionnaires can help provide valuable information to guide the program. Teachers may suggest an area of curriculum that the Arts can enhance, and may suggest the best time of year for certain activities.

Chairperson/Committee Planning

a. Develop a plan of work in writing.
b. The PTA/PTSA Executive Committee must approve the plan of work.
c. Consider the PTA/PTSA budget when planning. A committee budget should be submitted as part of the plan. As the year progresses, check with the Treasurer or Budget Committee to verify the remainder of the plan can be afforded. Encourage donations to support Georgia PTA Arts Programs.
d. Communicate to all parties involved to create a clear understanding of who has each responsibility. Reminders, posters, announcements, bulletin boards and flyers are helpful.
e. Double-check with everyone involved.
f. Thank you notes are appreciated.
g. Take photographs of events for your PTA scrapbook, newsletter, newspapers, bulletin boards, and to include in the Outstanding Local Unit Award Report due to the state office, postmarked on or before the second Friday in March.
h. Notify the press three weeks prior to any event or submit information yourself. Include a summary of the program; the time, location and a map to your school; the name and phone number of the principal and PTA person handling the program.
i. Keep a procedure book with copies of work to pass on to the next chairperson.
j. Your budget needs to include the prices paid for items plus any donated items received with an estimate of their value to give you a true estimate of what it costs to conduct your program.

ARTS PROGRAMS

Many PTA/PTSA plans programs involving several weeks or months of hosting a guest artist for the school (a residency). Some programs feature one school-wide project (e.g., creating a metal sculpture in a garden) or programs for different groups (e.g., puppet making for kindergarten, painting for first grade). The Georgia Council for the Arts (404-685-2787, www.gaarts.org) and Young Audiences of Atlanta (404-733-5293, www.yawac.org) are two organizations that provide matching funds for Arts in Education Residencies.

Performances, historical presentations and Arts in Education (residency) programs can spark a student’s interest and provide a valuable learning experience as well as entertainment. These programs may be some children’s only exposure to live performances.
Guidelines for Visiting Artists

a. Have the program approved by the principal and PTA president. Include all details: times, dates, schedule of classes, etc.

b. Ensure space in the school is reserved.

c. If the program requires student travel, ensure written approval is received from the appropriate school officials. Have a written agreement about buses. Permission slips signed by a parent are a must.

d. Agreements with an artist must be in writing and approved by the President. This should include dates, times, fees, travel arrangements, consequences of cancellation, materials or equipment needed (room set up, tables and microphones), the method and time of payment, and the size of audience and number of performances.

e. Ensure the program is age appropriate.

f. Give map or directions to your school to the visiting artist.

g. Double check with the artist a few days before the program. Make sure your school is still on their schedule. Call.

h. A few days before the program, contact the principal, school personnel involved, and teachers to remind them of the schedule.

i. Check microphone, speakers, and other equipment before the program.

j. Have a member of the PTA/PTSA greet the artist, offer refreshments, provide a tour of the school and introduce them to your school's audience.

k. Send thank you notes to all involved.

You can also find the National PTA Reflections resources online – all of which are available to help further Arts in Education in our schools and keep parents aware of the benefits and programs available in the Arts.

The Reflections Committee oversees the National Reflections Program for the state of Georgia, using guidelines from National and State PTA.
REFLECTIONS

WHAT IS “REFLECTIONS”?

Reflections is a cultural arts program of the National PTA. This Arts program is available to students who attend a school with a PTA/PTSA in good standing as defined in the Basic PTA Information section of this resource.

REFLECTIONS PROGRAM

Students may submit entries in six Arts areas for the Reflections Program. The categories are:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Literature</th>
<th>Visual Arts</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Musical Composition</td>
<td>Dance/Choreography</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Photography</td>
<td>Film/Video Production</td>
</tr>

National PTA does not limit the number of entries a student may submit. A student’s entry must be accompanied by an Official Entry Form. The student’s work is entered by grade level – pre-kindergarten, kindergarten, and grades one (1) through twelve (12) – in each category. Students must be enrolled in a school with a PTA/PTSA in good standing in order to participate in Reflections.

The National PTA Special Artist Division is an option for students with a disability as defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Generally, rules and guidelines within the Special Artists Division are intended to ensure accessibility to the National PTA Reflections Program and are modeled after the guidelines outlined in the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

Regardless of age, students with special needs may enter the National PTA Reflections® Program in the grade division most closely aligned to their functional abilities. Special Artists are now allowed to enter in any of the six categories. These entries will be judged and awarded separately at the state level. Special Artists entries do advance to National PTA.

Home School students must be a PTA member of the Birney Butler unit and may submit entries for any category. These entries are sent directly to the state office no later than the first Friday in December. Home School entries will be judged and awarded separately at the state level, and do not advance to National PTA.

The 2013-2014 Reflections theme is “Believe, Dream, Inspire”

ELIGIBILITY

A student may be eligible to win at the State level and move on to the National level only if their local unit is in good standing. To be in good standing a unit must:

- Pay State and National dues monthly;
- Have approved bylaws on file at the state office; and,
- Submit an annual audit report to the state office by the last business day in September.

LEVELS OF JUDGING

The first level of entry for a student is at their local PTA. Judging is held by the local PTA unit and the winners move to the next level, which is the council. The council’s rules will determine the number of winners per area and grade level at the local PTA. Please note that the local unit must comply with the council rules on number of entries, deadline of entries, and requirements for entry. The council judging is held and two entries for each grade level per arts area (literature, musical composition, photography, visual arts, dance choreography, and film/video production) may be submitted to the state level for judging. ALL COUNCIL ENTRIES MUST BE RECEIVED IN THE STATE OFFICE BY THE FIRST FRIDAY IN DECEMBER.

Please note: Local units must submit entries to a council for judging if they are in an area, which has a council. If a local unit is in an area where there is no council, the local PTA may submit one entry for each grade level per each of the six arts areas to the state by the first Friday in December, for judging. Please notify the State Reflections Chair for further assistance.

AWARDS

Georgia PTA will present a first, second, and third place winner for each grade level in each arts area. Awards are presented at the Georgia PTA Reflections Reception in March.

Participants from Georgia whose entries have advanced to the National PTA level of judging will also be named at the awards ceremony. These national representatives are selected from the first place winners by divisions. The divisions are as follows: Primary (Pre-Kindergarten - Grade 2), Intermediate (Grades 3-5), Middle/Junior (Grades 6-8), and Senior (Grades 9-12). There will be one winner per division for each arts area (literature, musical composition, photography, visual arts, dance choreography, and film/video production) allowing Georgia to submit a total of 24 entries to National PTA.

RULES

Specific Reflections Program Rules are available:

- Online at www.georgiapta.org. The rules are also available in Spanish.
- In the Georgia PTA Reflections Guide (available online at www.georgiapta.org).

IMPORTANT:

a. All works submitted to the state level must include an Official National PTA Entry Form.

b. The Reflections Program Consent Form must accompany the official entry form if a person’s recognizable image or voice is included in the submission.

c. Grade level must be shown. Do not list level as 4-6. This does not allow the work to be judged at the student’s grade level. List the grade level.

d. Title of work and artist statement are required on all submissions.

e. The dimensions of the piece of work must be indicated by Photography and Visual Arts entrants.

f. Visual Arts entrants must also indicate the type of media.

g. Any paper and canvas entries in the Visual Arts category will ONLY be accepted if mounted on a stiff and sturdy material, such as mat board, corrugated cardboard or foam core board. Construction paper and poster board are not acceptable mounting material. Canvas stretched on wood frames will NOT be accepted.

h. Musical Composition, entrants must state the length of playing time of their composition on their entry and DVD/CD and its case. Entries may not exceed five minutes.

i. Dance Choreography entrants must submit videotape or DVD of the performance, not to exceed five minutes.

j. Film/Video Production entrants must be the director, screenwriter and cameraperson; and may appear on the DVD, not to exceed five minutes

k. Any omission in the above areas could leave the entry as a non-winner.

l. DUE DATE – ALL COUNCIL AND NON-COUNCIL REFLECTIONS ENTRIES MUST BE RECEIVED BY GEORGIA PTA BY THE FIRST FRIDAY IN DECEMBER.
HELPFUL HINTS FOR REFLECTIONS CHAIRPERSON

1. Please double-check for student signature, parent signature, grade level, school name, and school address. Verify that the student’s address and telephone number are on the form.

2. Check and recheck the size of the entry. Photography and Visual Arts have size limitations and must be within the limitations. Mount Photography and Visual Arts entries on stiff and sturdy material, such as mat board, corrugated cardboard or foam core board.

3. DO NOT submit mounted works in literature. If a book is submitted, please see that the entry is placed in a manila folder with entry form stapled to the back.

4. Reminder: Plagiarized entries will be disqualified and returned to the student. Use of copyrighted material is prohibited. This includes the use of copyrighted cartoon characters or other such material in visual arts or photography entries. No entries in any Arts area can borrow from copyrighted material.

5. Confirm that the length of playing time for musical compositions, dance choreography, and film/video production together with the student’s name, grade division, state and year are marked on both the CD/DVD and its case.

6. Shrink-wrap is encouraged for entries sent to the state for judging. This process is highly recommended for Photography and Visual Arts. DO NOT use food plastic wrap.

7. Please take photos of all Visual Arts and Photography entries, and copies of all Literature, Musical Composition, Dance Choreography and Film/Video entries forwarded to the next level of judging. Keep the copies for your records.

8. Shrink wrap Photography and Visual Arts entries and then place the completed Official Entry Form in a plastic sheet protector and firmly attach to the back of the entry on top of the shrink-wrap. Tape the plastic sheet protector on three sides, leaving the top open for easy access for the judging process.

9. Local Units and Councils must complete the appropriate Participation Form (Form A) and the Award Recipients Log (Form B). Please TYPE entries on Form B. These forms must accompany the entries to each level of judging. The local unit initiates the forms, forwards them to the Council with the winners, and the Council then forwards their forms to the State with its winners. Please complete only the section appropriate for your level. Keep a copy of your Form A and Form B. Council Chairs: these forms MUST accompany entries sent to State.
SUGGESTIONS FOR A SUCCESSFUL REFLECTIONS PROGRAM

a. Establish entry deadline dates and the general program plan before school starts. In areas where there is a council, find out the council deadline and be certain to set your local school entry date at least one month prior to the council date. This allows time for judging.

b. Communication is the key to a successful program. At the beginning of the school year, send home a simple flyer to students and parents announcing the theme, the six categories, the entry deadline, and the location where students may obtain a copy of the rules. It is better to have interested students pick up a complete set of rules than to summarize the rules, as sometimes important details are eliminated. Posters should include entry deadline dates and other basic information.

c. Make a Reflections folder for teachers, with three complete sets of rules and 10 entry forms. Establish a location where more copies can be obtained. The number of teachers having folders depends on your school. All teachers may have folders, or in some schools, only music and art teachers have them.

d. Teacher support is important to success – ask to attend a teacher meeting before school starts to explain the program. Recognize teachers who support the program with a special memento.

e. Study the rules carefully and go over them with the students and teachers. This may be done on a class-to-class basis, over closed circuit TV or at a meeting with interested students. Stress the types of acceptable materials and the size limits.

f. Entries can be prepared in class, at home, or at special times. Some schools have Reflections week, where all students who wish to enter are given special time to prepare entries. Some PTAs purchase supplies and have Saturday or afternoon Reflections days for making entries.

g. Seek qualified judges outside your local school. Be certain they understand your time constraints for judging, the rules, and that the program is focused on a theme. Do not use parents as judges.

h. Create excitement with posters, signs at the bus stop, announcements, countdown to deadline date, reminders in the cafeteria, buttons or pins for students who enter, and recognition for teachers who promote the program.

i. Determine the type of awards program, date, and prizes given. Merchants may donate prizes. The National PTA catalog has posters, awards and items that would make good prizes.

j. Display entries at school.

k. Acknowledge all children who enter and make them all feel like winners.

l. Submit press releases to the media or publish names of winners in the PTA or school newsletter and announce their names in school.

m. Mail awards program invitations to the student’s home. Invite community and school leaders.

n. At the awards program, display visual art and photography entries, play a CD of the student’s music as he or she accepts his or her music award and have the student read his or her literature entry out loud if time permits.

o. Plan another special activity in conjunction with Reflections awards program: Arts Festival, Talent Show or Open House.

p. Confer with the Parent Involvement Chair to ensure the National Standards for Family-School Partnerships are implemented throughout the Reflections Program.
AUDIT COMMITTEE

A PTA audit is a review of the financial transactions to be sure that receipts have been properly accounted for and expenditures made as authorized in the budget, as approved by the general membership, and in conformity with PTA bylaws and standing rules. An audit must be completed at the end of each school year. At least two weeks before the end of school, the board of directors appoints an auditor or audit committee. The audit committee is a special committee. Once the audit is completed and the results given to the executive committee, the work of the auditor or auditing committee is completed. The audit committee must review all accounts of the PTA.

Who May Conduct the Audit?

Individuals selected to serve on the audit committee should have accounting or financial background and an unbiased, independent perspective of the books. An auditor or auditing committee member shall not be related to any signee on the checking account by marriage or any other relationship. Per the bylaws, the PTA president, treasurer or any signee may not be a member of the audit committee. Local units are not required to pay an accountant to complete the PTA audit but may do so.

When Is an Audit Performed?

On an annual basis at the end of each school year; upon resignation of the treasurer; when any authorized check signer is added or deleted on any bank account; at any time deemed necessary; and when missing funds are suspected.

How to Conduct the Audit

a. Begin the audit with the first transaction posted after the last audit. Make sure the beginning balance agrees with the Balance on Hand per the last audit report.

b. Make sure that each check written has proper substantiation, i.e. vendor invoice or check request.

c. Ascertain the date of fundraisers and verify deposits are made in a timely manner. Check to see that cash was counted by two people.

d. Check all ledger entries back to the canceled checks and validated deposit tickets. Verify that income and expenses are allocated to the proper budget category and are within the approved budget.

e. Verify that bank reconciliations are done monthly and check their accuracy.

f. Check the accuracy of the math in the checkbook and ledgers if a manual system was used.

g. Verify that financial reports presented to the membership, board of directors and executive committee are accurate representations of the transactions recorded in the books.

h. Check the accuracy of the annual report and verify that it will be retained as a part of the permanent file.

i. Verify that checks always have two signatures and spot check the endorsements.

j. Watch for checks with multiple handwriting (other than one of the signatures) or different inks. This would be an indication of blank checks being released.

k. Checks should never be made payable to “Cash.” Startup funds should be made payable to the person responsible for the cash until it is refunded.

l. Make sure that the state and national portion of dues are not recorded as income to the unit, but kept separate or recorded as a liability. Verify that the amount sent to state office agrees to the membership roster and is submitted on a monthly basis to the state office.

m. Make sure the appropriate 990 was filed accurately and on time to the IRS.
n. Make sure that money collected for a designated purpose was spent only for that purpose.
o. Check the minutes of the general, board of directors, and executive committee meetings to verify the following:
   • The budget and all amendments were adopted by the general membership.
   • The general membership approved all fund-raisers, whether through approval of the budget that includes them or through a special vote if added after the adoption of the budget.
   • Financial reports were presented at all general, board of directors, and executive committee meetings for all accounts.
   • Verify the executive committee approved all plans of work.
   • Verify a quorum was present at all executive, board of directors and general meetings.
p. After the treasurer has corrected any errors and the committee is satisfied that the financial records are correct, draw a red line across the ledger and checkbook where the audit concludes. Write “Examined and found correct” or “Examined and corrected” and have all audit committee members sign and date the entry.

In the event a complete audit cannot be done due to the inadequacy or unavailability of the records, this finding must be reported to the membership. Steps to correct the situation should be recommended for adoption by the membership. In the event the validity of the audit report is questioned, the state PTA can be contacted for assistance.

Inaccuracies found during the audit, including suggestions for future record keeping and recommendations for follow-up contact should be recorded on the PTA Audit/Financial Review Form, which is included in this section.

IMPORTANT: Any investigation by the auditor(s) must be kept confidential.

Audit Report

A member of the audit committee or auditor should make a report to the executive committee. The executive committee must make a report to the general membership at the first meeting held after the conclusion of the audit. The association should formally adopt the report at that time. “I move that the Audit Report be adopted.” A vote is taken and the action recorded by the secretary in the minutes. Any PTA member may make a motion to adopt the audit. A copy of the annual financial report should be attached to the audit report and maintained permanently by the treasurer and placed in the minutes.

In the event a complete audit cannot be done due to the inadequacy or unavailability of the records this must be reported to the membership. Steps to correct the situation should be recommended for adoption by the membership. In the event the validity of the audit report is questioned, the state PTA can be contacted for assistance.

Inaccuracies found during the audit, including suggestions for future record keeping and recommendations for follow-up contact should be recorded on the PTA Audit/Financial Review Form, which is included in this section.
BYLAWS COMMITTEE

Each local PTA or PTSA is a self-governing unit, with its structure and specific regulations prescribed in bylaws that the members have adopted. The bylaws of the unit supersede any general parliamentary rule with which they conflict. Bylaws may not be suspended even by unanimous vote.

The Bylaws Chairperson Should:

- Be informed regarding local, state and National PTA bylaws.
- Distribute copies of the bylaws to all board members and other PTA members upon request.
- File one copy of the bylaws with the President, one with the principal, and the approved copy in the secretary’s permanent minutes book for safekeeping and quick reference.
- Review the local unit bylaws every year and note any automatic changes that may have occurred in state and national bylaws. Amendments to local unit bylaws require: (1) 30 days notice to the membership of the specified change, and (2) approval by a 2/3 vote of the members at a general meeting. Submit one original Bylaws Amendment form for approval. Bylaws become effective upon receipt of an approved stamped copy from Georgia PTA.
- Study and discuss bylaws at board meetings or in study groups. Familiarize members with their specific duties as outlined in the bylaws. A copy of the bylaws should be a part of the procedure book for each officer and committee chairperson.
- Any violation of the bylaws should be brought to the attention of the board of directors immediately.

ARTICLES

Since local PTAs are organized and chartered by Georgia PTA and are units of National PTA, certain articles are included in every local association’s bylaws. These articles include Name, Articles of Organization, Purpose, Basic Policies, Relationship with National and Georgia PTA, Members and Dues, Officers and Their Election, Duties of Officers, Meetings, Board of Directors, Standing and Special Committees, Council Membership, Fiscal Year, Parliamentary Authority and Amendments. Also, certain sections within articles are included in all local associations’ bylaws.

Refer to the Georgia PTA website, www.georgiapta.org, to review the Georgia PTA bylaws.

APPROVAL OF BYLAWS

Once a local unit has been organized and voted on bylaws, the District Director or State representative will take one (1) signed copy each of the bylaws and bylaws worksheet to the state office to be approved by the Georgia PTA Bylaws Chairperson. A copy will be returned to the local unit for their permanent files. It is also important to give a copy to all officers and board members, as well as have a permanent copy on record for all members to read. It is highly recommended that each board member become familiar with the bylaws document and refer to them regularly.

AMENDING THE BYLAWS

When a change to the bylaws is desired, members should follow the procedure outlined in the bylaws for making amendments. Refer to Article XVIII: Amendments, Section 1.

Bylaws may be amended at any regular general membership meeting by a two-thirds vote of those present and voting, a quorum being present and notice of the proposed amendments has been provided to the membership thirty (30) days prior to the meeting. The amendment becomes effective upon receipt of approval from Georgia PTA.
When giving notice that an amendment will be proposed, you should word the notice formally: For example: To “Amend Article V, Section 7 Line 128 Dues, by striking out $5.00 and inserting $6.00.” Include a brief explanation as to the reason for the proposed change.

Each amendment to the bylaws needs to be submitted to the state office on a separate form. Send one copy of each amendment that you want to be approved to the state office. Upon approval, the original will be attached to the bylaws at the state office and a full new set of bylaws will be returned to the local unit.

FAQS: BYLAWS

What do we do if our president resigns?
Fill the vacancy according to your local unit bylaws, Article VI, Section 7.

What's the difference between an amendment and a revision?
Amendments are changes made to bylaws. A revision is the substitution of an entirely new set of bylaws. A revision is more complicated because your old bylaws are opened up for changes as well as the new revised bylaws. A vote has to be taken on which set of bylaws the unit wishes to adopt. Amendments are much easier to deal with even if there are a significant number of them.

How often does our local unit need to send in our bylaws?
Local units operate under bylaws that have been approved by Georgia PTA. Mandatory amendments adopted by the National or Georgia PTAs are automatically part of your local unit's bylaws. If your local unit makes a change at the local level, your bylaws must be submitted to Georgia PTA for approval.

If a quorum was not present at a general meeting and we voted on officers, is that a legal election?
No. If a quorum is not present, then no business is to be conducted. If the presiding officer ignores the fact, any member should call attention to the lack of a quorum before any business or elections take place. If a quorum is not present at any meeting required in the bylaws such as election of nominating committee or officers, you must fix the time for an adjourned meeting. An adjourned meeting may be held any time prior to the next regular meeting.

CHARACTER EDUCATION

The Character Education Committee’s purpose is to support the curriculum implemented to teach character education and inspire civic values. The core focus is to bridge the gap between home, school and community.

POSITION STATEMENT

National PTA believes that parents are the first and most important moral educators of their children. However, we recognize the vital role public schools have in teaching character education and inspiring civic virtue. Parents should work with their community to identify the core moral and civic virtues to be taught, and work with their public schools to develop education programs.

Public schools provide the common experience that bridges ethnic, cultural and religious differences to ensure a democratic society. Recognizing this role of the public schools, National PTA has for decades encouraged schools to provide education for citizenship and urged communities to work together in developing character education programs. National PTA has long encouraged its state and local units to develop and promote programs to strengthen home and family life and to provide children and youth with opportunities to grow in good will and moral character.

Building on this past commitment, National PTA defines character education as a long term, comprehensive process to help young people develop core ethics such as fairness, honesty, compassion, personal responsibility and respect. Character education also includes teaching civic principles, which can be defined as core components of democracy such as the guarantee of inalienable rights and commitment to civil debate.

National PTA urges its constituents to take a leadership role in assuring that public schools develop strong character education programs in cooperation with parents and community members. Coming together as communities to define and develop such programs is essential to the well-being of our children and youth and to the preservation of public schools.

PROGRAMS FOR CHARACTER EDUCATION SHOULD INCLUDE:

- Comprehensive definition of “Character” which includes thinking, feeling, and behaviors.
- Promotes core ethical values as the basis of good character.
- Effective character education includes a meaningful and challenging academic curriculum that respects all learners and helps them succeed.
- Integration of the school staff as a learning and moral community in which all share responsibility for character education and attempt to adhere to the same core values that guide the education of students.
COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Community outreach is PTA’s commitment to include the entire community in all phases of PTA programs and activities. It is of such importance that it must be given top priority when planning PTA activities. A concerted effort must be made to involve every member of the community in PTA including but not limited to parents, step-parents, foster parents, grandparents, students, teachers, school staff, school administrators, law enforcement officers, governmental services and agencies and businesses. Everyone needs to be included.

PROGRAMS

Develop a school wide community outreach plan that responds to needs of your community as per a Community Outreach Survey. Activities may include: Holiday collections for needy families or area food banks, clothing drives, beautification projects for community centers, family adoption for needy families in school community, visitation to area retirement homes or hospitals, grandparent adoption days which encourage elders in the community to volunteer in the school, paper and recycling drives, local cultural fairs to promote education on different cultures, welcome packets for parents and students new to the school, building homes in the community, etc.
DIVERSITY

GEORGIA PTA AND DIVERSITY
Georgia PTA recognizes the growth and changes of the families and the students of Georgia while working to preserve the positive traditions of our state.

GEORGIA PTA’S GOALS TOWARD DIVERSITY
The Georgia PTA’s Board of Directors has established a Board level committee for Diversity. The goal of Georgia PTA and this committee is to address the challenges of Georgia’s ever-changing students, schools and communities.

Our inclusion policy addresses the needs of Georgia’s students regardless of ethnic origin, language, economic status, disability, political philosophy, family structure or geographic location. Utilizing our Diversity Plan and Mission statement helps create a greater opportunity to achieve academic success in our schools.

CULTURAL COMPETENCY
Cultural Competency is best described as culture awareness and the ability to build relationships across cultural groups. Taken from the National PTA e-learning course on Cultural Competency, it is defined as “Recognizing differences amongst individuals and responding to those differences positively and being able to interact effectively in a variety of cultural environments.” (The Education Alliance at Brown University, Leading with Diversity)

RESOURCES
Georgia PTA will work to help provide district, council and local units with the basic resources to reach the goal of inclusion for Georgia’s diverse educational community. We will work to provide on our website resources that your PTA unit can use to assist you and your community. We will also work to provide in the future workshops and/or publications that can help your PTA unit to meet the needs of diversity in your community. In our movement to meet these goals, Georgia PTA will need to listen to your suggestions as well.

Whenever your PTA is facilitating an initiative to address diversity in your community, please e-mail us your information to gapta@bellsouth.net so we can share your initiative with our Georgia community.
EDUCATION ENRICHMENT

The goal of this committee is to develop and implement programs that support the academic achievement of K-12 students. Because research shows that parent involvement increases student achievement, the most effective programs are built around the National Standards for Family-School Partnerships. See the Family Engagement section for more information on the national standards.

PROGRAM AREAS:

Education Enrichment covers a wide variety of content areas, including:

- Reading
- English/Language Arts
- Math
- Science
- Social Studies, including Geography, History, Economics, and Personal Financial Literacy
- Character Education
- Study Skills
- Education/Career Planning
- Out-of-School Time Programs, including After School and Summer Learning Programming

Because of the many diverse program areas, it is highly recommended that local unit Education Enrichment programming is shared by multiple committees. For example, an elementary school local unit may have separate committees and volunteers supporting different aspects of reading enrichment:

- Book Fair: The goal of this committee is to organize and staff an on-site, weeklong book fair to encourage and excite students and families to read. Proceeds typically support the purchase of new books for the school.

- Afterschool Book Club: The goal of this committee is to offer students the opportunity to participate in an adult-led afterschool book club, such as the program offered by the Great Books Foundation.

- Media Center Volunteers: The goal of this committee is to support school staff in the media center, freeing them up for working with students on reading (e.g., reading to classes, research lessons).

- Teacher Literacy Resource Center: The goal of this committee is to organize and maintain the reading resource center for classroom books used by teachers.

- Parent Education: The goal of this committee is to support parenting skills through a variety of ways, such as workshops/seminars, newsletter/web site articles and a parent resource center in school.

- Literacy Committee: The goal of this committee is to encourage student and family reading at home. For example, the committee may provide incentives for students to set and achieve reading goals for Accelerated Reading, or promote specific books with in-class readers or favorite book reviews by students and teachers printed in the newsletters.

- Summer Enrichment: The goal of this committee is to promote reading, writing and math skills over the summer break. The reading portion of this program may include an incentive or rewards program for keeping a reading log, as well as advertising local library reading programs.

When developing education enrichment programs for curriculum areas, especially content areas such as Social Studies and Science, it is highly recommended that Committee Chairs work with school staff to ensure that required state curriculum standards are not only being supported, but that these programs help students exceed and excel in these content areas. Collaborate with other committees and schools whenever possible to share the workload! Visit the Georgia PTA website for ideas and information on each program area.
ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION

Environmental Education (EE) is an active process that increases knowledge, skills, abilities and awareness, resulting in understanding, commitment, informed decisions and constructive action to ensure stewardship of the earth’s environment. Hands-on experiences are the best ways for students to build understanding of the complex world around them. These experiences can best be initiated through citizen science, service-learning and outdoor classroom projects.

Students, who experience learning in outdoor situations and connect with nature, reap benefits that can last a lifetime. Today students spend a great deal of time inside of a building looking at a screen of some kind. They can see a tree but do not know its bark, its textures, etc. Many students today have no idea of the source of water in their community. Their usual answer is “the faucet.” They have lost their connection to the “river.” It is easier to pollute something with which we have no connection.

Programs: Some of the programs that could be initiated by the EE Committee include Science Nights such as the Our Shared Forests project, education enrichment in the areas of air, water, school grounds/outdoor classrooms, energy, gardening/greenhouse growing projects, Adopt-A-Stream/Road, school-wide or community-wide waste management/recycling, chemicals and IPM (integrated pest management) as described in Georgia Green & Healthy School.

Here is what you can do to bring Environmental Education to the school:

- Enrich curriculum with Environmental Education though field trips, environmental speakers, special PTA environmental education projects, artists or artists in residence.
- Working with your media center librarian, ensure the center is stocked with adequate and current environmental education resources such as field guides for plant, tree, insect, pond life, and bird identification. There are also many engaging fiction books to stimulate students’ understanding and appreciation of the natural world.
- Sponsor school celebrations for Earth Day (April 22) and other Environmental days such as Georgia Arbor Day (third Friday in February) and America Recycles Day (November 15). Activities for all grade levels can include entertainment, crafts, poster contests, speakers, outdoor and classroom activities.
- Encourage students to participate in River of Words, Art and Poetry Program on Watersheds, or other program encouraging interdisciplinary curriculum enhancements.
- Support students in forming an Environmental Club and participate in school and community projects such as campus clean-up day, Adopt-a-Road or Adopt-a-Stream.
- Develop a school Outdoor Learning Center/Classroom, Wildlife Sanctuary, or National Wildlife Federation Schoolyard Habitat for certification.
- Encourage Teachers to attend outdoor learning workshops and environmental staff development classes such as Project Wild, Project WET, and Project Learning Tree. Many trainers would be happy to set up a special workshop for your school’s staff and PTA volunteers.
- Join local environmental networking organizations such as the Environmental Education Alliance and Evergreen Schools. Attend the Outdoor Classroom Symposium and PTA Leadership training.
- Recruit volunteer “Earth Parents” to support environmental projects such as classroom recycling and gardening.
- Investigate the many grant opportunities to fund your school environmental education projects. In coordination with your school administration, you may apply for and manage grants for recycling programs, outdoor classrooms, gardens, etc.
HEALTH/WELLNESS EDUCATION

Health is a state of physical, emotional, and mental wellbeing often defined as “wellness.” This term helps define one’s thinking about health in terms of decision-making and assuming responsibility for what is best for the individual. Health includes the following: Physical Health, Mental Health, School Health, Nutrition and AIDS Education.

Examples of Health Committee functions are:

1. Educate parents and community on the health needs of children and how to meet those needs. Promote and provide essential materials and information concerning health issues and observances set forth by Georgia PTA and National PTA. Whenever possible please try to obtain health materials in Spanish as well. Most organizations provide their material in both English and Spanish.

2. Implement programs focusing on the promotion of healthy eating habits and increasing physical activity.

3. Use health professionals for PTA meetings to promote comprehensive school health. Work with your local police/fire department and emergency management agencies. They offer countless programs from fire safety to CPR and first aid to drug education.

4. Put articles in all publications.

5. Encourage a comprehensive K-12 health education program instead of zeroing in on crisis situations. Meet with the school board and request new programs. Have suggestions ready for presentations. A coordinated school program consists of eight components: healthful school environment; health services; health education; physical education; counseling, psychological, and social services; nutrition services, family and community involvement; and health promotion for staff.

6. Recognize outstanding school nurses by nominating them for Georgia PTA’s Outstanding School Nurse Award. The application is included in the Special Awards, Grants and Program section of this resource.

7. Work with and/or support the Physical Education Teacher to provide *Fitness Assessments for every student in school.

*Fitness Assessment: The Georgia Student Health and Physical Education (SHAPE) Act was passed in the 2009 Georgia legislative session and is now Official Code of Georgia 20-2-777. Beginning in the 2011-2012 school year, the law requires each local school district to conduct an annual fitness assessment program for all students in grades 1-12 enrolled in Georgia public school physical education classes taught by certified physical education teachers. SAFETY

The PTA’s Role in School Bus Stop Student Safety – Evading Tragedy at Your School

Numerous studies have revealed that there is no safer way to transport a child than on a school bus. The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration has stated:

American students are nearly eight times safer riding in a school bus than with their own parents and guardians in cars. The fatality rate for school buses is only 0.2 fatalities per 100 million vehicle miles traveled (VMT) compared to 1.5 fatalities per 100 million VMT for cars.

Georgia’s school buses move over 1,000,000 students each morning and again each afternoon as they travel the equivalent of more than 30 trips around the earth daily. Although fatal crashes involving Georgia school bus occupants are extremely rare events, student fatalities and serious injuries continue to occur at Georgia school bus stops, caused by a variety of circumstances and errors on the part of the student, the school bus driver and the passing motorist.

While there are on-going efforts to focus on school bus stop public awareness and school bus driver training, recent national and Georgia statistics show the necessity for students to be trained on the proper procedures for loading and unloading their school bus. As a result, the Georgia State Department of Education (GaDOE) has developed and distributed School Bus Safety Training Curriculum for grades K-12 which is included in the GaDOE Health and Safety Curriculum and covers the following:

- Safety procedures while waiting at school bus stops;
- Recognition of the danger zones around the school bus;
- Safety procedures for loading and unloading the school bus;
- Safety procedures for crossing the road to and from the school bus and school bus stop;
- Safety procedures for unloading and loading the school bus at school;
- Safe school bus riding practices; and
- Emergency school bus evacuation procedures.

Student safety training is the cornerstone of providing a safety net that protects students at their school bus stops. The PTA parent leader at the local school level can play an important role in . . .

1. Recognizing school bus stop student safe behaviors that may have been absent in past Georgia student fatalities and serious injuries. The Georgia Handbook - Pupil Transportation Safety and Instruction Manual found at the GaDOE website provides instructional detail on these essential high priority safe behaviors that must be taught to ensure student safety.

2. Explaining where to find resources for available school bus safety training. Resources found at the GaDOE Pupil Transportation web site are targeted to focus on the safe student behaviors required to reverse the current trend of Georgia school bus stop fatalities and injuries. This site should be the primary or sole source for instructional content. http://www.gadoe.org/Finance-and-Business-Operations/Pupil-Transportation/Pages/School-Bus-Safety.aspx

If PTA parent leaders have questions or need clarification regarding resources, they should contact Steve Monroe, GaDOE Pupil Transportation Consultant at smonroe@doe.k12.ga.us or 678-492-0819.

3. Instructing parents on essential safe student behaviors that they should require of student riders at their school bus stop. If students are to execute safe behaviors at the school bus stop, it is essential that parents know what to look for and what to teach, reinforce and enforce. Use of the following GaDOE School Bus Safety Materials is recommended.
• Georgia Handbook - Pupil Transportation Safety and Instruction Manual (for parent on-line access)

• Print ready instructional handouts on pages 10-14 in the Georgia Handbook - Pupil Transportation Safety and Instruction Manual. These handouts cover essential safe student behaviors that, when missing, have historically resulted in severe student injury or student death in Georgia. These are essential high priority safe behaviors that must be taught and fully developed in the classroom and in the home to ensure student safety. (for duplication and distribution to the home)

• Grade appropriate student curriculum (Power Points w/narratives, videos, etc. for parent training in meetings, workshops, publications, etc.)

4. Analyzing how to engage various members of the school community in keeping students safe at school bus stops. PTA parent leaders are connected in the school community and in a position to identify and engage available school community instructional resources (puppet shows, skits, local school news announcements, mentoring by older students, school produced public service announcements, newsletters, etc.).

5. Facilitating collaboration among partners within the school community on the delivery of school bus safety student training. This training involves (at a minimum) school system central office and local school administrators, teachers, students, parents and school bus drivers. PTA parent leadership is in a position to help facilitate (if necessary) that these partners are all aligned and working together in their effort.

6. Evaluating the local school’s on-going student training program for school bus safety. Are school administrators embracing and supporting the training? Are they holding students accountable if reported for unsafe behaviors? Are responsible staff members actually delivering the training? Are parents informed on required student safe behaviors? Are they supportive of the school community’s effort to change unsafe behaviors? Are school bus drivers providing the follow-up training required to protect students (school bus drivers are receiving training through the local school system Pupil Transportation Department and from the GaDOE Pupil Transportation Division)? Etc.

What is currently happening in your local school community in the teaching of high priority student safe behaviors required when at the bus stop, when near the school bus, when loading and unloading and when riding the school bus? As a PTA parent leader, you can play a key role in protecting YOUR school’s students and reversing the current heartbreaking trend of tragic student fatalities and injuries in Georgia.
HOSPITALITY

The hospitality chairperson is the official host of the PTA unit and, with a committee, has the responsibility of establishing a friendly, comfortable atmosphere at PTA meetings and events. The hospitality committee helps to create a sense of belonging that invites members to become involved in PTA activities. The hospitality chairperson should work with the committees who plan programs or events, and vice versa.

Hospitality practices should be reflective of the various cultures in the school and community (social conventions, programs, refreshments, decorations, etc.).

RECOMMENDED ACTIONS

Meet or consult with other appropriate programs chairperson to secure dates of PTA meetings and other planned events. Hold planning meeting with hospitality committee members and invite the president to this and all committee meetings. It is also a good idea to include room representatives at an initial planning meeting to plan for additional for school wide dates, celebrations, etc.

Determine a budget for the year and request this money prior to adoption of the annual member PTA funds and projects.

Report at each board meeting on hospitality plans for upcoming PTA events and coordinate arrangements with other chairperson’s plans, again paying close attention to the Hospitality budget.

DEVELOP A CLEAR PLAN FOR ALL HOSPITALITY EVENTS

- Determine who will be in charge of organizing all food, ice, paper product needs, etc., so that items needed are always present at the event.
- A courtesy call to those in charge prior to the event can save embarrassment and assure a successful event. Establish this policy from the beginning of the school year.
- Clarify who will be responsible for making reservations for meeting places and book well in advance.
- Prepare name cards, registration sheets, and any decorations to be used at events.
- Obtain names of special guests from president or program chairperson and carry out any special arrangements that have been planned for them.
- Check physical setting: number of chairs for audience, lectern, microphone, water and glasses, room temperature, table and chairs for presiding officer and others, seating for program participants, flags and standards, blackboard, etc.
- Be sure adequate food, equipment and supplies are available.
- Develop a clean-up plan prior to every event.
LATINO/HISPANIC

Georgia PTA Latino/Hispanic Committee will be the advocacy voice for Latino families and the Latino community. Parent Involvement is an American concept for that reason; the majority of Latino families recently arrived to the United States are not familiar with this educational expectation. The committee’s purpose is two-fold: to inform PTA groups of Latino’s culture and educational beliefs and to familiarize Latino families with the purpose of parent education, family engagement and parental involvement procedures. Latino parents, like American parents, are very concerned and interested in helping their children succeed in school, they realize this is the key to become productive members of American society. But first, they must become familiar with the educational school system and its many policies and procedures. The goal of this committee will be to facilitate Latino parents’ understanding of the important role they play in their child's education and that everything they do to promote their child's learning is of value.

The Latino/Hispanic Committee will collaborate with PTA governing bodies, experienced members and all stakeholders to develop an action plan for the creation and implementation of a thriving, sustainable membership of Latino families.

The Latino/Hispanic Committee Will Address:
- Creation of a committee of Latino parents, educators and professionals to advance the committee goals
- Establish a communication pipeline between Georgia PTA and the Latino community and families
- Promote Georgia PTA to the Latino community via the media, newsletters and conferences
- Collaborate with Latino agencies to create awareness of the benefits of PTA membership
- Educate Latino parents about the benefits of volunteering in their child’s educational experience
- Recruit Latino parents for membership and leadership positions within Georgia PTA LEGISLATION & ADVOCACY

PTA AND ADVOCACY

Since 1897, PTA has worked to improve the lives of children and their families. For more than 100 years, PTA volunteers have used their time, energy, experience and knowledge to bring about changes in laws, policies and programs for the benefit of children. PTA is a nonprofit, noncommercial, nonsectarian and nonpartisan association whose members can and should speak out on behalf of children’s rights.

The mission of PTA is to be “A powerful voice for all children,” “A relevant resource for families and communities,” and “A strong advocate for the education and well-being of every child.”

What Is Advocacy?

Advocacy can be broken down into basic parts: the Advocate, the Issue, the Act and the Decision-maker.

- Anyone who speaks for another is an advocate. PTA members are advocates for children and their parents.

- PTA members advocate on a wide variety of child-related issues: education, health, nutrition, safety, juvenile protection, welfare reform, parent and family life, and drug abuse prevention, to name a few.

- Advocacy is simply communicating about an issue for which PTA has adopted a position by speaking, writing, phoning, faxing or emailing. The purpose of the communication can be to inform, educate, persuade or increase the level of awareness about the issue.

- The decision-maker is any individual or body that has the power to address the issue or solve the problem. Decision-makers include elected and appointed officials, legislative bodies, school boards, county commissioners and judges.

Every PTA member can be an effective advocate. The process is always the same: identify, research and understand the issue; identify, research and understand the decision-maker; and develop and communicate the message. The process is not always easy, and dedication and perseverance are usually required. Sometimes success is achieved quickly, sometimes slowly, and many times, we are there to stop poor or bad legislation from happening.

Legislative activity is a specific type of advocacy. In general, the goal of legislative activity is to introduce, amend, repeal, enact or defeat a particular piece of legislation. By engaging in legislative activities, the legislative chairperson promotes the mission of PTA to be “a strong advocate for the education and well-being of every child.”

We are concerned with the laws, policies, and conditions that affect children and their families, whether at the local, state, or federal level. That is our role as advocates.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE LEGISLATION CHAIRPERSON

Keep informed about issues:

a. Capitol Watch on Georgia PTA’s web site, www.georgiapta.org, is the most comprehensive site for legislative information. State legislative bills that affect our children and our analysis of each can be found in the News Page Overview section. Not only does this site allow you to look up the legislators that represent you, it also provides all contact information and an email link to allow easy communication. Register as a “Grassroots” member and take action when Georgia PTA sends Action Alerts and asks for your advocacy help.

b. Read Georgia PTA’s Voice newsletter and e-Voice electronic newsletter. You can access this information and sign up to receive it automatically via e-mail on the PTA website, www.georgiapta.org.
c. For information on national and federal issues go to the National PTA legislative website at www.pta.org and click on the Take Action button. To learn about federal issues, click on PTA Takes Action: Federal Policy Update. To join the PTA Takes Action Network click on the button with that title and input your contact information. You will receive a monthly legislative e-newsletter, which reports on current federal issues that affect our children, families and public education. You will also be connected to the NPTA Federal Action Alerts. Because most Action Alerts are time-sensitive, they are issued by e-mail and fax only. You can respond by making a phone call, or you can personalize a sample letter issued by NPTA and mail, fax, or e-mail it directly to your Senator and Congressman. Also on the site is information about PTA’s Public Policy Agenda and policy issue cards, which provide detailed information on federal issues.

d. Attend legislative and advocacy workshops offered by Georgia and National PTA, including Convention Leadership Training (CLT), Advocacy Conference in the fall, and PTA Day at the Capitol in February, National Legislative Conference, National Convention, and other PTA training offered throughout the year. Make sure you encourage other PTA members to attend as well.

e. Respond to legislative alerts by calling, emailing or writing YOUR legislator to ask them for their support on the issue. When you are called to action, do not leave it for someone else to do. Just pick up the phone and call or email your elected officials regularly. You will develop a relationship that will be very valuable to them, your children, and your school. Remember: YOU are educating your elected official about issues that affect your children, your family and your community schools.

f. Educate your local unit membership:
   - Report on local, state and national issues at PTA meetings.
   - Forward legislative action alerts to your membership and urge action.
   - Write articles on the issues for your PTA newsletter.
   - Provide members with the names and contact information of legislators and school board members.
   - Encourage and educate PTA members to be effective advocates for children and parents by conducting legislative forums, town hall meetings and candidate forums.
   - Promote voter registration and voting.
   - Our Children, National PTA’s monthly magazine, is full of wonderful information and a yearly subscription is a must.
   - For information on local education issues, attend local school board meetings and access information from your school district’s website. For state updates, check the Georgia Department of Education website at www.doe.k12.ga.us.

g. Advocate for children and youth by promoting the National and Georgia PTA legislative positions. A copy of the Georgia PTA Legislative Priorities is available on the GA PTA website. Make copies of this and distribute it to your membership and local elected and appointed decision makers.

h. Copy the Helpful Hints for Effective Advocacy brochure from the GA PTA website and distribute to your membership.

i. Develop legislative priorities for your school. Use the legislative priorities of the Georgia PTA as a guide.

j. Develop resolutions when needed for your school. Submit resolutions concerning statewide issues to the Georgia PTA for consideration. For information about how to develop resolutions, consult with your council Legislative Chair, or State Legislative Chair, read this resource, or go to the Georgia PTA website.
k. When you come to the Capitol:

- Visit the House Clerk’s office or the Senate Information office to pick up your “picture book” of legislators with information on how and where to contact them. Use this book as a reference when you visit with them. It includes the list of committees they serve. It is particularly important to stay in touch with the members of the Education or Appropriations committees. You can also view a copy of this book online.

- Visit your own legislators, whose offices are listed in the book. If it says CLOB it is across the street (Coverdell Legislative Office Building). If they are not in, leave your message including your contact information with their staff. Follow up by telephone, letter or email. Find out if they have a committee meeting and visit them in action.

- Visit other members of your delegation (from the same county). Delegations meet regularly to discuss various pieces of legislation and appreciate hearing from you.

- Find the PTA Education Policy Specialist and/or State Legislative Chair and accompany them to committee meetings or in the gallery to get additional insights into the legislative process.

l. Ensure the National Standards for Family-School Partnerships is implemented in all Legislation and Advocacy programs/projects/events.

Your main purpose as Legislative Chair is to educate, teach and share knowledge. Please do not hesitate to call the council, district or state office for assistance.

TAKING A POSITION

Resolutions are an important part of the advocacy activity of PTA at local, council, district, state and national levels. This is one method of calling special attention to a critical need or concern and frequently leads to promotion and enactment of needed legislation that resolves problems and improves conditions. The Georgia PTA legislative program is developed based on National and Georgia PTA resolutions.

The delegates to the annual National PTA Convention adopt resolutions of National PTA. The delegates to the annual state convention adopt resolutions of Georgia PTA. Districts, councils and local unit PTAs may also adopt positions and resolutions at their general meetings.

Districts, councils and local unit PTAs may work to promote a National or Georgia PTA resolution or position without formally adopting the position as its own. If an official position exists, no subordinate PTA may take a conflicting position; however, the subordinate PTA may choose to remain silent on the issue. If an official position does not exist, the membership of a local unit PTA must adopt a resolution prior to speaking on the issue.

A summary of National PTA positions can be found on National PTA’s website, www.pta.org. A summary of Georgia PTA positions and resolutions can be found later in this resource and on our website, www.georgiapta.org.

RESOLUTIONS

A resolution consists of two main parts: Whereas statements and Resolved statements. The Whereas statements are the preamble part of the resolutions that describe the issue, provide background information, and give reasons for the resolution. The Resolved statements indicate the action called for and express the opinion of the group. Resolutions should also have an identifying title.

CALL FOR RESOLUTIONS

PTAs are encouraged to submit resolutions involving state issues for consideration by Georgia PTA Convention delegates. Resolutions should include the Cover Sheet for Submitting Georgia PTA Convention Resolutions form found in this resource and must be postmarked by the first Friday in January that is a business day. Be sure to review the checklist on the form and to provide sufficient background information with the resolution. Please contact the Georgia PTA Legislative Chairperson if you need assistance or have questions regarding this procedure.

LIMITATIONS OF LEGISLATIVE ACTIVITY

Because PTAs are 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organizations, the IRS rules regulating some types of legislative activities of nonprofit organizations must be followed.

Certain political activities are absolutely prohibited: supporting or opposing political parties or candidates for federal, state, or local public office, even on nonpartisan slates. PTAs may only engage in nonpartisan, issue-oriented advocacy.

Certain lobbying activities are limited. PTA members lobby when they contact or urge the public to contact members of a legislative body for the purpose of proposing, supporting, or opposing legislation. The IRS imposes a limit on the amount of money spent on these activities (generally 5%). Records of the money amounts should be accurately kept. These records help PTAs monitor their activities to stay within IRS guidelines. Complete any required IRS forms, such as the 990 and 990EZ.

The following legislative activities do not count as lobbying because they are considered educational:

- Reporting on passed, or pending, legislation to members;
- Reporting state and national PTA positions to PTA members;
- Adopting PTA position statements; and
- Researching an issue without bias toward one side or the other.

More information about IRS lobbying limitations can be found on National PTA website at www.pta.org.

BALLOT ISSUES

Legislation, as used in the definition of lobbying, includes any local, state or national bill, resolution, referendum, amendment or initiative. A ballot issue is a piece of legislation that needs approval from the voters in order to become law. PTAs may work to support or oppose the passage of a ballot issue, within the IRS limits on lobbying. The types of ballot issues PTAs are most often involved with are school bond referendums, Special Purpose Local Option Sales Tax (SPLOST) or constitutional amendments.

Follow these guidelines when working on ballot issues:

- PTAs should only lobby for or against ballot issues that would affect the work of the PTA. Guidance can be found in the PTA Purposes and Mission; National PTA resolutions, policy statements, position statements and legislative directives; Georgia PTA resolutions, legislative priorities; and district, council or local unit PTA resolutions and position statements.
- If an official PTA position does not exist, a PTA that wants to take a position must take a vote at a meeting of the general membership. This can be done in the form of a motion or a resolution. Additionally, funds for lobbying expenses should be included in the budget and approved by the membership. PTAs should only lobby based upon a position developed with the approval of the membership.
- PTAs must be careful not to be used by other individuals, groups or organizations to promote non-PTA interests. In voter surveys, PTA is widely respected for its positions on children’s issues. Every PTA member and PTA must safeguard the reputation and integrity of the association by avoiding these situations. Unauthorized use of the PTA name should be reported to your PTA officers, council or district PTA leaders, and state office as appropriate.
DOS & DON’TS FOR PTA DURING THE ELECTION SEASON

Election season is upon us and the candidates are campaigning. They are very anxious to meet and get support from voters and all types of community groups, including PTA. Therefore a review of PTA allowable activity is timely and necessary.

- PTA CAN sponsor voter registration efforts. This kind of project activity is strongly encouraged. In order to be effective advocates for children, a citizen must be registered to vote and educated on the issues. First time voters, our high school students, and newcomers to the community should be encouraged to register and to vote. This is teaching and supporting basic civic education.

- PTA CAN encourage citizens to vote, publicize election dates and location of the polling places. Again, this is actively advocating and supporting basic civic education.

- PTA CAN support or oppose ballot questions such as: educational special purpose local option sales taxes (SPLOST), bond issues for schools and tax assessment questions. However, PTA action in these matters must be based on a position adopted through resolution at the national, state, district, council, or local level. Speaking to a ballot issue, which may happen to be a part of a political candidate’s or party’s platform, does not constitute support for that political candidate or party. Instead, it indicates advocacy on a position of record for the organization.

- PTA CAN sponsor political forums or candidate meet-and-greet meetings. All candidates for a specific office must be invited to participate and each candidate must be given equal time to speak at the forum/meeting. Invited candidates who choose not to attend will not invalidate the PTA activity. Make sure an announcement is made at the beginning of the forum informing the audience that all candidates were invited and that candidate X, Y or Z declined to attend.

- PTA CANNOT support or oppose a candidate or a political party or body. Never lend the PTA local unit’s name or your personal PTA title to a political campaign. Never write messages of support or opposition on PTA letterhead or use a PTA distribution medium, such as a directory or an e-mail list, for a candidate.

- PTA CANNOT solicit or accept sponsorships or donations from a political campaign fund. Such sponsorships or donations are often publicized in PTA newsletters and other media, and when paid with political campaign funds, the appearance is that PTA supports that candidacy. Candidates, like any other citizen, may use their personal funds to support local PTA units.

- PTA CANNOT link in any way the PTA name or logo with a political candidate or party. PTA encourages all members to cast a ballot for candidates of one's choice and to be as active as one desires. PTA Board members should exercise restraint in visible support of candidates, such as yard signs, bumper stickers, campaign pins, adding one's name to a support list for a candidate, etc. If an observant citizen concludes that a PTA leader's support of a candidate constitutes PTA organizational support, then the PTA leader should refrain from the overt activity.

If you have any questions or concerns about any of the above statements, please contact your Local, Council, District or State Legislative Committee member. We’ll find the answer for you.
GUIDELINES FOR PTA BOARD MEMBER INVOLVEMENT IN POLITICAL ACTIVITY

The PTA represents parents, educators, community leaders and anyone concerned with the welfare of children and youth; PTA has been advocating for their health, safety, education, protection and general welfare for over 100 years. PTA representatives should conform to the requirements of the law, both in service to the PTA and in their personal affairs. They should observe high standards of conduct so that the integrity, independence, and tax exemption of the PTA may be preserved.

I. The following rules which govern activities of members of 501 (c) 3 organizations should be observed:

A. An officer, employee, or volunteer of the National, any state or local PTA, acting solely in his or her individual capacity, may participate freely in the partisan political process.

B. However, in one’s official capacity as an officer, employee, or volunteer of the PTA, an individual may not:

- Make speeches for a partisan political organization or candidate or publicly endorse a candidate for public office.
- Submit funds for or pay an assessment or make a contribution to political gatherings, or purchase tickets for political party dinners or other functions.
- Endorse a political candidate.

C. If a PTA official speaks at a campaign rally supporting a particular candidate, he or she should not be introduced in his or her official capacity. Any written material in which an individual’s name appears clearly should state that his or her affiliation with PTA is noted for identification purposes only.

D. A PTA official may not use any of the organization’s resources (e.g. PTA membership list, email addresses) in support of a partisan political campaign, and must clearly indicate that they are acting in their personal capacity, not as officials of the organization.

II. In addition, there are general basic responsibilities of nonprofit boards that should be strongly considered:

A. Avoid even the appearance of a partisan political activity that might embarrass the board or the organization, and disclose any possible conflicts to the board in a timely fashion.
B. Maintain independence and objectivity and do what a sense of fairness, ethics and personal integrity dictate, even though not necessarily obliged to do so by law, regulation, or custom.

These guidelines are designed to serve as a resource for the development of similar guidelines for state and local PTAs. Specific activities may require consultation with your legal counsel.
ETHICS IN GOVERNMENT ACT

The Ethics in Government Act is a Georgia law that prohibits the contribution of taxpayer dollars to a campaign committee. PTAs are often involved in campaign committees dealing with ballot issues, such as one to promote a special purpose local option sales tax referendum (SPLOST). Since taxpayer dollars are used to purchase school supplies and to pay the salaries of school employees, any use of school resources or of school employee time could result in an ethics charge being filed against the school system or a school employee as a prohibited campaign contribution.

PTAs are private organizations, and as such are not governed by the Ethics in Government Act and cannot be charged with violations of the Act. However, PTAs must take all necessary precautions to ensure their actions do not inadvertently cause charges to be levied against the school or the school system.

To avoid violations, PTAs should follow these guidelines:

- Maintain a mailing list of PTA members, and mail campaign materials (including newsletters if they contain promotional material) directly to PTA members. Do not use a school-supplied mailing list. Do not send campaign material home with students.
- Copy all campaign material off school premises. Do not use school copiers.
- Distribute campaign material during PTA meetings. If the school system has a policy allowing private organizations to use the facilities, the PTA meeting is a private meeting and distribution of materials does not violate the law.
- Distribution of educational material (non-promotional) using school resources is not a violation of the law. For example, you can send home a flyer with students urging parents to vote in the upcoming referendum; however, you may not urge them to vote “YES” unless you mail the flyer using the PTA’s distribution list.
- Discuss campaign plans with the principal in advance to ensure mutual understanding of the law.

The Ethics in Government Act only applies to information distributed to influence voters. It does not apply to:

- Distribution of material urging members to contact their legislators on an issue
- Publicizing PTA positions on legislative issues
- Educating the public about issues.
KNOWLEDGE IS POWER: 10 TIPS FOR EFFECTIVE ADVOCACY

1. Know your issue. A thorough understanding of the issue is critical. Get the facts, complete research, read articles, consult the experts. Be sure you define the issue properly; otherwise you cannot identify the appropriate remedy.

2. Know your goals. Set realistic goals that can be accomplished.

3. Know your limitations. Assess your organization’s abilities and resources and be sure you are not exceeding your limits. Figure out how much time and how many individuals will need to be involved and determine whether your needs can be met by existing resources.

4. Know the level of membership support. Many important issues may not gain widespread support. Issues that address the concerns of the membership and present a likelihood of success will motivate more people to act.

5. Know your allies. Identify and reach out to individuals or groups that might support your position on the issue. The broader the support for an issue, the greater the chance for success.

6. Know your opposition. Identify potential opposition and understand opposing arguments. Determine the resources of the opposition and gauge how powerful they may be.

7. Know your obstacles. Even though there is no organized opposition to an issue, there may be obstacles. Funding is one of the biggest obstacles to achieving success. Sometimes the obstacle may be an existing law or policy that needs to be changed. Identifying obstacles will help you assess the feasibility of achieving your goals.

8. Know your decision-maker. Identify who has the power to help you resolve your issue. It could be a school board member, a legislator, a county commissioner, or another elected official. Once the appropriate individual or body has been identified, learn all you can about that individual or body.

9. Know your message. Design an effective message that is simple and understandable. Tailor your message to the audience and keep the message consistent. Make sure every messenger carries the same message.

10. Know your ultimate purpose. Always keep in mind the reason you are involved – to improve the lives of children. Don’t get so caught up in the issues that you fail to advocate effectively for children.

MALE INVOLVEMENT

The purpose of the Male Involvement Committee is to encourage, strengthen and support the efforts of male involvement in the education of children. It is our ultimate goal to provide opportunities to men to not only become more engaged in the education of children, but to also offer men an opportunity to become more involved with other men who are facing, or have faced, similar situations and stereotypes commonly held within the greater community.

PROGRAMS

Currently, the Male Involvement Committee is involved with All Pro Dads, a nonprofit organization supported by the National Football League. This program supports opportunities for men, particularly, to bond with their children by utilizing sports figures and other significant community leaders to share their unique stories of success. Other programs, which enhance male presence in PTA, include but are not limited to: Muffins with Dad, Career Day, Fathers Being Involved (FBI), “Dad’s Favorite Book Day”, Dads and Daughters events, Fathers and Sons events, anonymous tip line to report issues affecting youth, surveys, parent and child meetings, speakers, role models, “Dress up Day” sponsored by K&G, mentoring, and fine arts field trips.
MEMBERSHIP

Members make it possible for PTA to serve children and youth. The goal of the Membership Committee is to enroll members throughout the school community, including those who may not have children in school but have a vested interest in seeing children succeed. Georgia PTA believes membership should be reflective of the community, and that leadership should be reflective of membership.

GETTING STARTED

The Membership Chairperson and committee are responsible for promoting the value of PTA, increasing PTA membership and giving everyone in the community an opportunity to belong.

The Membership Chairperson/Committee should:

1. Secure records of membership and procedure book from the previous year’s chairperson.
2. Plan early. Organize your Membership Committee at once. Involve as many people as you can. Ask for cooperation from the room representatives. Have a membership recruiter in every classroom. Ask your president, principal and Executive Committee to assist you.
3. Work with the Membership Committee to adopt a Plan of Work that includes conducting a membership campaign during the entire school year.
4. Ensure the National Standards for Family-School Partnerships are implemented in all Membership Drives, programs/projects/events.
5. Keep track of all cards… they must be accounted for.
7. Send a cordial letter of invitation to join the PTA to each home. Have the president and the principal sign the letter.
8. Begin the membership campaign early as soon as teachers report back to school; at parent/student orientation events; and the first week of school.
9. Enroll all parents, teachers, principals, and staff at your school. Include grandparents, relatives, business partners, and students.
10. Have membership tables at registration day, open house and all PTA events during the year.
11. Issue a membership card for EACH PERSON, not each family. This is a National PTA requirement. Distribute cards to every member promptly upon receipt of dues.
13. Collect and count membership money. Use Cash Verification Form in Financial Management section of the Leadership Resource. Turn dues receipts over to the Treasurer as soon as they are received and recorded. Use the members of the membership committee to assist with counting and verifying dues receipts.
14. Remit membership money immediately to the treasurer and request a receipt.
15. Remember that state and national dues are not to be considered as income for the unit or included in its budget. The local unit collects the dues and sends the state and national portions (for members previously not remitted) on a monthly basis to the state office.
16. Work with the Community Involvement Committee to grow and promote membership.
17. Compile and maintain a list of all persons’ names, addresses and telephone numbers of members who paid dues to your PTA. Do this by individual classrooms or homerooms. Use Just Between Friends to simplify collecting and maintaining your unit’s membership roster. Provide a duplicate membership roster for the secretary’s official book.
18. Be aware of increases and decreases in membership from prior years.
19. Attend all council and district workshops and Convention Leadership Training to be informed on all PTA issues.

20. Recommend volunteers, leaders and community members for the Honorary Georgia PTA Life Achievement Award, Founders Award or a National PTA Lifetime Achievement Award. (See Forms in this Guide.)

21. Evaluate membership efforts at the end of the year. Identify trends.

22. Return unused membership cards to the state office by the end of the school year.

23. Pass along materials and knowledge to the next Membership Chairperson.

MEMBERSHIP PROCEDURE BOOK

What does a PTA Membership Procedure Book include?

- a. Directory of PTA board members, faculty, your membership committee, council membership chairperson, district membership chairperson and other necessary contacts
- b. Association bylaws
- c. Current budget
- d. Membership forms including Honorary Georgia PTA Life Achievement Award, Founder’s Award and National PTA Honorary Lifetime Achievement Award
- e. Membership calendar and your plan of work
- f. National PTA Membership Quick-Reference Guide
- g. Membership Committee section of this Leadership Resource
- h. Membership brochures
- i. Job descriptions
- j. Copies of membership articles from the PTA eVoice newsletter and Our Children magazine
- k. Membership award information and deadlines
- l. Previous year’s membership report with suggestions for improvement

A three ring binder makes the most convenient notebook for a procedure book as pages can be added and subtracted easily for update purposes. Remember that a PTA procedure book is the property of the association and not the person using it for the year.

SELECT A THEME OR SLOGAN

When planning your membership campaign, choose a theme or slogan that will become familiar to everyone in your community. Publicize it and use it often. You may wish to have tee shirts, bumper stickers or other items made up with your slogan printed on them to sell in your school. Use the theme on posters, letters, flyers, and radio announcements and in your PTA newsletter. It will create interest, promote friendship, and make PTA fun. You might even have a contest and present a prize to the person who gives you the best idea for a slogan or theme.

MEMBERSHIP PROCLAMATIONS

As a means of promoting membership, contact a local, county or regional official and request that August, September or October be proclaimed “PTA Membership Enrollment Month” for your area. Contact this person early so there will be enough time to prepare a proclamation. Take a photograph of the official presenting the proclamation and send it to the local newspaper with an article.
MEMBERSHIP CHALLENGES

For several years, states and regions have challenged each other to increase their PTA membership. Georgia PTA encourages local units and councils to make their membership campaign more exciting by issuing a challenge to another unit or council. Some ways to meet the challenge are:

- Strive for a PTA member for each child enrolled in school.
- Strive for 100% staff membership.
- Increase membership by a specific percentage.
- Reach out to people who do not have a child in school such as grandparents, business people, school board members, etc.
- Set a goal to gain a certain number of new members in February—Founders Day month.

2013-2014 MEMBERSHIP CARDS

1. Members are asked to go online or phone to “activate” their membership card.
2. Members will be asked limited personal info, including their email address, to activate.
3. Members must activate their cards to access the locked NPTA sections and benefits.
4. There are four (4) membership cards to a page. A special offer coupon from Staples is attached to each card.

MEMBERSHIP CARDS

1. National PTA provides membership cards to Georgia PTA, which is accountable for the cards.
2. Georgia PTA distributes membership cards to the local unit president at Convention Leadership Training (CLT) and at the state office in August for those who weren’t able to attend CLT.
3. The number of cards given to each unit is based upon the number of unit members reported during the immediate past PTA year. The state office will send additional membership cards upon request and payment of dues for at least 90% of the membership cards previously received by the PTA. You cannot obtain cards from the National PTA office.
4. Membership cards are for an annual membership and will remain valid until it is renewed at the beginning of the next school year. Membership cards must be presented, with credentials, by members registering as voting delegates at state and national conventions, and at council and district meetings, as well as local unit meetings.
5. Give a membership card to each person who joins a PTA unit as soon as they pay their dues. Never issue a card in more than one name, such as “Mr. and Mrs. Jones” or “Jones Family.”
6. An individual must be a member in a PTA unit to be eligible to vote or to hold office in that unit, Georgia PTA, or National PTA.
7. The membership card entitles its owner to attend and enjoy full participation in any Georgia PTA or National PTA sponsored meeting (conferences, workshops, convention, etc.) Frequently, members are asked to show a current membership card as identification and credential when voting. Carry the card to all PTA meetings.
8. Membership in one unit does not constitute membership and voting privilege in another unit.
9. You must account for every membership card, either by dues sent to the state office or by returning unused or voided cards to the state office by the end of the school year.
10. Never issue blank membership cards. Fill in National PTA Unit ID# (local unit #), name of PTA member, name of PTA, date issued, and date expired. Use the membership template available on the Georgia PTA website to simplify adding this repetitive process.

THE NATIONAL STANDARDS FOR FAMILY-SCHOOL PARTNERSHIPS

A new way of leading – building family-school partnerships for student success.

More than 30 years of research shows that family involvement promotes student success. No matter what their family income or background may be, students with involved parents are more likely to:

- Earn higher grades and test scores,
- Pass their classes,
- Attend school regularly,
- Have better social skills and adapt well to school, and
- Go on to postsecondary education.

When families, schools, and communities work together:

- Student achievement improves,
- Teacher morale rises,
- Communication among parents, teachers, and administrators increases, and
- Family, school, and community connections multiply.
Standard 1: Welcoming all families into the school community
Families are active participants in the life of the school, and feel welcomed, valued, and connected to each other, to school staff, and to what students are learning and doing in class.

Standard 2: Communicating effectively
Families and school staff engage in regular, two-way and meaningful communication about student learning.

Standard 3: Supporting student success
Families and school staff continuously collaborate to support students’ learning and healthy development both at home and at school, and have regular opportunities to strengthen their knowledge and skills to do so effectively.

Standard 4: Speaking up for every child
Families are empowered to be advocates for their own and other children, to ensure that students are treated fairly and have access to learning opportunities that will support their success.

Standard 5: Sharing power
Families and school staff are equal partners in decisions that affect children and families and together inform, influence, and create policies, practices, and programs.

Standard 6: Collaborating with community
Families and school staff collaborate with community members to connect students, families, and staff to expanded learning opportunities, community services, and civic participation.

National Standards Implementation Guide
The benefits of family-school-community partnerships are many: higher teacher morale, more parent involvement, and greater student success are only a few. That is why PTA developed the National Standards for Family-School Partnerships Implementation Guide, a tool for empowering people to work together with an end goal of building family-school partnerships and student success.

For each of the six National Standards for Family-School Partnerships, this online guide provides:

- An explanation of each standard and its importance
- Insights to help convince educators of the standard’s value
- A success story from a school community
- Action steps for your school community
- Resources to enhance your understanding

Visit the National PTA website at http://www.pta.org/2757.asp to download the full guide, as a PDF, which provides additional details, background, research, and success stories.
BUILDING FAMILY-SCHOOL PARTNERSHIPS THE PTA WAY

PTA offers a means to develop strong family-school partnerships and involve the community. The process can be tailored to each school. PTA’s process for building successful partnerships is grounded in the National Standards for Family-School Partnerships and consists of three steps:

- Raising awareness about the power of family and community involvement.
- Taking action to cultivate involvement through specific programs and practices.
- Celebrating success as your school sees increased involvement and its impact.

Visit the National PTA website at http://www.pta.org/family_school_partnerships.asp for more information and to download parent involvement resources, in English and in Spanish.

Parent Involvement Certification

In 2010 Parent Involvement Certification and Assessment was developed by the Family Engagement Committee for PTA leaders across Georgia. Georgia Department of Education recognizes this training for Parent Involvement Coordinators as a pre-certification for their program 360 Degrees of Parent Engagement.
Family-School Partnerships: Hearst Awards

The National PTA Phoebe Apperson Hearst Innovation in Family Engagement Award recognizes and celebrates achievement in building effective family-school partnerships. The recipient of the Hearst Award will receive $2,000 and will be recognized at the Annual National PTA Convention and Exhibition. In addition, four Awards of Merit will be awarded to applicants who demonstrate exemplary family engagement initiatives. Awards of Merit recipients will receive a certificate of recognition.

Family engagement is the heart of PTA’s core mission. Family engagement is defined as:

- A Shared Responsibility - A shared responsibility in which schools and other community agencies and organizations are committed to engaging families in meaningful and culturally respectful ways, and families are committed to actively supporting their children’s learning and development.

- Cradle to Career - Continuous across a child’s life, spanning from preschool programs such as Early Head Start programs to college and career.

- Across Contexts - Carried out everywhere that children learn – at home, in pre-kindergarten programs, in school, in after-school programs, in faith-based institutions, and in community programs and activities.

THE MODEL PTA

OPTIONAL REPORT

The role of the Parent Involvement/Family Engagement Committee is to work with the board and the school administrators through this process of The Model PTA. For those looking for additional recognition and a way to share outstanding ideas that focuses on Family-School Partnerships should complete the local unit PTA application for the Georgia PTA Hearst Family-School Partnership Awards!

Award Overview:
Georgia PTA’s Hearst Family-School Partnership Awards recognize and celebrate PTAs that are effectively demonstrating the PTA National Standards for Family-School Partnerships in their local school communities.

The PTA National Standards for Family-School Partnerships are a framework for how families, schools, and communities can work together to support student success. Each standard is rooted in the value of mutual respect, trust and courtesy. The National Standards are used to develop, evaluate, and improve engagement practices at school.

There are three levels of recognition:
- The Outstanding Family-School Partnership Award is given to one local PTA for exemplary all-around achievement of all six (6) National Standards.
- The Family-School Partnership Award of Excellence is given to six (6) local PTAs, each representing the best in one (1) of the six (6) National Standards.
- The Family-School Partnership Award of Merit is given to all local PTAs that apply to the awards program, in recognition of their commitment to building family-school partnerships.
TIPS FOR SUCCESS:

1. Achieve The Model PTA status and receive recognition at the annual Convention Leadership Training Conference.

2. Basic assumptions about families, students and schools:
   - All parents – regardless of their socio economic status and educational background – want what is best for their children.
   - All teachers, administrators and principals want to provide the best instruction they can for all their students – without a thought to addressing behavioral, social or liability issues.
   - Parents feel connected to their child’s educational journey – from kindergarten to college, when they understand what happens in the classroom, each grade level, year after year.
   - Education is an internal journey – most of what we need can be accomplished by networking.
   - The real challenge is finding a unifying purpose/goal and outcome.

3. Local Unit PTAs
   - Discuss this program with board members, and agree together to build an effective parent involvement system in your school with The Model PTA.
   - Date and initial each guideline when accomplished in the Living Document.
   - Mail out The Model PTA Award Cover Sheet and a copy of the completed Living Document form to the Georgia PTA state office postmarked by the second Friday in March.
     - Keep a completed copy of the document on file, as part of the recorded history of the PTA

4. All Council PTA leaders:
   - Attend a workshop on The Model PTA program, and become familiar with this process.
   - Provide workshops and trainings at Schools of Information and Priority Fairs
   - Assist Local Unit PTAs to accomplish the Administrative and Operational Guidelines.
   - Maintain a record of progress of participating local unit PTAs.
     - Appoint council officers to specific areas of The Model PTA, and make local unit PTAs aware of assignments.

5. Georgia PTA:
   - Invites all local unit PTAs to participate in The Model PTA process and in the Parent Involvement Certification and Assessment.
   - Offers workshops at the annual Convention Leadership Training as part of the Reports Writing Workshop, PTA Universities, District or Council workshops.
   - Has developed a system of tracking local unit PTAs participation and achieving status of this program, and will keep Council and District PTA leaders apprised of same.
   - Provides assistance where needed.
PROGRAMS

A PTA’s programs can take many forms. The main purpose of any PTA program should be to involve families and help the school. Your PTA can run the types of programs that will be valuable to your school and community. Effective planning is essential for creating programs that children, families and communities will enjoy and benefit from.

Work with other committee chairs to plan and implement your PTA programs. For example, confer with the Parent Involvement/Family Engagement Chair to ensure the National Standards for Family-School Partnerships are implemented in every program/project/event.

The resources needed to support these programs (money, time, volunteers, space for activities, etc.) are often limited and require program leaders to think creatively. Programs should be planned in response to a need or priority of the school community. They must be relevant, have clearly defined goals and when appropriate, be sustainable over time.

Programs should encourage and support opportunities for parents, families, and other caring adults to be involved in the healthy growth and development of children and youth. Topics such as Promoting a Healthy Lifestyle could include food and nutrition, physical activity, safety and grassroots advocacy; Targeting Parent Involvement in Education could include student achievement, volunteerism, leadership and grassroots advocacy. Another program could be Accentuating the Arts and Appreciating Culture with topics such as visual arts, performing arts, language arts, cultural enrichment and grassroots advocacy.

Visit the Georgia PTA website (http://www.georgiapta.org/leadership-other-committees.html) for more program ideas such as How to Conduct a...

PUBLIC RELATIONS

The objectives of the Public Relations Committee are to inform the public and the PTA membership about the ideals of the PTA as expressed by its Purposes and Mission, and to create a supportive climate for the PTA in the community so that its goals can be accomplished.

The Public Relations Chairperson should:

- Know and understand the association.
- Be well informed about National and Georgia PTA legislative positions.
- Establish working relations with representatives of television, newspaper, radio and other news media in the community.
- Arrange a public relations calendar for the year.
- Develop a resource material file.
- Use committee chairperson reports as resource information for feature stories.
- Emphasize news that will attract more participation in the PTA.
- Develop awareness among PTA members of the continuing need for information about plans, projects, and activities.
- Ensure press release coverage of PTA programs/projects/events that occur in the school community.

Every medium of communication - television, newspaper, school/PTA website, magazine, exhibits, pictures, posters, telephone, and personal contact - should be used to tell what the PTA is, what it has done, what it is doing, what it plans to do, and why. The structure and image of the local PTA will grow through an effective public relations program.

Adapt to local use, whenever possible, news releases and articles about Georgia PTA and National PTA activities. Show how they relate to local issues.
PUBLICATIONS & MEDIA

The work of the PTA is promoted through its publications. Through intelligent use, leaders gain knowledge and skills necessary to carry on a program that will earn the respect and confidence of the home, school and community.

Publications Program: PTA Newsletter (hard copy/online guidelines)

- Determine the purpose of the newsletter and who your readers are. Always ask, “Do the readers really care about this?” Be sure the article is relevant before publishing it.
- Make it eye catching so people will read it. This means neat, clean copy (no blurs or smudges), sharp black type and illustrations (uncluttered, with plenty of white space).
- Make use of devices (such as screens, color blocks, arrows, bullets, and subheads) to break up copy, organize material and call attention to important items.
- Vary look with photos/clip art. Avoid mixing the two and don’t overuse. Too much clip art is distracting.
- Make sure each issue contains the name, address of the PTA, and school (if a local unit). Include a masthead in each issue (the box with name of the newsletter), name and address of the president, editor, and information on the newsletter such as copy deadlines and frequency of publication.
- Feature a mix of short informational items and longer, factual articles or mini-features.
- Invite the school principal and staff to write. Give them a specific topic, some pointers on what the audience would want to know, and a word limit.
- Pay attention to grammar, spelling and usage.
- Edit for clarity and style and eliminate extra words and jargon.
- If sending home through student backpacks or posting on school website, get principal’s approval for newsletter prior to printing/posting.
- Use large, readable type, and headlines that are the right proportion to that type. For better readability, set type in columns, but don’t make them too wide.
- Insist that your printer produce a good product. Don’t settle for faint, hard-to-read type.
- Reprint and excerpt (cut/paste) from other sources, but for both legal and ethical reasons, always get permission from the publisher first and run a reprint line.
- US mail or Email the newsletter if possible so it reaches the students’ homes. Investigate getting a bulk permit from the post office for US mail. Be sure money is provided in the PTA budget for postage.
- Exchange newsletters with other PTAs; look at the content and layout of other publications. Imitate the best.
- Arrange to have a PTA corner in your community newspaper. Volunteer to write articles regularly, and stick to the deadline.
- Refer to “Website Coordinator” in the Committees section of this resource for more information and ideas.

Your PTA newsletter should include:

- Frequent use of PTA Logo (e.g. masthead, header, footer, articles, etc.)
- Message from the PTA President
- Calendar of events, including PTA meetings and workshops
- Committee chair reports/news
- PTA membership articles and updates
- PTA legislative/advocacy articles
- Parenting articles, including National Standards for Family-School Partnerships
- Parent involvement opportunities
- State or National PTA news/information, including websites (www.pta.org and www.georgiapta.org); council or district PTA news/information
- Layout and design that is eye-catching, readable, uncluttered, with plenty of white space.
ROOM REPRESENTATIVE

Room representatives are parents and guardians from a particular class or grade level who serve as a liaison or contact person for the classroom. The Room Representatives play a very important role in each PTA unit. They provide a close personal contact between the PTA, parents, students and teachers. The room representative coordinator or committee chairperson represents the room representatives on the board of directors.

At the beginning of the school year the Room Representatives’ Chairperson and the principal should meet with the room representatives, PTA President and teachers to become better acquainted and to determine the responsibility of each. This would be an ideal time to inform room representatives of school policies, procedures and programs (i.e., school schedules, number of parties permitted, etc.) and how they relate to room representatives.

- Room representatives have an excellent opportunity to relate the purpose of PTA and bring parents and teachers into closer contact through telephone calls, written notes and home visits. Personal contact seems to make people feel more involved.
- Room representatives should work closely with the Membership Chairperson by contacting parents in their classrooms and urging them to join the PTA.
- Room representatives should urge attendance at PTA meetings by informing parents of dates, times and programs. Ask telephone chairperson in each room to contact parents and personally invite them to PTA just prior to each meeting.
- Room representatives should work with the Hospitality Committee by providing “meeters” and “greeters” at each PTA meeting.
- Room representatives should assist with all programs and projects undertaken by PTA.
- The Room Representative and the school principal should consider drafting a “code” for parents and volunteers who visit the school.
- PTSAs might give students the opportunity to serve as room representatives.
- Keep a procedure book of activities to be given to the next chairperson.
SPECIAL EDUCATION (Special Services)

This committee addresses the needs of diverse learners in the school population by fostering communication and awareness of special education between the district, school, parents, and children. Exceptional children include the gifted and talented, as well as students with mental disabilities; physical disabilities; chronic illnesses; visual disabilities; hearing disabilities; speech disabilities; social and emotional disabilities; learning disabilities; and in some instances, disadvantaged and deprived students. Each local unit is strongly encouraged to have this committee. This committee recognizes and promotes each child’s abilities rather than disabilities. It is not designed to be a sounding board, but is organized to help assist parents and teachers in the education of all children.

Special Services Programs

Provide current information about support groups and meetings to families, assist with and promote awareness of legislative issues relating to special education, conduct educational workshops for parents about services and strategies related to special services, raise awareness among all students, parents, and staff about the needs, talents and uniqueness of all children, encourage students, parents and community members to mentor children and work within the community to encourage businesses to provide employment opportunities for children receiving special services.
VOLUNTEER COORDINATOR

PTA Volunteer Coordinator oversees the activities of the school volunteers and represents them on the Board of Directors.

Assess, Recruit and Prepare:

- Meet with the principal and PTA president to review school and district policies and procedures regarding volunteers on campus.
- Assess the need for volunteers at your school.
- Recruit from all segments of the community.
- Create job descriptions for your unit’s committees including goals, timeline and significant dates, detail activities and time estimate for committee members, estimated cost/revenues, facilities needed, outside purchases required, faculty involvement, previous year committee contact information, sponsor/partner participation and miscellaneous information.
- Train the volunteer to ensure that school district requirements are met (health standards, liability, etc.). Contact your council and your school district to determine standards.
- Match the volunteer’s interest and skills with the needs of the PTA and school.
- Check to see if your school district or school has a volunteer or parent involvement coordinator. If so, contact them to explain your PTA’s interest in working with them.
- Provide opportunities for orientation and training. Furnish a handbook or an information sheet to each volunteer about his or her responsibilities.
- Furnish a handbook, an instruction or information sheet.
- Provide name/identification badges for volunteers.

Tips for Recruiting Volunteers:

- Plan ahead – decide on the projects your PTA will be doing and what will be needed to make your projects a success.
- Know the number needed – when organizing the project, decide how many volunteers will be needed. Make a chart that clearly shows the job and hours needed.
- Contact volunteers promptly – when parents, teachers, students, senior citizens and community leaders agree to be volunteers, contact them as soon as possible. Let them know what the PTA needs and how they can help.
- Plan for the unexpected – things happen that make it impossible for volunteers to come at their appointed time. Make sure you have a backup reliever so volunteers will not have to work longer than they had planned.
- Thank and recognize – always send a thank you note after a volunteer has worked for your PTA. Also, plan other ways to recognize your volunteers. After all, it’s the only pay they will receive.

Reasons People Continue to Volunteer:

- They were trained or prepared to do their volunteer job well.
- Someone asked them about their volunteer experience and for their opinion about how to make it better.
- You made them feel valued and the volunteer had a positive experience.
- To use otherwise unused gifts or skills.
- Because of tradition.
- Out of concern (child abuse, teen pregnancy, etc.)
- To have a sense of purpose, fulfillment and accomplishment.
WEBSITE COORDINATOR

The website coordinator is responsible for maintaining an up to date website complete with information current to the aims and accomplishments of the local unit, encourage attendance at PTA meetings and parent involvement in PTA activities, foster cooperation with the school in keeping parents informed about school functions, and encourage engagement with the child in the home and in the school.

When developing and maintaining PTA Websites utilize these guidelines:

- Adhere to PTA noncommercial, nonpartisan and nonsectarian policies.
- Clear all materials with PTA president and school principal before downloading to the website.
- PTA presidents should verify the accuracy of PTA information and compliance with PTA policies.
- Use your PTA logo and tagline (every child. one voice.) on your website. Consider placing links to National PTA (www.pta.org) and Georgia PTA (www.georgiapta.org) on your website.
- Never present material critical of any individual or group.
- Do not publish, without permission, personal information about students or adults. This includes: photographs of students or adults (with/without first or full names); home addresses and/or telephone numbers of students or adults; email addresses of students or adults; and class schedules.
- Date all materials.
- Always make it easy for the reader to identify and find you. List the following items: name of PTA district, council or unit; contact information (not home addresses.); names of PTA levels to which you belong (PTA district and council, Georgia PTA, National PTA); and most importantly, include an email address and phone number so you can be reached for more information about your association.

Translating Materials:

- PTAs must work closely with the school to meet the language needs of all recipients.
- To translate information and materials, seek help from bilingual parents on your board of directors, teachers or support personnel in the classrooms or the school district, or the foreign language departments at local high schools, community colleges and universities.
YOUTH SERVICES

The purpose of the Youth Services Committee is to identify the greatest potential threats to children and youth and avert or lessen these dangers; and encourage the availability of facilities and services for these young people.

Issues that may be addressed by this committee are substance use and abuse, tobacco use by minors, sexuality issues such as sex education and teen pregnancy, eating disorders and obesity among youth, gangs, prejudices and discrimination, internet safety, child abuse prevention, stress, depression and suicide, bullying and school violence/discipline issues, teen driving, bus/bike/crosswalk and fire safety, stranger danger, peer pressure, high school absenteeism and high school dropout rates, runaway/missing children, terrorism and/or disaster preparedness.

PROGRAMS

Effective programs include Red Ribbon Week, The Great American Smokeout, Youth Gun Safety Campaign-ASK, C.H.A.T. (children’s hour at the table), Fun Runs, Jump Rope for Heart, Alcohol Awareness Week, Consequences of Crime programs, Prom Promise, Slip, Slap, Slop (skin cancer awareness), Lunch ‘N’ Learns, CWK taped programs (Connect With Kids), teen driving programs in the middle and high schools, school safety patrol programs and inviting speakers to the school to discuss these various issues with students.

In order to be most effective with students, similar programs should be offered for the parents during the same time period. Peachford Hospital has partnered with Georgia PTA to bring free workshops on many of these topics to parents throughout the school year. In addition, there are many free printed materials on these topics available for students and parents.
YOUTH/STUDENT INVOLVEMENT

Student involvement is the commitment by PTA to actively involve students in the work of the association. Parents, teachers and students are dedicated to work as a team to train youth to be future advocates, community leaders, and parents. Georgia PTA encourages and supports student participation in PTA leadership, events, and programs.

Meaningful student involvement happens when the ideas, knowledge, opinions, and actions of students are engaged in every facet of schools. Research and experience proves that meaningful student involvement strengthens students and educators’ commitment to education, community and democracy.

WHAT TO DO

Form a student involvement committee whose membership includes students and adults. Survey the school community to find out what type of activities would encourage student involvement.

Develop a plan for student involvement based on survey results. Set reasonable goals based on what the unit needs to accomplish:

- Develop activities that include and would be of interest to students and adults.
- Seek input from all students – not just those who traditionally are seen as "leaders."
- Keep lines of communication open and two-way.
- Respect all opinions.
- Consider student opinions seriously.
- Be prepared for students to have an active voice in PTA.

Publicize activities through the PTA newsletter, school or PTA Web site, flyers, e-mail, marquees, local newspapers, personal telephone calls, media and other newsletters. Promote positive student involvement through publicity (e.g., posters, radio announcements).

Evaluate activities and accomplishments at least once a year. This will show how students were actively involved, and how students can continue to be involved in PTA activities.

ALICE MCLELLAN BIRNEY ENDOWMENT FUND

In 1922, the Georgia Congress of Parents and Teachers created the Alice McLellan Birney Endowment Fund. In 1954, the Georgia Congress of Parents and Teachers voted to invest a portion of the Endowment Fund in a headquarters building. In 1959, the headquarters building (now referred to as the state office) was completed and occupied. The Endowment Fund is supported by:

- Donations – Individuals, constituent units and other individuals or organizations can make contributions directly to the Alice McLellan Birney Endowment Fund. (Use the Donations Transmittal Form in the Treasurers section of this resource.)
- Honorary Georgia PTA Life Achievement – Honor an individual for extraordinary service with a $25.00 contribution.
- Founders’ Award – Place a name on the Founders Roll with a $100.00 contribution.
- Memorials – Local units, councils, districts, or individuals may honor the memory of a deceased individual who has made significant contribution to PTA work by contributing a minimum of $25.00 as a memorial. (Use the Donations Transmittal Form in the Treasurers section of this resource.)

Administration of the Fund

A Board of Trustees administers the Endowment Fund. Georgia PTA Treasurer serves as the chairperson. The annual interest of the fund supplements the operating budget of Georgia PTA to carry on statewide PTA work.

HONORARY GEORGIA PTA LIFE ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Present an Honorary Georgia PTA Life Achievement Award for meritorious and outstanding service on behalf of children and youth. Honorary awards may be presented at local, council, or district meetings and at state conventions. The $25.00 fee includes a certificate suitable for framing and a wallet size identification card. The fee does not include a pin that can be ordered for $25.00 from the state office. Refer to the form in this section.

The Honorary Georgia PTA Life Achievement Award does not carry a privilege to vote and/or hold office. They provide guest privileges upon payment of the registration fee at the state convention. However, honorary members may become voting members by joining a local unit PTA.

FOUNDERS’ AWARD (GEORGIA PTA)

The Founders’ Award is the highest Georgia PTA honor that a PTA can bestow upon an individual. Generally, it is awarded to someone who has already received an Honorary Georgia PTA Life Achievement Award. It is an especially significant way to honor a person who has promoted children’s well being by serving as an advocate for children. The $100.00 fee includes a certificate suitable for framing and a wallet size identification card. The fee does not include a Founder’s Bar that can be ordered for $25.00 from the state office. Refer to the form in this section.

Like the honorary membership, the Founders’ Award does not carry a privilege to vote and/or hold an office. However, the person so honored may become a voting member by joining a local unit PTA.

HONORARY LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD (NATIONAL PTA)

The Honorary Lifetime Achievement Award is the highest honor that a PTA can bestow upon an individual. It is the most significant way to honor worthy people in your school, community, and state. The honored person is someone who has given outstanding service to children by being an advocate for children. The honoree need not be a member of a PTA nor be well known beyond his or her own area of service. The $125.00 fee includes a certificate and a lapel pin. Refer to the form in this section.

Honorary Lifetime Achievement Awards do not carry a privilege to vote and/or hold office. They provide guest privileges upon payment of the registration fee at the state/national convention. However, honorary members may become voting members by joining a local unit PTA.

Georgia PTA’s Keys to Leadership recognizes PTA members for their commitment to developing leadership skills. By stimulating personal and professional growth, the Keys to Leadership seeks to help you master skills and lead others to achieve PTA goals. It provides you - local unit leaders, committee members and youth leaders - an opportunity to reach your full potential.

We encourage you to participate in the Keys to Leadership to:

- Become a more effective volunteer while building both knowledge and leadership skills.
- Enhance your personal résumé while participating in PTA training and volunteer service.
- Be recognized for the advancement of personal learning as you advocate for children.

Each leader uses a passport booklet to record completed requirements. You will have two years to complete the program requirements beginning with your first attended event. For more information or to download the passport, go to www.georgiapta.org.

Georgia PTA is listening to our membership by allowing our leaders to gain skills through National PTA e-learning at www.pta.org. When you have finished your e-learning component, you will have the ability to print out a certificate of completion, which you will be able to copy and return with your Keys to Leadership Success Passport.

Please note the following items in particular:

- Just as leadership development, both personal and organizational, is very much the responsibility of the individual, so is the maintenance of this passport. Make a copy of the passport in case of loss, as Georgia PTA will not keep records.
- A small star following a workshop name will indicate that this particular workshop/activity is eligible as an award requirement.
- Take your passport to all PTA events/activities and fill-in the presenter name, date and other info where requested.
- Additional copies of the passport may be obtained through Georgia PTA website or your District Director.
- Once you have completed the requirements, mail your passport (don’t forget to make a copy prior to mailing) to the Georgia PTA state office no later than 30 days prior to Convention/Leadership Training.
- All recipients of this award will be announced at Convention Leadership Training and posted on the Georgia PTA website. If you are not able to receive your award in person, it will be mailed to you.
- Members are eligible to earn this award twice.
Georgia PTA Scholarships, the first of which was established in 1963, are funded solely through member, local unit PTA and council contributions. The number and amount of each scholarship vary from year to year depending upon the donations. Over the last few years, scholarships have ranged from $1,000-1,500 per student. PTAs should tell eligible students about these scholarships.

PTA REPORTS

What are PTA reports and why write them?
Georgia PTA advocates that local units and councils annually summarize their PTA’s work:
- Captures the value of PTA in the school community, in documentation form.
- Provides a written record for future officers and committees, documenting the history of work completed and successful programs and activities (no need to reinvent the wheel), which help to improve the local unit and council PTA.
- Serves as a guide for goal setting and program/event planning, while assisting to maintain consistency and develop strong leadership.
- Opportunity to share ideas and network with other PTAs/PTSAs of the work accomplished during the school year and substantiates all efforts as an advocate for all children.
- Recognition received for efforts and achievements.

The categories of reports are:
- Outstanding Local Unit Report. In this report, a local unit reveals its goals and overall activities during the current school year, supported by documentation. The report includes three different checklists and a written narrative. This is the highest award any Georgia PTA local unit may achieve.
- The Model PTA Award. This checklist includes Administrative Guidelines and Operational Guidelines to achieve The Model PTA status that every local unit should and can be doing.
- Best Ideas. Awarded to local units and councils.

Who writes reports?
Anyone may write reports, however, the responsibility for writing and documenting reports should be established at the beginning of the school year. A Reports committee may be formed whose sole responsibility is to write and submit reports for the local unit or council. This committee works with the president, vice president and secretary to ensure documentation (letters, flyers, invitations, photos, newsletter articles etc.) is collected throughout the year and included when reports are submitted.

When are reports due to the state office?
All reports are due to the state office, postmarked on or before the second Friday in March. No late reports will be judged for awards.

Who judges the reports?
Reports are read and judged by members of the Georgia PTA Board of Directors. The President appoints a Reports Chairperson who is responsible for assigning state board members to report reading sub-committees. Reports postmarked on or before the second Friday in March, and meeting the basic requirements, are counted, logged, catalogued and distributed by the Reports Chair to each report reader. Report readers judge each report based on the criteria established and creative content.
TIPS FOR SUCCESSFULLY APPLYING FOR AWARDS

1. Gain an understanding of the Reports process by attending a Report Writing workshop offered at a Georgia PTA University, or council or district trainings.
2. Follow all instructions carefully and completely.
3. Complete all forms in their entirety; applications are eliminated regularly for being incomplete.
4. Submit your entry on time by personal delivery or U.S. mail (postmarked on or before the second Friday in March).
5. Abide by the page limit. Consider picture collages or reduced newspaper articles. If space allows, letters of support from community and/or school officials usually enhance an application.
6. Choose your words carefully. Brief well-written summaries at the beginning of the narrative draw attention to the entire application and help summarize the contents quickly.
7. Awards criteria provide local units with excellent goals. Use the awards criteria to develop goals and objectives.
8. Creative and innovative entries usually carry more weight when being judged. The uniqueness of an idea may set one report apart from the rest.
9. Consideration is given to entries that utilize resources available through Georgia and National PTAs and to projects that promote inclusiveness, parental involvement or student achievement.
10. Always use proper grammar and spelling.
11. Have someone read your work for clarity and mistakes before you submit your report.
12. Reports must be typewritten, double-spaced, one-inch margins and 12 point (only), Times New Roman font.
13. Due to time and equipment limitations, judges at the state level will be unable to view videos sent with entries.
14. Arrange summary statements or answers to questions in the order requested.
15. Organize the entire application for easy reference to supporting materials.
16. Neatness and attractiveness are “eye catching.”
17. Do not submit reports in a protective cover. Staple in 3 places along left hand margin. All three pages (Outstanding Local Unit Cover Sheet, Advocacy Checklist and Membership/Program Checklist) must be attached. If you complete a narrative or submit documentation, they must all be together and may not exceed the 8 and 10 pages allowed for the entire report.
18. Copy the entire completed application for your files. The work and history of your program are documented and should be placed in a file to share with your successors.
19. Post your report on your PTA website or school web page.
20. Provide a copy of your report to your council and district for their records and judging, if applicable.
21. All entries submitted to the state level become the property of Georgia PTA and will not be returned.
22. Please provide, upon request, an electronic copy of all reports to be posted on the Georgia PTA website.

Special Note:
- All local unit PTA/PTSAs are encouraged to achieve Model PTA status.
- To achieve the Model PTA status please submit either:
  o The Model PTA Report (Award Cover Sheet and both pages of the Living Document) or o The Outstanding Local Unit PTA Report
REPORTS TRANSMITTAL MASTER COVER FORM

HEARST FAMILY-SCHOOL PARTNERSHIP AWARDS CRITERIA

Award Overview

Georgia PTA’s Hearst Family-School Partnership Awards recognize and celebrate PTAs that are effectively demonstrating the PTA National Standards for Family-School Partnerships in their local school communities. The PTA National Standards for Family-School Partnerships are a framework for how families, schools, and communities can work together to support student success. Each standard is rooted in the value of mutual respect, trust and courtesy. The National Standards are used to develop, evaluate, and improve engagement practices at school.

There are three levels of recognition:

- The Outstanding Family-School Partnership Award is given to one local PTA for exemplary all-around achievement of all six (6) National Standards.

- The Family-School Partnership Award of Merit is given to all local PTAs that apply to the awards program, in recognition of their commitment to building family-school partnerships.

Criteria for Selection

Successful applications will demonstrate their understanding of PTA’s National Standards for Family-School Partnerships through policies, programs, and/or activities implemented. The strongest applications will show systemic change and will be able to quantify their impact.

Application Narrative

Applications must be complete and submitted on time. Incomplete or late applications will not be reviewed. Consideration may be given to ensure geographic distribution of awards.

Answer the following three questions (in no more than 2500 characters total per standard, including spaces) for as many of the PTA National Standards for Family-School Partnerships as you choose. A narrative for all six (6) standards is required to be considered for the Outstanding Family-School Partnership Award. Applicants do not have to provide a narrative for all six (6) standards to be considered for an Award of Merit or an Award of Excellence.

1. State the goal for the standard and describe the data driven reasons for choosing this goal. (You may want to refer to PTA National Standards for Family-School Partnerships: An Implementation Guide for guidance in describing the goal for each standard.)

2. Describe in detail one or two activities, programs, or policies your school implemented to address the stated goal. What role did the PTA play? What role did the school and/or community play? (Please identify different activities, programs, or policies for each standard.)

3. Describe the measurable results of the activities, programs, or policies identified in question #2. What attitudes or behaviors changed as a result of your efforts? How did you measure results (e.g., surveys, observation, and informal feedback)? Please report the number of students (ages 0-18) impacted.
